The Grand Master extended a very cordial welcome to our distinguished guests, after which, led by the Grand Director of Ceremonies, Grand Honours were given.

PAST GRAND MASTERS

The Deputy Grand Master presented to the guests and to Grand Lodge our Past Grand Masters present, namely: M.W. Bros. T. H. Simpson, J. A. Hearn, W. L. Wright, H. L. Martyn, R. W. Treleaven and J. A. Irvine.

WELCOME BY TORONTO LODGES

R.W. Bro. D. W. McKerracher, D.D.G.M., presented the other District Deputy Grand Masters of the Toronto Districts and the Worshipful Masters of the Lodges in the Districts. On their behalf Wor. Bro. Percy Jordan, the Master of Mimosa Lodge, No. 576, extended to the Grand Master and to the members of Grand Lodge a most cordial welcome. The Grand Master made suitable reply.

MINUTES

The Assistant to the Grand Secretary proceeded to read the Minutes of the last meeting held in Toronto on July 21st, 1965, when it was moved by the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, and resolved: That inasmuch as the Minutes of the last Annual Communication held in Toronto have been printed and distributed to all constituent lodges the same be now taken as read and confirmed.

RULES OF ORDER

The Rules of Order as prescribed by the Constitution governing the conduct of the meeting were read by the Assistant to the Grand Secretary.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

It was moved by the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, and unanimously carried, that the Order of Business of this Annual Communication be changed at the discretion of the Grand Master.

GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful the Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren:

I am extremely proud to stand before you to-day as your Grand Master and to cordially welcome you to the One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario. Let us, at this time, express our profound gratitude to the Great Architect of the Universe for the blessings we presently enjoy and acknowledge His guiding hand in the conduct of our fraternal affairs since our last Annual Communication.

I certainly would be remiss in my Address to-day, if I did not express our appreciation to the Board of Education of the Township of Scarborough for once again providing us with the facilities of this beautiful Cedarbrae Secondary School. May I also convey my thanks to the Toronto District Past Masters' Association who have made the necessary arrangements for our comfort and the effective carrying out of our duties. We, who hail from other areas of our Grand Jurisdiction, are sometimes not as aware as we should be of the time and effort expended by our Toronto Brethren. We congratulate and thank them for a task well done. A particular word of thanks to Brother Howard Campbell, Principal of this beautiful school, and his staff for their work on our behalf.

I would extend an especially warm welcome to the distinguished Grand Lodge officers and Masonic leaders from sister Grand Jurisdictions in Canada, the United States of America and countries across the seas. I trust that they and their ladies will fully enjoy the happy association afforded by our meetings.

NECROLOGY

As we think for a moment of the departure, during the year, of two of our brethren who had served our

Grand Lodge faithfully and well for many years, let us take time to recall the words of a famous theologian:

"If our hope of a fuller life beyond is to be recognized as a fine and manly thing it must never lessen our interest in the present life or make us to feel it to be less worth living or tempt us to hurry through with it. It must never have the effect of taking our minds off our present tasks so that they shall be done less thoroughly and well: rather should it lead to their more thorough and conscientious performance. And lastly it must never tempt us to think for a moment that what particular thing we do does not greatly matter, that our life in time is not worth improving or this whole earthly order of things worth patching up and bringing nearer to heart's desire."

WILLIAM JOHN ATTIG

The Masons who were in attendance at the Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge, one year ago, were shocked to learn that, on the first day and before the opening session, V.W. Bro. William J. Attig, who had been Chief Clerk in the Grand Lodge Office from 1917 to 1958, had suffered a severe heart attack which proved to be fatal. V.W. Bro. Attig had been a loyal Mason and a faithful servant of our Grand Lodge for many years.

He was born in Mornington Township, Ontario, March 4, 1884. He was employed in the Sovereign Bank for some years, after which he became Clerk of the Town of Haileybury which office he held until he was appointed Chief Clerk in the Grand Lodge Office on August 7th, 1917. He resigned in 1958.

V.W. Bro. Attig was married in 1917 to Wilhelmine McCharles of Powassan who survives him. There are two daughters and five grandchildren also surviving.

V.W. Bro. Attig's Masonic career was marked by a high spirit of loyalty and devotion. He was initiated in Haileybury Lodge, No. 485, in 1908, and became Worshipful Master of that lodge in 1915. He was appointed Assistant Grand Secretary in 1919. He affiliated with Wardrope Lodge, No. 555, Hamilton, in 1920. He was a Charter Member of two lodges in Hamilton, viz: Hamilton Lodge, No. 562, and Lodge of the Ancient Landmarks, No. 654.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Mrs. Attig, her daughters and grandchildren.

HARRY FRANK VIGEON

Our Grand Lodge lost another highly-esteemed servant during the past year in the person of Harry Frank Vigeon, who passed away on November 5th, 1965.

V.W. Bro. Vigeon succeeded his father, the late Harry B. Vigeon, as our auditor and, for over forty years, he meticulously discharged the duties of that responsible position.

He was initiated in Zetland Lodge, No. 326, Toronto, on October 28, 1927, and was installed as Master of that lodge in 1938. He held the office of Grand Junior Deacon in 1945.

The late Dag Hammarskjold, Secretary-General to the United Nations, once wrote a few words that are appropriate for this occasion:

“Give me a pure heart — that I may see Thee
A humble heart — that I may hear Thee
A heart of love — that I may serve Thee
A heart of faith — that I may abide in Thee.”

RECOGNITION OF 100 YEARS OF ACTIVE EXISTENCE

Rehoboam Lodge, No. 65, Toronto, has applied for permission to wear gold braid, under Section 262, in recognition of having completed 100 years of active existence as of March 1, 1967. I was pleased to grant such permission.

On the recommendation of the respective Grand Masters, I was pleased to appoint the following Grand Representatives near other Grand Lodges.

- (j) Dundalk Lodge, No. 449, Dundalk, held its installation by dispensation one day before the date set by its Bylaws and as a result W. Bro. Harvey Ellis did not serve the full prescribed twelve months as Master. I recommend that he be given past rank.

GRAND MASTERS' AND GRAND SECRETARIES' CONFERENCES IN WASHINGTON

Your Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master represented this Grand Lodge at the Grand Masters' Conference in Washington last February. M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon accompanied us and attended the Conference of Grand Secretaries.

One could recognize concern on the part of the representatives of the various Grand Lodges with respect to a falling off in membership throughout the entire Conference, and, likewise, a determination on their part to do something about it.

The general theme of the Conference was MAKE MASONRY MOVE. The keynote address was delivered by Myron K. Lingle, Grand Master of Illinois. Bro. Lingle stressed the importance of organization and leadership in our constituent Lodges, particularly by the Master of the Lodge. He said:

“If you don’t have leadership, you can appoint committees and draw organization charts and make speeches until you are blue in the face, but nothing happens. Leadership is a personal thing inevitably focused in one man—In this instance that one man should be the Master of his Lodge.”

Discussions at the various sessions confirmed the thinking of the members of your Grand Lodge that there is no easy road to success, nor do we seek one, rather we propose to accept the challenge with ever greater zeal and perseverance because we must be successful in our efforts to reverse the trend of a declining membership.

VISITATIONS TO OTHER GRAND LODGES AND MASONIC BODIES

I was unable to accept, personally, all of the very cordial invitations to attend other Grand Lodges and Masonic bodies. The following is a list of such visitations made by me or other appointed representatives, for whose assistance I am grateful.

DISTRICT RECEPTIONS AND OTHER VISITATIONS

During the first year of my term of office, I attended many District Receptions, Anniversaries, and Special Lodge Meetings. This was an experience that I shall long remember, particularly the opportunity of meeting so many Worshipful Masters and, on occasion, immediate Past Masters at District Receptions. The attendance at these gatherings was personally encouraging, as was the warmth of the welcome extended to your Grand Master. I could not help but be stimulated by the enthusiasm and interest of the Brethren. It is difficult to express adequately the enjoyment and pleasure that was mine on every occasion.

I congratulate and extend my grateful appreciation to those Brethren who were members of the various committees responsible for the arrangements, and to the Brethren who, by their attendance, contributed to the success of these splendid functions.

We can look forward to next year with anticipation and pride—both as Masons and as Canadians.

SPECIAL OCCASIONS

On May 3rd a very special event took place in Shuniah Lodge, No. 287, Port Arthur, when R.W. Bro. D. J. Gunn, Deputy Grand Master, representing the Grand Master, was present to honor Bro. John A. Walker, our oldest living member in length of service, who in December will complete 77 years of membership in Shuniah Lodge. He is in his 102nd year and was well enough to attend lodge and join in the evening's festivities.

He is not, however, our oldest living Mason, as R.W. Bro. Adam Brown of Granite Lodge, No. 352, Parry Sound, will attain the 104th anniversary of his birth on December 17.

We extend to each of these esteemed veterans of the Craft our warmest congratulations and very best wishes.

THE MASONIC FOUNDATION OF ONTARIO

I am pleased to report that the first full year's functioning of our Charitable Foundation has been most rewarding and satisfactory. The Directors decided that, for this year, the available income would be used to provide limited Bursaries for a selected number of worthy University students who, through no fault of their own, found themselves in emergent, financial circumstances and who might be unable to continue their education without immediate assistance. The co-operation of all the Universities in Ontario was sought and was heartily accorded. No Bursary was granted without the recommendation of the appropriate university officer and full information as to the necessity for assistance. Forty-six Bursaries were granted, ranging in value from $100 to $500 each, depending upon the circumstances. The total amount granted was slightly over $11,000. There is abundant evidence from the acknowledgments received that the grants were not only of great help but were deeply appreciated as well. I believe that a more detailed report will be given by the President of The Foundation at a later session of this Communication of Grand Lodge. We are indebted to the Directors for their voluntary service on our behalf in this worthwhile undertaking and especially to Bro. Norman W. Byrne, Q.C., the Secretary-Treasurer.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Bro. Douglas P. Taylor, a member of Connaught Lodge, No. 511, Fort William, was convicted in Magistrate's Court of indecent assault involving a member of his own family. The circumstances were so revolting that after satisfying myself as to the identity of the convicted person, I felt that it was a case for immediate suspension, under Section 53. I suspended him forthwith on March 7, 1966, and referred the matter to the Committee on Grievances for such recommendation as to further disposition of this case as the Committee deems advisable.

THE GRAND MASTER'S BANQUET

I am very pleased to inform you that at our Annual Grand Master's Banquet in the Canadian Room, Royal York Hotel, this evening, our Guest Speaker is Wor. Bro. Sir Edwin Leather, a native son of Ontario. He has flown from England especially to address us.

The Committee, under the chairmanship of M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, assure us of a fine dinner and an excellent program. To all of them I extend my sincere thanks.

Last year we had a record attendance, over 1600, and the Committee have made arrangements to accommodate an equal number this year. Please do not be disappointed if you are unable to obtain a ticket. If you dine elsewhere you will be admitted around 8.30 p.m. to enjoy the programme. I assure you of a most enjoyable evening.

FELICITATIONS

I should like personally, and also on your behalf, my Brethren, to extend congratulations to M.W. Bro. Harry Martyn upon his election to the high office of President of the Masonic Relief Association of United States and Canada.

This Masonic service organization is an old and honourable one, having been organized in 1885 — nearly a century ago. Bro. Martyn's election brings honour to this Grand Lodge. We wish him well and know that, in his usual capable and efficient manner, he will provide excellent leadership to the organization and by so doing bring great credit to himself.

APPRECIATIONS

The first year of my term as your Grand Master has been exceedingly pleasant and has passed quickly. I am indebted to many Brethren of all ranks for assistance and co-operation cheerfully and freely given. I undertook my responsibilities with considerable trepidation and although one always has a feeling that more might have been accomplished, I should like to express my satisfaction with the Masonic year just ended. The zeal and devotion of the Brethren has been an inspiration to me as has been the encouragement and guidance of the Past Grand Masters for all of which I am intensely grateful.

I realize it is risky to mention any group. However, I should like to pay a special tribute to the District Deputy Grand Masters. These Brethren have been untiring in their efforts to promote Freemasonry in their various districts. The officers and members of the constituent lodges received worthwhile and lasting inspiration from the visits of these Brethren.

I am deeply grateful to our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Dixon, and his staff for their continued support and assistance through another year. Their wise counsel and consideration extended so cheerfully to your Grand Master have been of immeasurable value.

M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn has again made a most valuable contribution as Custodian of the Work. I have received enthusiastic reports regarding the assistance he has rendered to the District Deputy Grand Masters through Zone meetings. Bro. Martyn's guidance and direction have done much to maintain the high standard of our ritualistic instruction. My thanks also to M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn in the discharge of the important responsibilities of the Grand Treasurer and President of Masonic Holdings, and to R.W. Bro. George McQueen as Supervisor of Benevolence. I am likewise appreciative of the contribution of my Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Wardens and the members of the Board of General Purposes. Their faithfulness in attendance at receptions, dedications and other ceremonies has been a revelation to me. R.W. Bro. the Rev. S. E. Stevenson, Grand Chaplain, has been most faithful in his attendance and participation in District Church Services and other Lodge ceremonies, his efforts have far exceeded "THE CALL OF DUTY" and have been greatly appreciated.

CONCLUSION

The year 1967 will be a memorable one for Canadians and for Canada. We will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of our nation in many ways. Citizens everywhere have been developing plans to mark the progress of a century. The projects being envisioned should impress indelibly upon the minds of our people the extent of the expansion and development that has taken place in this great land of ours.

As Masons, we have reason to be proud of the growth of Masonry in numbers and — of even greater importance — in influence during this period. In 1867 our Grand Lodge consisted of 185 Lodges, and the membership was 7,000. The Grand Secretary's report this year states we now have 632 constituent Lodges and a membership of 131,965.

We are as proud of this record of growth as we are of our traditions. But, important as the past may be, we must now look to the future. Indeed, we must appraise the situation from the viewpoint of beginning a new century. As members of our great fraternity, we have a responsibility to take whatever steps are necessary to ensure that Freemasonry maintains the same time-honored place in our society in the second century of our country as was achieved in the first.

My Brethren, we can contribute to the accomplishment of this objective by halting the decline in our membership that we are experiencing at present, and instituting instead a sound and steady increase in the number of members on our rolls.

Your Board of General Purposes has given this matter careful consideration and has devised a plan of action which will increase interest in those Lodges where it has been lacking and, by renewed vigour, improve the image of Freemasonry.

I suggest, therefore, my Brethren, that our Centennial Year project shall be to reverse the trend of declining membership in 1967. With this definite objective in view, I propose that we attack the problem in three ways:

First, do what is necessary to reduce the number of resignations and suspensions for non-payment of dues.

Second, make contact promptly with every Mason who comes to our area from another jurisdiction; invite him to attend Lodge and help him to get to know and feel at home with the Brethren.

Third, let our light shine before men and thereby enable non-Masons to become familiar with the accomplishments of the great institution of Freemasonry, so that more good men will seek membership in our fraternity. I am afraid only a small percentage of non-Masons are aware of the privileges and benefits that Freemasonry offers.

Without going into detail about the plan we propose to initiate, I should like to inform you that a decision has been reached to convene a meeting of our Board of General Purposes in this city, probably in October, for thorough discussion of the situation and to decide upon and implement a plan of action — and I would emphasize the word “action”.

This procedure will enable those District Deputy Grand Masters who will be elected and installed at this Annual Communication to enter upon their duties of visiting our 632 Lodges, with an understanding of the course of action that is to be taken.

My Brethren, I urge your personal interest and your sincere and energetic support of our Centennial Project. It is not enough to celebrate a century of progress that is past. We must dedicate ourselves to the century of progress that lies ahead. We, as Masons, must move forward with faith in our institution, confident that we can attain our objective. Let us approach this challenge with vigour and vitality.

The future of our Order is in our hands. As we study its philosophy, gain a full appreciation of its history, observe and practise its rites, and show forth in our everyday lives the ideals and teachings of our fraternity, we are strengthening the foundation, making it ever more enduring for the countless generations who will follow us in the important years ahead.

Sincerely and fraternally,

JAMES N. ALLAN,
Grand Master.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

This report was presented by M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, and on motion of M.W. Bro. Hearn, seconded by M.W. Bro. W. L. Wright, it was received and adopted.

To the Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Brethren:

It is my privilege to present to the members of this Grand Lodge the report on the Grand Master's Address.

There is an old saying that can bear repeating "If you wish anything done well and with despatch find a busy man to do it". It is simply amazing what our Grand Master has been able to do in the interests of the Craft despite his onerous duties as Provincial Treasurer of this Province.

Everywhere he has travelled in the interests of Freemasonry he has been received with enthusiasm. His addresses to the membership have been informative and instructive. The members have gained much from our Grand Master's first administrative year.

We share with our Grand Master and all the brethren the appreciation to the Board of Education of the Township of Scarborough for the excellent facilities made available for our use during our Annual Communication at Cedarbrae Secondary School.

We are glad to join with our Grand Master in extending the hand of fraternal fellowship to our Masonic friends from other Grand Jurisdictions. We are glad they came.

We join with our Grand Master in mourning the loss of many members of the Craft. In particular he makes reference to the passing of V.W. Bro. W. J. Attig and V.W. Bro. Harry F. Vigeon. They will be missed as will others at our Grand Lodge.

The congratulations of the brethren are extended to the Officers and Members of Rehoboam Lodge, No. 65, Toronto, upon attaining 100 years of active existence.

We are glad to concur in the Grand Representatives appointed near other Grand Lodges and this Grand Lodge.

Our Grand Lodge is noted for its generosity in donations in addition to those of benevolent grants. The Grand Lodge of Louisiana has expressed deep appreciation for our assistance in their loss during Hurricane Betsy. We heartily approve of our Grand Master's prompt action in this regard, together with other donations referred to in his Address.

We are continually reminded of the deep and abiding interest in our Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds by charitable bequests by members of the Craft and others. We appreciate, with a deep sense of gratitude, the bequest from the late Bro. John W. Stephenson of $3,000.00.

Our Grand Master has, according to past custom, granted past rank to a number of brethren, some due to illness, some due to changes in the fiscal year of the Lodge and one due to the sudden passing of a Worshipful Master. We concur in his judgment.

Our Grand Master reports, in an enthusiastic manner, regarding the Grand Master's Conference in Washington in February. He was accompanied by the Deputy Grand Master and the Grand Secretary. By all reports it was, as usual, a fact finding conference. The Author of this report can speak from experience as to the value of this Conference, he having had the privilege of serving as President of the Conference for one year during his term as Grand Master.

We fully expect that, among the many highlights of our Grand Master's first year in office, was the opportunity of attending the sessions of other Grand Lodges and they were numerous. The Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Secretary and the Past Grand Masters were glad to assist in these important visitations.

Centennial Celebrations for our Lodges are always a gala event. Four of our Lodges enjoyed this distinction the past fall and this year. We offer them our fondest congratulations.

Three new Lodges were instituted, five new Lodges were constituted and consecrated, and five lodge rooms were dedicated. This would indicate forward thinking by many of our members.

Our Grand Master makes reference to a special event in Shuniah Lodge, No. 287, Port Arthur, at which our Deputy Grand Master was present to honour Bro. John A. Walker upon his 77 years of membership in this Lodge. He is now in his 102nd year. However, our oldest living Mason is Rt. Wor. Bro. Adam Brown of Granite Lodge, No. 352, Parry Sound. He will be 104 on December 17th.

The brethren are glad to share in the enthusiasm of our Grand Master upon the rapid progress of The Masonic Foundation, now in its second full year of successful functioning. They have a strong Board of Directors, headed by Past Grand Master R. W. Treleven and Secretary-Treasurer, Bro. Norman W. Byrne, Q.C.

We concur in the disciplinary action taken by our Grand Master in the distressing incident concerning Bro. Douglas P. Taylor of Connaught Lodge, No. 511, Fort William. He now stands suspended and it is in the hands of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals.

We join with the Grand Master and all the brethren in congratulating M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn upon his election to the important post of President of the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada.

The Grand Master has paid a well-deserved tribute to the District Deputy Grand Masters for the faithful discharge of their duties. Their duties are most important; they are, of course, the direct representatives of the Grand Master. Included in this accolade are our high respect and regard for our Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. The Rev. S. E. Stevenson for the faithful discharge of his duties.

We share with our Grand Master his concern caused by decreasing membership. These decreases can be arrested if we work at it. This is the concern of every Mason. We look forward with keen anticipation to the intended meeting of the District Deputy Grand Masters during this fall. This is a forward step from which much good could come.

And now, Grand Master, we commend you for your outstanding efforts during your first year of office. We endorse all your actions during the year under review and look forward with keen anticipation to another year of outstanding administration.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

J. A. HEARN,
Past Grand Master, Chairman.

LETTERS OF REGRET

The Assistant to the Grand Secretary advised that several letters and communications had been received from Grand Masters, distinguished brethren and Grand Lodges, extending most cordial fraternal greetings and best wishes and expressing regret that they were unable to be present or represented.

RECEPTION OF GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

As the Assistant to the Grand Secretary called the roll of Grand Representatives of other Grand Lodges those who were present stood up and were welcomed by the Grand Master. Grand Honours were then given under the direction of the Grand Director of Ceremonies.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I have examined the books and accounts of your Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary for the period June 1, 1965 to April 30, 1966. My examination included a general review of the accounting procedures and such tests of accounting records and other supporting evidence as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities of the General, Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds as set out in the respective schedules accompanying the Grand Treasurer's Report are held and certified to by the Canada Permanent Trust Company under date of May 20, 1966.

In my opinion, and according to the best of my information and the explanations given to me and as shown by the books of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario, the accompanying statement of resources (cash basis) and statements of receipts and disbursements of the General Fund and the combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Fund are properly drawn up so as to present fairly the financial position of Grand Lodge as at April 30, 1966 and the results of its operations on a cash basis for the period June 1, 1965 to April 30, 1966, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Yours fraternally,

A. W. PARISH, F.C.A., of the firm of McDonald, Currie & Co.

GRAND TREASURER'S REPORT

To the Most Worshipful The Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I submit for your consideration the Grand Treasurer's Report for the fiscal year ended April 30th, 1966, which shows, in detail, Receipts, Disbursements, Investments and Maturities in the General and Memorial Accounts.

It should be noted here that all transactions are on a eleven month basis, as in accordance with a motion passed one year ago, the fiscal year was changed from May 31st as formerly to April 30th. This should have a salutary effect on our year end closing.

RECEIPTS, GENERAL ACCOUNT:

Dues, fees, etc. for the eleven month period at $180,903.30 compares favourably with $179,020.86 for the twelve month period ended May 31, 1965.

Income from investments, General Account, was $39,933.09 for the eleven month period under review in comparison with $40,732.70 which reflects higher interest yields on bond purchases during the past few years.

Masonic Holdings have again reduced outstanding debentures by $20,000.00 Series "A" which has been re-invested for the General Account. Total outstanding debentures of Masonic Holdings now stands at $300,000.00.

During the period under review $40,357.29 was transferred to The Masonic Foundation of Ontario in accordance with instructions from Grand Lodge. This makes a total of $140,357.29 with a remaining balance of $20,000.00 which is available when required.

DISBURSEMENTS, GENERAL ACCOUNT:

You will be asked to approve the following donations:

Canadian Heart Fund	$ 500.00
Canadian Cancer Society	$ 500.00
Ontario Boy Scout Association	$ 400.00
Ontario Girl Guide Association	$ 400.00
St. John Ambulance, Ontario Council	$ 500.00
Ontario Society Crippled Children	$ 500.00
Ontario Society Retarded Children	$ 500.00
Salvation Army	$ 500.00
Canadian National Institute for Blind	$ 200.00
Grand Lodge of Louisiana (Hurricane Relief)	$1,000.00
Colonel J. McCrae Birth Place Society	$ 100.00

Total disbursements from the General Fund were $170,013.60, which amount is slightly in excess of the disbursements for the previous year but is well within the budget of expenses which was set up on the basis of a twelve-month period from May 1, 1965 to April 30, 1966.

RECEIPTS, MEMORIAL and SEMI-CENTENNIAL FUNDS:

Income for this account was $21,644.36 for the eleven month period. It follows closely the pattern of the previous year.

We acknowledge with grateful thanks a donation to the Memorial Fund from the Estate of the late John W. Stephenson of $3,000.00.

Under the heading of expenditures for this account, benevolent grants from Grand Lodge amounted to $41,718.93. There would appear to be a gradual decline in the applications for benevolence.

Total resources of this Grand Lodge in all accounts amount to $1,521,104.11 compared with the previous year on a twelve month basis of $1,458,510.49.

The full co-operation of the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, R.W. Bro. George McQueen, Supervisor of Benevolence and Assistant to the Grand Secretary, the Office Staff and the Chairman of the Audit and Finance Committee, Rt. Wor. Bro. R. C. Berkinshaw, has been greatly appreciated.

Forming a part of this Report is a complete listing of income and expenditures, including donations, for all accounts, also individual listings of all investments showing interest rates, maturities and par values.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

J. A. HEARN,
Grand Treasurer.

On motion of the Grand Treasurer, seconded by R.W. Bro. R. C. Berkinshaw, the Report and the Auditor's Report were received and referred to the Committee on Audit and Finance.

GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I present herewith my annual report for the year ended April 30, 1966, containing a Summary of Receipts from various sources placed in the General Fund; Details of Receipts in the General Fund and Ledger Balances as at April 30, 1966, a Summary of Receipts for the year; Details of the Returns of Lodges as at April 30, 1966, a Summary of the Receipts and Payments to the Grand Treasurer on account of the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds; and a Statement of the Receipts and Disbursements on the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds Revenue Account.

As an appendix to the Proceedings I have recorded the details of the Returns of the 629 warranted Lodges and three Lodges under dispensation, as of June 30, 1966.

Again, and for the fifth year in succession I must report a net loss in membership, this year's loss being 1,429, the greatest in over twenty years. Our total membership, as of December 31, 1965 is 131,965.

Let us compare our present figures with last year's. We lost 182 more by death; there were 34 more resignations, 41 more suspensions, 127 fewer initiations, 107 fewer affiliations and 41 fewer restorations.

What must we do to compensate for this great loss? I urge each Wor. Master to make it his objective for his term to see that those who are in arrears are interviewed personally by some officer of the lodge, that he ascertain from the member his reasons for resigning and that everything possible be done to save those who might through indifference or neglect become lost to us.

We continue to show substantial growth in the number of new lodges. Five new lodges were constituted and consecrated during the year and, as of today, three new lodges are operating under dispensation, making a total of 632 lodges.

Interest in new and better premises, as indicated by many lodges, is very encouraging. The report of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings will give you more details.

LAPEL BUTTONS

It gives me much pleasure to welcome into the ranks of our veteran members many new faces. I am able to report that 422 of our older members have qualified for and have received our "50 Year Lapel Button" this year, having completed that many years of Masonic service. Our heartiest congratulations are extended to each and every one of them.

SIXTY YEAR LAPEL BUTTONS

The span of life seems to be lengthening as evidenced by the fact that this year 60 of our members have received "60 Year Lapel Buttons" in recognition of sixty years or more of membership. To them we extend our congratulations.

FIFTY YEARS A PAST MASTER

No less than 15 of our Past Masters have qualified, during the year, for our Lapel Button, in recognition of having served for fifty years as a Past Master. One of our Past Masters received a Lapel Button on completion of sixty years as a Past Master. We are very proud of these leaders in the Craft and extend to them our warmest felicitations.

SPECIAL MENTION

I am happy to inform you that —

- (a) Very Wor. Bro. R. S. McLaughlin of Cedar Lodge, No. 270, Oshawa, and
- (b) W. Bro. William M. Grant of Zetland Lodge, No. 326, Toronto, have completed 71 years of membership, and that —
- (c) Bro. John A. Walker of Shuniah Lodge, No. 287, Port Arthur, has completed 76 years' membership and will celebrate the 102nd anniversary of his birth in December of this year.
- (d) R.W. Bro. Adam Brown, P.D.D.G.M., of Granite Lodge, No.352, Parry Sound, is in his 104th year.

We extend to these brethren our very best wishes and heartiest congratulations.

APPRECIATION

I am again grateful to a very competent and loyal staff for the assistance given to me during the year and for the service they have rendered to Grand Lodge, the constituent lodges and their members. One could not ask for more. To each of them I extend my sincerest thanks.

On motion of R.W. Bro. R. C. Berkinshaw, seconded by the Grand Treasurer the Report was received and referred to the Committee on Audit and Finance.

COMMITTEE OF SCRUTINEERS

The Grand Master appointed V.W. Bro. Robert Strachan, Chairman of the Committee of Scrutineers, to supervise and count the vote at the election of Grand Lodge Officers, with power to name the members of the Committee.

REPORT ON MASONIC FOUNDATION

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. R. W. Treleven and on his motion, seconded by the Deputy Grand Master it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Last year General By-law No. 1 of the Corporation was amended to terminate the fiscal year of the Corporation on the 30th day of April. Accordingly, this Report and the financial statements accompanying it are for the eleven-month period commencing June 1, 1965, and ending April 30, 1966.

Pursuant to the Resolution adopted at the last Annual Meeting on July 20th, 1965, the Foundation must expend not less than 90% of its income in any fiscal period in respect of charitable activities carried on by the Foundation itself or as gifts to charitable organizations within the definitions contained in The Income Tax Act. Your directors have adhered strictly to this rule.

To assure recognition of the Foundation by both the Federal and Ontario tax authorities, both for the benefit of the Foundation and donors thereto, communication has been had with the Deputy Minister of National Revenue (Taxation), and the Ontario Comptroller of Revenue. Full and satisfactory assurance as to the status of the Foundation under The Income Tax Act (Canada), The Income Tax Act (Ontario), The Estate Tax Act (Canada), and The Succession Duty Act (Ontario), has been duly received in writing.

Grand Lodge made provision at its 1963 and 1964 Annual Communications to transfer to the Foundation the sum of \$160,357.29 as an absolute and indefeasible gift to the Foundation to be held permanently by the Foundation for the purpose of gaining or producing income to be used in promoting the charitable objects of the Foundation. Up to the date of the Annual Meeting of the Foundation on July 20th, 1965, the sum of \$100,000 had been duly transferred to the Foundation, and a balance of \$60,357.29 remained in the General Fund Account of Grand Lodge to be later transferred to the Foundation. During the fiscal period ended April 30, 1966, Grand Lodge transferred to the Foundation the further sum of \$40,357.29, together with interest at the rate of $4\frac{1}{4}\%$ per annum to the date of payment. Accordingly, a balance of only \$20,000 remains to be transferred to the Foundation. It will bear interest at the rate of $4\frac{1}{4}\%$ per annum from March 20, 1966, to the date of payment.

Out of the total of $40,357.29 received from Grand Lodge, the Foundation purchased $40,000 of Metropolitan Toronto 6% Debentures due 1986. The Foundation retains all of the securities previously transferred to it by Grand Lodge as part of the capital transfer of $100,000 in the previous fiscal year. Its investment in securities of the Province of Ontario or guaranteed by the Province, and of Metropolitan Toronto amount in par value to $137,500.

In view of the applicable Federal and Provincial Legislation it is necessary for the Foundation at all times to preserve a strict distinction between income and capital. The Foundation has no right to disburse or encroach upon capital. It must hold capital permanently for the purpose of gaining or producing income therefrom to be used in promoting the charitable objects of the Foundation. At least 90% of the income of the Foundation in any fiscal year must be expended by the Foundation for its charitable objects.

The income received by the Foundation in the eleven-month fiscal period ended April 30, 1966, was $9,379.93, consisting of $9,107.93 of interest and $272 of donations. From the previous fiscal period the Foundation held retained income of $3,477.94. Out of these combined income resources the Foundation has this year disbursed $12,215.99, leaving a balance of income retained for charitable and benevolent purposes at April 30, 1966, of $641.88. The disbursements consisted of bursaries aggregating $11,900, and expenses by way of audit and accounting, printing, bank charges, and accrued interest on purchase of investments totalling $315.99.

At its meeting held on November 23rd, 1965, your Board passed the following Resolution:—

“ BE IT RESOLVED—

- “1. THAT this Board select for the present fiscal year as the Foundation's charitable object university bursaries, defined as non-repayable awards to students who are unable to continue their university education without financial assistance.
- “2. THAT not less than 90% of the Foundation's income be earmarked and expended for this purpose.

- "3. THAT the proper authorities of all Ontario universities be advised that a limited number of bursaries to be known as 'The Masonic Foundation of Ontario Bursaries' are available from the Foundation to assist in worthy cases in emergency circumstances, as certified by the appropriate awards officer of the university concerned, the amount of the bursary not to exceed $500.00 in any one case,
- "4. THAT the President and Secretary, with the concurrence of one other Director, be authorized to allot and award the bursaries and to determine the amounts thereof within the scope of this resolution."

The results of the University Bursaries Program have been most gratifying. Awards to the total of $11,600.00 were made to 46 students in 10 Universities in Ontario. The responses from the recipients, the Awards Officers, and Staffs of the Universities attest to the usefulness of the bursaries in filling genuine needs. In many cases the awards have made it possible for students to continue their University careers when financial circumstances otherwise would have compelled them to give up. Your Board of Directors is so impressed with the value and usefulness of the bursaries that they recommend that a similar program be continued next year.

The Board of Directors draws attention to the fact that if the Bursaries Program is to be maintained on the same scale as during the past year further sources of income will be required. The Bursaries Program of the recent fiscal period was made possible by reason of $3,477.94 of income available at the commencement of the fiscal year. Only $641.88 now remain from this source. A curtailment of approximately $2,000 in the Bursaries Program must result unless contributions are received. Your Board of Directors commends this cause to all Lodges and all members in the jurisdiction.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

R. W. TRELEAVEN, President.

REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS

The reports of the thirty-eight District Deputy Grand Masters were presented by the Assistant to the Grand Secretary and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by M.W. Bro. J. A. Hearn, they were received and referred to the Board of General Purposes.

The Report of every District Deputy Grand Master is addressed to "The Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario." Each begins, "Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren," and every one ends, quite rightly, "Respectfully and fraternally submitted." To save space these formalities are omitted from the beginning and end of each Report.

ALGOMA DISTRICT

As my term of office draws to a close I am able to look back over the past twelve months with fond and lasting memory. The support given to me, by the brethren of the Algoma District, made the work of my office that much more pleasant and easier, while the work of the lodges showed much planning and preparation, indicating a sincere interest in Freemasonry by all the brethren.

I have tried, during my year, to bring to the attention of the brethren, the necessity of taking the principles of Freemasonry outside the walls of the lodge and placing them in all facets of their daily lives, thereby increasing the effectiveness of the Craft in our communities. It is with understandable pride and pleasure that I can report that the brethren of Algoma District are not found wanting in energy or sincerity of purpose.

Each of the twelve lodges in the District have been visited once officially with many more fraternal visits following. On the kind invitation of several District Deputy Grand Masters I have travelled to other Districts, these include Chatham, Western and Temiskaming Districts. At the time of the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge I will have travelled some 13,750 miles and will have made 27 visits. Two Lodges of Instruction were held and were well attended and received by the brethren.

On May 9th, I accompanied R.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, Deputy Grand Master, on a visit to Shuniah Lodge in Port Arthur to attend their Old Timers Night and to honour Brother J. A. Walker who is in his 101st year and 77th year as a Mason.

In October of 1965, Port Arthur Lodge was kind enough to invite me to accompany them to Duluth, Minnesota, when they made their annual visitation with Lakeside Lodge of that city.

Mrs. Doyle joined me on several occasions and a warm welcome was accorded us both, at the Joint At Home of the Fort William Lodges as well as at other times.

The District was fortunate in having the Grand Master give his approval for the formation of the Ionic Club, by the brethren residing at Nakina, Ontario.

I have been fortunate to have had as my District Secretary, Wor. Bro. V. H. Bauer, and as District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. Wm. Jowitt, both of whom have attended as many visits as possible and who performed their tasks in a most competent manner.

Nearly all the lodges in the District have a program of visitation with some other lodge, either in Canada or in the United States. It is gratifying to find that, in a world that is torn by strife and distrust, there is a common meeting ground where men of like ideals can join together in the strong bonds of Masonic fellowship. Also, too much emphasis cannot be placed on inter-district visits and the benefits which can be realized from them, not the least of which is the closer knitting together of all the Districts of this Grand Jurisdiction and a broader understanding of our brethren in Masonry.

In summing up, I should like to thank you, Most Worshipful Sir, for having confirmed my election as your representative in the Algoma District, also those Grand Lodge Officers who have been most helpful in answering my many questions. Most of all my sincere appreciation to the brethren of Algoma District for their faith in electing me to this high office and allowing me to serve them and for their strong support. This support, combined with the excellent manner in which the work is presented, has made this year, for me, a most memorable one. In short, the state of Freemasonry in the Algoma District is of the highest calibre and intention.

BRUCE E. DOYLE, D.D.G.M.

BRANT DISTRICT

It has been a great honour, a privilege, and a rewarding experience to be the D.D.G.M. of Brant Masonic District, representing the Most Worshipful Brother, James N. Allan, and I wish to express my appreciation to the Grand Master for my appointment.

Official visits of inspection were made to all lodges of the District. The sincere welcome given to each of us as District Officers was very heartwarming. The ritualistic work was of exceptionally high calibre and most impressive.

My sincere thanks and appreciation go to my District Officers. Wor. Bro. E. Allan Telfer, District Secretary, performed his duties in a most efficient and kindly manner and submitted a most comprehensive report of each lodge. Wor. Bro. John Grieve, District Chaplain, at all times stressed the importance of the spiritual fundamentals of Freemasonry, with Wor. Bro. John Fraser as assistant. Wor. Bro. Hilton Davidson, Director of Masonic Education, with his assistant, Wor. Bro. Richard Secord, gave most interesting and instructive talks on Masonic Education, which we endeavoured to promote this year. I presented about 80 booklets "Suggestions for Officers of the Lodge" and booklets "Guide to Lodge Chairmen." I also distributed 140 "Manuals for Instructors and Students," which were very warmly received and are creating a greater interest in Masonry. Wor. Bro. Harold Amy, Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, gave exceptional talks on the value of giving blood for the saving of life.

A number of brethren and their wives accompanied my wife and me to all the Divine Services in Brant District, as well as some District Divine Services in neighboring Districts. It was a heartwarming experience meeting with the brethren to openly acknowledge our Faith in a Supreme Being.

The highlight of the year was the Reception in Brant District for our Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. James N. Allan, who gave a very inspiring address. The banquet room was filled to capacity with 28 Grand Lodge Officers at the head table, 12 - 1965 and 14 - 1966 Masters of Brant District present.

Mrs. Gurney and I attended several Ladies' Nights. These were very enjoyable evenings and the warm hospitality accorded us on each occasion was much appreciated. I believe these meetings are very important in gaining an overall picture of Masonry at work in a District.

It has been my pleasure to visit various other Districts and meet the D.D.G.M.'s and other Grand Lodge Officers on several occasions, around which has grown a wonderful brotherhood, one in which our lives will continue to be richer and fuller as time goes on.

We are planning a District Divine Service in Burford United Church on June 12th, in which we are being honoured by having as our guest speaker the Rt. Wor. Bro. (Rev.) S. Ernest Stevenson, Grand Chaplain. A male choir of 22 voices, led by Wor. Bro. Stanley Seaton of Teeterville, and a very fine soloist, Wor. Bro. Oliver Sayer of Hagersville, will be present. At this time we are looking forward to a wonderful evening of spiritual uplift and brotherhood.

In conclusion, I wish to say thanks to all who have assisted me in any way this year, to the Grand Master for approving my appointment, to my own Mother Lodge and the brethren of Brant Masonic District for the honour and privilege of serving as D.D.G.M., an experience I shall never forget and from which I have greatly benefited. I hope that, in some small way, I have been able to leave something of value for the betterment of Masonry in Brant Masonic District.

WILFRED G. GURNEY, D.D.G.M.

BRUCE DISTRICT

It is my profound privilege and honour to present a report on the condition of Masonry in the District of Bruce.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the Most Worshipful Grand Master and the brethren of the District for the opportunity of serving Bruce District and Grand Lodge.

I was indeed pleased to have Wor. Bro. Johnson act as District Secretary. His devotion and industry in this office aided and eased the work involved.

Bro. (Rev.) J. T. M. Swan was appointed District Chaplain; Wor. Bro. J. R. Rixson acted as Chairman of Masonic Education and Bro. R. G. Culliford was Chairman of Blood Donors. Wor. Bro. Rixson compiled a Masonic questionnaire of some length which was circulated throughout the District and was exceedingly well received.

One of the highlights of my year was to organize and form a Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association with a suitable and active executive elected and in control. Aside from the initial gathering there has been a regular meeting held and a proper constitution adopted by the members. There are approximately eighty-five paid-up members and prospects for an active association are extremely bright.

During the past year each lodge in the District was visited at least once and I was able to attend numerous meetings and receptions outside the District. Most of the lodges had degree work on the night of my official visit and the condition of the work is generally good. The business portions of the meetings are carried out according to parliamentary procedure.

We have several lodges in the District that are contemplating new lodge premises which indicates that Masonry in Bruce District is in a healthy and vigorous state.

One of the largest attendances at a District Divine Service was witnessed at Trinity United Church when in excess of one hundred brethren assembled for worship. The choir of Speed Lodge, No. 180, provided the musical portion of the program and Bro. (Rev.) J. T. M. Swan, District Chaplain, preached the sermon. I was also pleased to see that a good attendance of wives, as well as the general public, were interested in attending the Service.

I thank my District Officers, the Worshipful Master, Past Masters, officers and brethren of all the lodges in Bruce District who through their co-operation and kind assistance, have made this a most memorable year. I might say also how pleased I am to have had this opportunity to serve as District Deputy Grand Master in this old historic District of Bruce.

JACK A. HARRIS, D.D.G.M.

CHATHAM DISTRICT

It is with pleasure that I submit my report of Chatham District for the year 1965 and 1966.

I would first like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Parthenon Lodge, No. 267, for proposing my name, also to the brethren of Chatham District for electing me, and to the Grand Master for confirming my election as his representative. It has been for me, as it is for every Mason who holds this high office, an experience which I will treasure as long as I live.

It was my pleasure to appoint Wor. Bro. Keith Edwards as my District Secretary, who, in his quiet and kindly manner, carried out the duties of this office and reported that, in all lodges, the records and books were kept in fine condition.

Wor. Bro. George Down, Chairman of Masonic Education, and his assistants have given much of their time to this all-important job. Wor. Bro. Down assisted in arranging a Lodge of Instruction for Chatham District, which was held in the Masonic Temple, Wallaceburg. At this meeting, M. Wor. Bro. H. L. Martyn was present. To him, we are grateful for his enlightening and constructive help. I also arranged a night of instruction for the Wardens of the District with regard to their duties as Masters of their respective lodges, which proved most interesting. R.W. Bro. B. B. Foster was in charge of this meeting. He also travelled to a number of lodges in the District to show Grand Lodge pictures and give talks on Masonic Education.

Wor. Bro. Frank Gross, Chairman of Blood Donors, gave a great deal of time to this all-important office.

Bro. (Rev.) J. L. Vinet, District Chaplain, who is the Minister of Sprucedale United Church of which I am a member, was well received throughout the District and was guest speaker at a number of Ladies' Nights. He was present at all my official visits with the exception of one. He always had a few words for the brethren which they enjoyed very much. He was in charge of the District Divine Service on Sunday, May 15, 1966, assisted by the Grand Chaplain, who also was present on at least half of my visits.

I made my official visit to all fifteen lodges at least once and to a good number twice. My reception was most cordial and left nothing to be desired.

A degree was conferred in about half the lodges and each time the work was well done. On other occasions, lodge was opened in all three degrees and instruction was given. All visits were well attended with an increase over other years. On many occasions a number of Grand Lodge Officers were present.

I was able to attend a number of other Districts and meet many old friends and make many new ones. On the occasion of my visit to my Mother Lodge, there were four District Deputy Grand Masters and three Grand Stewards present, which I appreciated very much, for its an evening like this, that makes your year very pleasant. Also, I was present at a number of receptions for the Grand Master.

A number of the lodges of the District had Ladies' Nights, which I attended with my wife and Wor. Bro. Edwards and his wife, and which we enjoyed a great deal; all were outstanding events. But the one night which will stand out most was in Chatham, when Wellington, Parthenon and Victory Lodges held a combined Ladies' Night for the first time, which was attended by some five hundred Masons and their wives and friends. I was very pleased to have as my guests on this occasion, the District Deputy of the Knights of Columbus, the Grand Knight of Chatham Council and their wives as well as a number of members of the K. of C.

On May 14th, we were privileged to receive the Most Worshipful the Grand Master on his official visit to Chatham District, which was enjoyed by all present and was a fitting climax to any District Deputy Grand Master's year.

I am pleased to report that the condition of Masonry in Chatham District is excellent; that the officers of the lodges are of a high caliber and are doing a fine job. Dues are being raised to meet present day costs. I would like to suggest that more visitations be carried out in the District and outside; also that we give special attention to public relations such as the Press and Radio of all special occasions.

Masonry is something the world needs today as much or more than at anytime. Masonry gives to man the best seed that can be had, so let us sow our seed well, that it may produce that great Virtue of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth in Chatham District and throughout the world. Let us all get that great Masonic Light from under the basket and let it shine brightly everywhere on the face of the earth.

I wish to thank the Grand Lodge Officers for their assistance and guidance which enabled me, in some way, to contribute something for the good of Masonry in Chatham District.

J. E. BROWN, D.D.G.M.

EASTERN DISTRICT

For the honour to my Mother Lodge, Henderson, No. 383, and the distinction for myself of representing, in Eastern District, a great Mason and an old friend, I am most grateful to the District Past Masters' and Wardens' Association for nomination, to the brethren of the District for election, and to our Grand Master for confirmation.

The closing Masonic year has been an active, interesting and productive period for the Craft in Eastern District. While, due to changing population, some of our lodges have found recruitment of new members a practical impossibility, even they have enjoyed a fruitful year. Lack of attendance at regular meetings continues to be a pressing problem in Eastern District although, on each of my official visits, I found a very large attendance of enthusiastic and loyal Masons. It was my privilege to present 50 Year Buttons to two brethren—one of Plantagenet Lodge, No. 186, and one of Chesterville Lodge, No. 320. Such occasions are always fraught with nostalgia, reminiscence and gratitude for the contribution of the brother being recognized.

The District Past Masters' and Wardens' Association remains somewhat inactive with but one meeting a year which is always rescued and made worth-while by the calibre of the guest speaker and the timeliness of his message. At the 1965 meeting a bursary, established a few years ago, was awarded to a young man studying for the Christian Ministry, the son of a member of Excelsior Lodge, No. 142, Morrisburg.

R.W. Bro. G. A. Revell, Immediate Past District Deputy Grand Master, presented to the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association, at its annual 1965 meeting, a travelling gavel to encourage inter-lodge visiting between lodges of the District. I was most happy to be present when, on its first trip, it travelled with Corinthian Lodge, No. 669, Cornwall, to Excelsior Lodge, No. 142, Morrisburg. Undoubtedly, the visits associated with the travels of this symbol of our Craft will do much to re-establish and cement relations among the lodges of the District.

The custom, inaugurated by my predecessor, of having informal meetings of senior officers of the eastern and western areas of the District, prior and subsequent to the regular lodge meetings for the Masonic year, commended itself to me and was continued. These meetings have proved of great value in making the brethren acquainted and in answering some of the many problems and questions which beset an incoming Master and his Wardens.

On my official visits to each lodge of the District, when I was always accompanied and aided by my District Secretary, I was able to view degree work. I am pleased to report that the standard of ritual work and of the conduct of general lodge business in Eastern District is of a very high order, carefully preserving our ancient customs and usages. I was particularly impressed with the youth and enthusiasm of the officers in the great majority of the lodges.

The friendly reception and hospitality which Mrs. Cass and I received at the several, splendid, lodge "Ladies' Nights" that we were able to attend, attested to the excellent spirit prevailing among members of the Craft and their ladies. Such occasions in our District are, and rightly so, celebrated as one of the great events of the lodge's Masonic year and are invariably most successful.

It was my privilege and the District's good fortune to have my immediate predecessor in office, Rt. Wor. Bro. George A. Revell, accept the office of Chairman of our District Committee on Masonic Education. Rt. Wor. Bro. Revell is well-known and is recognized as an authority in this sphere of Masonic activity and his report to me indicates that, in Eastern District at least, Masonic Education has neither been used to best advantage nor has it the appeal for our members which we hopefully assume.

I was grateful that Wor. Bro. George E. McCutcheon of Cornwall Lodge, No. 125, agreed to act again as Chairman of our District Blood Donors' Committee. And I am equally gratified that again he has been able to improve our district performance in this modern but essential community service.

My appointment of Bro. (Rev.) Donald L. Gordon, as District Chaplain, proved to have been another good fortune for the Craft. Not only was he a strong inspiration to me but, under his direction aided by a Masonic choir from the three Cornwall lodges, there was held in Winchester United Church one of the most largely attended and inspiring District Divine Services ever to take place in Eastern District. Some 200 Masons gathered to give praise to the Great Architect, to sing grand old Christian hymns, to listen to solo and anthem selections by the Masonic choir, and to be uplifted and strengthened by our District Chaplain's message.

For the office of District Secretary I was able to capture Wor. Bro. Harry L. Flora, an able, experienced and devoted Mason. Most assiduous in the performance of his official duties, he also was the efficient Chairman of the Committee in charge of the District Reception to the Grand Master. His report to me shows that the lodge books and records are in excellent condition, lodge funds properly dealt with and the routine work and records capably administered. His report indicates a fact which I would here underline, namely, that each of the lodges enjoys the whole-hearted and dedicated services of an experienced Secretary and Treasurer.

I would here also record my gratitude to M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, and R.W. Bros. W. K. Bailey, G. E. Turner and B. B. Foster for instructions, guidance, reminders, and aid in the few problems which officially beset me.

Prior to the District Reception the Grand Master, attended by the Grand Senior Warden and many Grand Lodge Officers, present and past, were received in Henderson Lodge, No. 383, Winchester, by the Worshipful Master, Officers, brethren of Henderson Lodge and visiting brethren and this most important event was one which will forever brighten the records of Henderson Lodge and the memories of all who were present on this colourful occasion.

The highlight of the Masonic year for us in Eastern District was the visit of our beloved Grand Master on the occasion of the District Reception, May 7th, held in the North Dundas District High School auditorium. Not only were the 400 Masons present honoured by the presence of the M.W. the Grand Master, attended by a large number of Grand Lodge Officers from all parts of the Grand Jurisdiction, but no less than 16 of the living 20 Past District Deputy Grand Masters of Eastern District were able to join with us. The friendly personality of our Grand Master, as well as his address, will long linger in our memory and his challenge to Masons to meet present-day conditions is one we have accepted in Eastern District.

The winds of change are gusting strongly throughout our world. We, of the Craft, cannot ignore these changes nor dismiss them. Our youth are not willing to accept the customs, standards, or beliefs of their elders. If we are to keep Masonry strong, or even in existence, we must carefully assess our current and time-honoured customs and usages, preserving the fundamental beliefs and landmarks of the Craft but making those changes in our trappings and customs which are so essential to the future of our Craft in this new age. The leadership in this area given by M.W. Bro. J. A. Irvine and now by our present Grand Master encourages me in the hope that we shall act while there is yet time. And I would hasten to add my support to certain suggestions contained in reports of previous District Deputy Grand Masters, and others, concerning an up-dating of our Funeral Service, changes in recruitment policies and in present policies with respect to social functions held outside of consecrated areas but perhaps upon or within Masonic premises, and recognition of the services of District Chaplains.

And finally, may I express my appreciation of the quite wonderful support given me throughout the year by the officers and members of my Mother Lodge, Henderson, No. 383, Winchester, and of my home town Lodge, Chesterville, No. 320.

FRED M. CASS, D.D.G.M.

FRONTENAC DISTRICT

It has been an honour and a privilege to represent Most Worshipful Bro. James N. Allan, the Grand Master, in Frontenac District. I shall ever be indebted to the Past Masters and Wardens of my own lodge, Victoria, No. 299, at Centreville, for proposing me for this high office, and to the Past Masters, Masters and Wardens of Frontenac District for accepting their proposal and to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for confirming the same.

My responsibilities of the year have been made easier and much more enjoyable by the co-operation and assistance of the District Secretary, Wor. Bro. James E. Hughes. Wor. Bro. Hughes accompanied me on all my official visits and on several other occasions and I am very indebted to him.

I also appointed Bro. (Rev.) Robert L. Willson as District Chaplain, and Wor. Bro. Gummer as District Supervisor of Masonic Education. These brethren also attended several of my meetings. Wor. Bro. Robert Currie was Chairman of the District Blood Donors' Committee until his death, after which I appointed Bro. Leonard Ede. I appreciated very much the work of both of these brethren.

I visited all eighteen lodges in the District at least once and several on other occasions. Without exception I was received most cordially and with appropriate honours. Either on my official visits or at later times I have witnessed "Work" in the various lodges and have found it to be of high quality. Some of the lodges do have attendance problems but all are trying by some means to correct this.

During the year I have had the pleasure of acting on your behalf in presenting a 50 Year Lapel Button to Bro. W. A. "Bert" Donnelly in recognition of 50 years' membership in St. Andrew's, No. 497, at Arden. I also had the honour of presenting a 60 Year Past Masters Button to R.W. Bro. W. C. Taylor, a member of Westport Lodge, No. 441, of Westport. R.W. Bro. Taylor still attends lodge regularly and assisted with the "Work" on the night of my visit.

On the evening of November 24, 1965, one of the highlights of the year took place when the Masons of Frontenac District held a night to honour our Grand Senior Warden, R.W. Bro. David Stevens, a member of The Ancient St. John's Lodge, No. 3, at Kingston. This meeting was well attended by members of the Craft of Frontenac District and many visiting brethren from all over our Grand Jurisdiction. I would like to thank Wor. Bro. Hanlon Wilson, President of the Past Masters', Masters' and Wardens' Association and his committee for a job well done.

A Lodge of Instruction, under the direction of R.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, was held on April 28 with a good attendance. The interest of the brethren and the number of questions that were asked indicate a sincere desire on the part of the members of the various lodges in the District to keep their "Work" at a high level.

Our District has been saddened by the passing to the Grand Lodge Above of several prominent members. Included in these were V.W. Bro. Edward Francis Purcell, a member of Albion Lodge, No 109, at Harrowsmith; R.W. Bro. William Meldrum, a member of Frontenac Lodge, No. 621, at Sharbot Lake, and V.W. Bro. Charles Graham, a member of Victoria Lodge, No. 299, at Centreville.

During the year I have had the privilege of attending the dedication of the new Temple of Macoy Lodge, No. 242, at Mallorytown, also the Reception for the Grand Master, Most Worshipful Bro. James N. Allan, in Eastern District. These were so well attended and so well organized that one cannot help but feel that Masonry is alive and growing in this Grand Jurisdiction.

Several lodges have held Divine Services and I have attended these when possible. They have been well attended and were carried out with dignity which is a tribute to the Craft. A District Divine Service is now being planned for June 26 and indications are that we shall have a good attendance.

Also, I should like to thank the officers and members of the various lodges for their kind invitations to Mrs. Brown and myself to attend their "Ladies' Nights." It has not been possible to attend all these, but the ones we were able to attend were very much enjoyed.

In closing I wish to take this opportunity of saying "Thank you" to all the brethren of the District and I ask them to give my successor all the loyal support and assistance afforded me. I, too, extend to my successor and Frontenac District any support and assistance I may be able to give.

DOUGLAS B. BROWN, D.D.G.M.

GEORGIAN DISTRICT

It has been a privilege, as well as an honour, for me to have been the representative of the Grand Master in Georgian District for the Masonic year, 1965 and 1966. I wish to especially thank the brethren of Spry Lodge, No. 385, Beeton, for nominating me to this high office and also to the rest of the lodges in Georgian District for their support, and to the M.W. Bro. James N. Allan for confirming their choice.

My duties and responsibilities were made easier and much more enjoyable by the co-operation and assistance of my District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Wm. Watson, who accompanied me on my official visits and reported the condition and records of each lodge and earned the respect and appreciation of the Secretaries.

Masonic Education Committees, supervised by V. Wor. Bro. Dr. McKelvey, performed their duties very satisfactorily.

Wor. Bro. Bulman, Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, has given a worth-while report and has had a good response. Some smaller communities, where no mobile units are available, are down. However, an increase is shown overall.

On each official visit I witnessed the conferring of all degrees. The work was portrayed with dignity and sincerity impressing the principles of Masonry on each candidate. I was pleased to see many young officers taking part in a manner which assures us that Masonry in Georgian District will retain its high standard for years to come.

I attended as many Installations and Ladies' Nights as time and circumstances permitted, and the high esteem in which the Grand Master and Grand Lodge are held was evidenced by the many kind remarks made by the assembled brethren.

I would like to thank not only the Worshipful Masters but also their ladies for the wonderful hospitality, courtesy and warm friendship extended to my wife, Edith, District Secretary, Wm. Watson, and Shirley, and District Chaplain, Bro. (Rev.) Charles Townsley, and Sadie, and myself, as we enjoyed ourselves at the various Ladies' Nights we were able to attend.

A very memorable occasion took place on Friday, March 25th, 1966, at 8.00 p.m., when I had the privilege of instituting Twin Lakes Lodge in Orillia, assisted by many of the Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers of the District. This lodge, composed of a number of enthusiastic brethren, is off to a fine start and should make a good contribution to the benefit of the Craft.

The Grand Master's Reception, in Beeton, on May 6th, was an outstanding success. The organization, under the District Secretary and the Worshipful Master, was thorough and satisfied the most discriminating officers of the District. The message from the Grand Master was well received and remarked upon by the brethren as one of the most outstanding addresses of the time.

The Masonic Officers' Association is doing good work especially in the Cloverleaf exchange of visits and conferring of degrees in other lodges of the District. Another important function was the Lodge of Instruction held in Minerva Lodge, No. 304, Stroud. Wor. Bro. Smith, of Lodge No. 304, was the Worshipful Master, while I presided at this exemplification of the Fellowcraft Degree. The running commentary was presented by Rt. Wor. Bro. Magee, P.D.D.G.M. All the offices were filled by the Senior Wardens, during the degree. Questions were answered to clarify details. I do stress strongly the importance of such meetings and would recommend that an all-out effort be made to continue the work.

The final and great gathering was in the afternoon of May 29th, 2.30 p.m., in Beeton, when the brethren of Georgian District held their Church Service. A very inspiring Service was delivered by the District Chaplain, his subject being for the sermon. "The Master Builder," after which a social hour was spent and luncheon was served in the basement of the Church.

I have had my father, who is now 86 years of age and a Past Master of Spry Lodge, also my son, Douglas, who is now Wor. Master of Seven Star Lodge, No. 285, in Alliston, travel with me on many occasions.

As my year comes to a close, it is with deep gratitude that I have had the pleasure to serve Masonry in this capacity. I would like to give thanks to M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, also R.W. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, D.G.M., who were ready to give advice and assistance. I trust that in some small way, I have contributed to the welfare of this Grand Old Georgian District. To all my brethren I wish continued success and brotherhood.

W. H. ROBINSON, D.D.G.M.

GREY DISTRICT

Another Masonic year is fast drawing to a close and with it my term of office as District Deputy Grand Master.

It has been a great privilege and I deem it a very great honour to have had the opportunity of serving the Most Worshipful the Grand Master as his representative in Grey District and may I once again express my sincere thanks to those responsible for my election and to M.W. Bro. Allan for confirming my appointment.

It has been a wonderful year for me. I have enjoyed every minute of it. The gracious hospitality and brotherly love, extended to me throughout the District, will long be remembered.

It has been my constant prayer throughout this year that I may have been able, in some small way, to add to the Masonic superstructure which has been built up by the many great men who have carried out the duties of this office before me.

I sincerely hope that any constructive criticism I may have left with the lodges would be considered as such and that we might continue, in the future, to work together with one view in mind, that of carrying out our duties in the individual lodges with honour and dignity and, after reviewing our several obligations, to rededicate our lives and actions to the furtherance of our Masonic teachings for the betterment of ourselves and of all mankind.

It has been my experience throughout the District to find that the manner in which the degrees were exemplified, the interest and deportment of the officers and the general enthusiasm of the members was in direct proportion to the amount of effort put forth by the Master of the lodge.

I am pleased to be able to make a very favourable report of the work being carried out in all lodges of this District with only one exception. It is regrettable indeed to have had to report to the Grand Master that because of the seeming lack of interest of one Master the interest and enthusiasm of his members have fallen to a low ebb and the work for the new Master-elect will be twofold.

My district secretary, Wor. Bro. R. Vamplew, has been of great assistance to me and I owe a great deal to him for his most efficient handling of the District's affairs.

We were fortunate indeed, this year, to have Wor. Bro. (Rev.) Ernest Baskier act as our District Chaplain. He is a man and a Mason who is respected and greatly admired by all with whom he comes in contact and I thank him sincerely for his friendship and most capable support.

My chairmen of committees on "Masonic Education" and "Blood Donors" — Wor. Bro. Norman Arnott and Wor. Bro. Harold Stuck — have both done an excellent job in their respective positions and I know they will long be remembered for their efforts throughout the District.

The Masters', Past Masters' and Wardens' Association is doing a very capable job in this District and I thank them sincerely for their handling of the interlodge visits, the District Ladies' Night and the District Lodge of Instruction.

Mrs. Low and I were pleased to be able to attend many of the "Ladies' Nights" throughout the District and the most gracious hospitality extended to us on those occasions was greatly appreciated.

In closing may I say that the interest and enthusiasm for Masonry in general, throughout Grey District, seems to be growing and I wish for my successor, the same support from the several lodges that has been a constant inspiration to me during my term of office.

DAVID PARKINSON LOW, D.D.G.M.

HAMILTON "A" DISTRICT

My year as District Deputy Grand Master of Hamilton District "A" has been a great honour, a pleasure and an education, for all of which I am most grateful.

I wish to express my thanks to the members of Hugh Murray Lodge, No. 602, for the confidence they placed in me in proposing my name for this high and honoured office, and to the brethren of Hamilton District "A" in general, for electing me to serve in this capacity, also to the Grand Master for his consideration in confirming my election.

My first official duties were to appoint Wor. Bro. F. Turner as District Secretary; R. Wor. Bro. W. L. Sommerville, as Supervisor of Masonic Education; Wor. Bro. David L. G. Weaver as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee and Bro. (Rev.) Fred M. Ellis, retired United Church Minister, as District Chaplain. To each of these brethren I extend a sincere "thank you" for the interest they have shown in the District and for the capable and efficient manner in which each carried out his respective responsibilities.

I visited each of the twenty lodges in the District at least once officially, and a number of others on special occasions. Without exception, I was received into the lodges in a warm and cordial manner with appropriate honors being accorded, showing the high esteem in which the Grand Master is held throughout the District.

During my visits I witnessed the conferring of all three degrees and am pleased to report that the work done by the Worshipful Masters, officers and members was generally of the highest standard and in accordance with the Constitution and Rulings of Grand Lodge and was presented in a sincere and dignified manner. I was pleased to see them making use of their junior officers and members in the degree work, which I think creates a greater interest amongst the membership.

Many of the lodges in the District held their own Divine Services with two District Divine Services held in conjunction with both Hamilton "A" and "B" Districts and the Masters' and Wardens' Association. The first one was held at the Scottish Rite Cathedral on Sunday afternoon, November 28th, 1965. The Service was conducted by Bro. (Rev.) J. Malcolm Johnston and Bro. (Rev.) George A. Malcolm, and the other was held on the evening of May 29th, 1966, at Mount Hamilton United Church. The Rev. Edward J. Kersey, B.A., B.D., was in charge of the Service.

Mrs. Grove and I were pleased to accept many invitations from the lodges in both Hamilton "A" and "B" Districts to attend their annual Ladies' Night, all of which we thoroughly enjoyed. On a number of these occasions we had the pleasure of the company of Rt. Wor. Bro. Fordham Hyder and Mrs. Hyder, D.D. G.M. of Hamilton District "B."

The highlights of my term were assisting Most Wor. Bro. H. L. Martyn in the Constituting and Consecrating of Trafalgar Lodge, No. 712, on Wednesday, October 27th, 1965, also presented several 50 Year and 60 Year Lapel Buttons on behalf of Grand Lodge. I also accepted several invitations to Receptions held in honour of the Most Wor. Bro. James N. Allan, Grand Master.

There are many young officers coming along and the work is becoming more efficient and uniform, which speaks well for the future of Masonry in this area, most of which is due to the continued work of our Educational Committee.

The District Secretary inspected the records of the lodges and his reports indicate that all the lodges were in a healthy financial condition with all records being kept in an excellent manner. The average attendance remained about the same but the loss by death was about a third higher.

During the year four District Masonic Education Meetings were held under the capable chairmanship of R. Wor. Bro. W. L. Sommerville. The meetings, being well attended, covered varied and interesting information, and the talks were given by Rt. Wor. Bro. George McQueen, Bro. Norman Byrne, Secretary-Treasurer of The Masonic Foundation of Ontario and Rt. Wor. Bro. L. J. Hewitt, P.D.D.G.M.

Wor. Bro. D. L. Weaver, Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, reported 617 donations by members and 95 by immediate families.

In closing, I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the Grand Secretary, Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, and to Rt. Wor. Bro. George J. McQueen, for their help and guidance throughout the year, also to the Past Masters' and the Masters' and Wardens' Associations of Hamilton Districts "A" and "B"; for their loyalty and support which have been greatly appreciated.

HAROLD GROVE, D.D.G.M.

HAMILTON "B" DISTRICT

I take great pleasure in presenting my report for Hamilton Masonic District "B" for the year 1965-1966.

I must first express my appreciation for the privilege that has been mine and the honour conferred on my Mother Lodge, St. Andrew's, No. 593.

I am most grateful for the wonderful support afforded me by one and all.

I was indeed fortunate to have associated with me, as District Officers, Wor. Bro. John I. Carrick, Secretary; Bro. (Rev.) Malcolm Johnston, Chaplain; Wor. Bro. Hugh Campbell, Assistant Chaplain; Wor. Bro. Norman J. Campbell, Supervisor of Masonic Education; and Wor. Bro. John Hayworth, Chairman of the District Blood Donors.

One would be remiss if we did not mention the yeoman service by V. Wor. Bro. "Rod" Connor and Wor. Bro. Clare Robinson, Chairman and Secretary respectively of the New Masonic Hall Building Committee, for their efforts and determination that the brethren of the Hamilton lodges will be in their new Masonic home by the target date; also to Rt. Wor. Bro. W. L. (Pat) Sommerville for his leadership and assistance in promoting Masonic Education in our area on a uniform and regional basis. One cannot overlook the Hamilton Past Masters' Association, especially their Secretary, Rt. Wor. Bro. Robert Strachan. This large and very active organization is a tower of strength in their support, guidance and promotion of Masonry. We are also indebted to the Masters' and Wardens' Association for their wholehearted support, co-operation and enthusiasm.

As is customary Hamilton Districts "A" and "B" again worked very closely together. The brethren of our District "B" value very highly the friendship of Rt. Wor. Bro. Harold Grove and the brethren of Hamilton District "A."

I am pleased to report that the lodges, including the Masters' and Wardens' Association, go all-out in their promotion of Ladies' Nights, as it is one way to show our good ladies how much we appreciate the outstanding part they play in the support of our Masonry.

I cannot overemphasize the importance of a well-skilled brother as Secretary. We in our District are well blessed with such brethren who give untold hours in the "labour of love."

During the year, in addition to the inspection of the twenty-one lodges in the District, the new lodge, Battlefield, No. 714, was constituted and consecrated by Most Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleaven, P.G.M.

Two regional church services were held for Hamilton Districts "A" and "B" in addition to Divine Services held by individual lodges.

The activities of Buchanan Lodge, No. 550, were kept under very close surveillance during the year. With continuous contact and good co-operation by the Worshipful Master and officers, who inherited a trying situation, I feel that we have attained the desired results. May I suggest a policy of continuous supervision by D.D.G.M.'s, for I am hopeful that, in due time, this embarrassing situation will be corrected.

In an entirely different vein I am recommending that, due to changing times, some thought be given to the make-up and structure of Lincoln Lodge, No. 544. The brethren of this lodge are to be commended for their vigorous efforts to exist, but I still feel that this quaint and historic lodge should be given Grand Lodge attention.

While I could and possibly should report many other happenings, space and time will not permit.

In conclusion, may I say that I think, in general, the condition of Masonry in Hamilton Masonic District "B" is exceptionally good; and may I take this opportunity, on behalf of the brethren of this District, to say how much we appreciate and value our Grand Secretary, Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, and all other Grand Lodge officers for their leadership, guidance and personal assistance, so generously given. The high esteem which the brethren hold for them, one and all, speaks for itself.

FORDHAM W. HYDER, D.D.G.M.

LONDON DISTRICT

It was a privilege for me to be the representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in the last year of the old London Masonic District. It has been a most rewarding experience and I hope that I have made some contribution to Masonry in the London area.

I have been fortunate to have associated with me a very capable and dedicated group of district officers. Wor. Bro. Blake A. Kennedy, as District Secretary, accompanied me on all of my official visits of inspection. He has completed written reports on the condition of each of the 26 lodges and finds that the Secretaries and Treasurers are rendering an excellent service to their respective lodges.

The Masonic Education Committee, under the able chairmanship of Wor. Bro. Gordon Hinge, carried out the same program that was introduced to the District in 1964-65. Each lodge presented an educational program in another lodge. This has been favourably received and has proven very interesting and instructive. The District Education Committee held a District meeting on January 31, 1966, which was in the form of a panel discussion. The panelists were the four Immediate Past District Deputy Grand Masters who answered and explained questions previously submitted to the Chairman of Masonic Education. These questions were mostly pertaining to ritual. The meeting was interesting and well attended. We also distributed to each lodge copies of the booklet "Suggestions for Officers of the Lodge" which has been well received and, I believe, has been very useful.

Bro. (Rev.) Robert G. Trimble, B.A., B.D., District Chaplain, has accompanied me on most of my official visits of inspection and has participated also in individual lodge memorial services and special meetings. He has been a great inspiration wherever he went and has done much to make the association of the Church and Masonry a reality. This was evident when nearly 500 Masons and their families, making a congregation of over 1000 people, filled Wesley United Church for the annual District Divine Service on April 24, 1966.

I am very grateful to Wor. Bro. W. J. M. Fuller for assuming the responsibility of Chairman of the Blood Donor Committee again for this past year. While the clinic, held on December 6, 1965, was disappointing, with only 69 donors, the one held on May 30, 1966, exceeding our expectations with 164 donors, making a total of 233 for the year.

The uniformity and calibre of the work in the District is excellent. I believe this is partly due to the number of interlodge visits and also to the fact that on each of my official visits I was accompanied by an average of twenty-one Worshipful Masters for the year. The Senior Wardens also made a visit as a group to each lodge during the year. I believe that this is an excellent program for the promotion of good work.

Early last September I noted that many of the lodges in the District did not have a history of the lodge even though many were approaching their centennial year. I have endeavoured to have a committee appointed for this purpose in every lodge. I am pleased to report that progress has been made towards updating present histories or preparing material for the publication of an initial history where this had not been done previously.

We had two Grand Lodge meetings in the District during the year. On October 29, 1965, Ionic Lodge, No. 716, was constituted and consecrated. On May 28, 1966, the new lodge rooms of Doric Lodge, No. 289, were dedicated. Both of these meetings were presided over by M. Wor. Bro. John A. Irvine, representing the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, and were well attended by members of Grand Lodge and visiting brethren from the area.

Most of the lodges have their own Divine Service which I have attended when possible. London Masonic District has an average of one Masonic funeral service a week which I usually attend when available. I have visited in 15 other Masonic Districts usually on an official visit with the District Deputy Grand Master of the District, and attended two receptions for the Most Worshipful the Grand Master and also the Grand Senior Warden's reception in Kingston.

One of the personal highlights of the year was the occasion of my official visit of inspection to my Mother Lodge, Henderson, No. 388, when my son, James Kenneth Hord, was initiated. There were six visiting District Deputy Grand Masters, three members of the Board of General Purposes, twenty-five Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers and many brethren from this District and the surrounding Districts present.

There were three other occasions which should be mentioned. On June 3, 1966, R. Wor. Bro. G. Fred Kingsmill was presented with an Honorary Life Membership by his Mother Lodge, St. John's, No. 209a. On June 5, 1966, the annual Sunrise Masonic Church Service and Breakfast of Kilwinning Lodge, No. 64, was held at Fanshawe Park at 7.30 a.m., with an attendance of over 1000 Masons and their sons. On June 8, 1966, R. Wor. Bro. William H. Rath was presented with a 60 Year Lapel Button by Temple Lodge, No. 597.

Mrs. Hord and I have attended 22 Lodge Ladies' Nights, accompanied by Mrs. Kennedy and W. Bro. Blake A. Kennedy, District Secretary, and also on several occasions by Mrs. Trimble and Bro. (Rev.) Robert G. Trimble, District Chaplain. These social events provide a fine balance for the Masonic life of this District.

Masonry is in a very healthy condition in this District with many lodges quite busy with new candidates. I believe there is great enthusiasm for the formation of the new Masonic Districts of London East and London West, effective in July 1966.

This has been a busy year for me but the co-operation and friendship extended everywhere I went was most gratifying. The pleasant memories of the past year will always be remembered. I thank the brethren of London District for my election as District Deputy Grand Master and Most Worshipful Brother James N. Allan for confirming the same.

ERNEST HORD, D.D.G.M.

MUSKOKA-PARRY SOUND DISTRICT

It is a privilege to report on the Condition of Masonry in Muskoka-Parry Sound District which geographically lies within a triangle, the southerly angle of which is the Town of Gravenhurst, the northerly angle some one hundred and fifty miles to the north, Powassan, and the westerly angle, Parry Sound, and which is composed of eight lodges.

I appointed W. Bro. J. D. MacNaughtan, District Secretary; V.W. Bro. T. W. Pierce, District Chairman of Masonic Education; Bro. Robert Harrison, District Chaplain; and Bro. John B. Biddle, District Chairman, Blood Donors' Committee, and these brethren accompanied me on all my official visits which were, with but one exception, very well attended.

On each visit a degree was worked and, in the case of some lodges, several visits resulted in all the degrees being worked or exemplified. The work was well done and the brethren throughout the lodges in the District obviously were interested in perfecting the rendition of the ritual. The average lodge attendance appears to be normal in this District. It is undoubtedly affected by the interest and influence of the Worshipful Masters.

The District Secretary inspected the books, fabric of lodge buildings, lodge rooms and Temples, insurance and finances and found all lodges sound in their practice and in respect of these matters.

I was present at the fall meeting of the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association in the District which was well attended.

The lodges in the northerly part of the District held their customary joint Ladies' Night which I was unable to attend but which obviously fills annually a long-felt want for outside activity in respect to the social aspects of Masonry in that area.

I adopted the historical and symbolic aspects of Masonry as the subject matters of my addresses to the lodges and found a marked interest in these aspects of Masonry.

I had the privilege, at the request and on behalf of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, of presenting their Sixty-Year Medal to Bro. P. E. Clarke, Muskoka Lodge, No. 360, and of conveying the compliments of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Quebec to him on that occasion. I was pleased to present Past Master's Jewels and Fifty-Year Buttons to several of the brethren during my visits to the respective lodges.

In the review, in the District, of the situation affecting suspensions and withdrawals, I corresponded with a representative group of Past District Deputy Grand Masters as to their observations regarding these matters. It is not felt that the problem of withdrawals is one for concern in this District and it may be that an increase in lodge and joint, lodge, social, activities may be encouraged to offset pressures on the brethren's time outside the lodge in respect thereto, but there is no particular demand in evidence for such social activities.

The District Divine Service, held at St. Thomas Anglican Church, Bracebridge, as an Evensong Service, was well attended by the brethren and their families who, I was pleased to note, accompanied many of the brethren to this Service.

Interest is indicated in several of the lodges in the construction of their own Masonic Temples. Careful planning and a cautious approach in respect of the increased cost of construction were recommended.

I was pleased to note a growing tendency to more formality in dress on the part of the officers at lodge meetings, as there is no doubt that such adds dignity to the meeting.

There is but one case of benevolence in the District and, in view of the circumstances, an effort was made to seek participation of public authorities in respect of supervision that would be of practical importance to the recipient.

In closing, I would express my appreciation to the M.W. the Grand Master for confirmation of my nomination as District Deputy Grand Master.

E. P. LEE, D.D.G.M.

NIAGARA "A" DISTRICT

The year is almost over and I am very grateful for the privilege of representing the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in Niagara District "A." May I, again, express my appreciation to the brethren of the District for honouring Ivy Lodge, No. 115, and myself for electing me to this high office, and to Most Wor. Bro. James N. Allan for confirming my election.

My District Secretary was Wor. Bro. W. C. Honsberger, whose sincere and conscientious support, in attending all meetings and in giving careful attention to the inspection of the records of each lodge was most valuable. Bro. (Rev.) R. W. Foster of St. John's Anglican Church, Jordan, a most enthusiastic Mason, as my District Chaplain, gained the applause of this District, and his inspiring sermon at our District Divine Service in Grace Anglican Church, St. Catharines, with one hundred and seventy-eight Masons attending, was one of the highlights of this year. This Service was arranged under the auspices of Perfection Lodge, No. 616. Divine Services were held by all lodges, either jointly or separately, and were well attended.

Wor. Bro. Fred Collard of Niagara Lodge, No. 2, gave me his faithful support as Supervisor of Masonic Education, in attending all District meetings and in giving seven addresses on Masonic subjects. Wor. Bro. Richard Buss of Thorold again acted as Chairman of the District Blood Donors' Committee and supplied each lodge with information on this very worthy project. I express my sincere thanks to him for so doing.

In each of the fourteen lodges, I was given a very dignified reception on my official visits. I found the Worshipful Masters and their officers to be well-skilled and efficient in conferring the degrees. It was a particular pleasure for me to see each meeting well attended by members and visitors, especially by so many Worshipful Masters of our District. We are very proud of their loyal support and of the fine example they are setting for their successors in office.

I am happy to report that there has been a great reduction in the number of resignations and suspensions in Niagara "A". We had less than one quarter of the number in the previous year, and, as I had stressed this point in my district visits, I felt well rewarded. Perhaps we can make a further reduction in the coming year.

One of my greatest thrills was to present a Sixty Year Past Master's Lapel Button to Rt. Wor. Bro. T. O. Johnson on behalf of Seymour Lodge, No. 277. Rt. Wor. Bro. Johnson also served his lodge as Secretary for forty-two years. I was also pleased to present Fifty Year Buttons to Wor. Bro. Sylvester Russ and Bro. A. J. Smith of Ivy Lodge, No. 115, and Bro. R. J. Bufton of Niagara, No. 2.

Mrs. Wismer and I, along with Mrs. Honsberger and Wor. Bro. Honsberger, were kindly invited to twelve Ladies' Nights and enjoyed the wonderful hospitality of the various lodges on each occasion.

The highlight of our Masonic Year in Niagara "A" was the Reception for Most Worshipful Bro. James N. Allan, our own District member — under the auspices of Niagara Districts "A" and "B", held in Prudhomme's Garden Centre Hotel, with almost six hundred Masons in attendance, including thirty-two Grand Lodge officers. I have also enjoyed the association of several of the District Deputy Grand Masters of other Districts, exchanging fraternal visits on numerous occasions.

May I express my sincere thanks to the Grand Secretary for his guidance and to all those who have helped to make this year one that I shall never forget.

JOHN C. WISMER, D.D.G.M.

NIAGARA "B" DISTRICT

It has been a distinct honour and a privilege to represent the Most Worshipful Grand Master in Niagara District "B" this past year. To the Past Masters of Clifton Lodge, No. 254, I extend my thanks for nominating me to this high office and my sincere appreciation and thanks to the brethren of Niagara District "B" for bestowing this honour upon me. I hope that I have carried out my responsibilities to the credit of Niagara District "B" and to the high standard of Masonry in general.

It was my pleasure to appoint Wor. Bro. Herbert Langfield as my District Secretary; Wor. Bro. E. G. Kohnle, Chairman of Masonic Education; Bro. (Rev.) Gordon S. Maxwell, District Chaplain and Bro. Rennie Boselli, Chairman of the Blood Donors. I wish to thank all these brethren for their support and assistance during the past year.

Accompanied by my District Secretary, I visited all lodges in the District and am pleased to report the ritualistic work and general condition of Masonry to be of high caliber.

The Masters' and Wardens' Association of Niagara District "B" held two very well-attended and instructive meetings during my term and we were extremely fortunate in having, as our speakers for these occasions, Rt. Wor. Bro. (Rev.) Alex Campbell, Past Grand Chaplain, and Bro. (Rev.) E. C. McLarnon of Fort Erie. This is a very active organization in Niagara District "B" and I feel that they are doing much to further Masonry in this area.

It is gratifying to report that most of the lodges in the District held either individual or joint Divine Services during the year. The District Divine Service was held in St. Andrew's United Church in Niagara Falls on Sunday afternoon, May 15th, 1966, and was very well attended. The Service was conducted by the District Chaplain, Bro. (Rev.) Gordon Maxwell, who chose as his topic that well-known Masonic phrase "Let there be Light."

Mrs. Pounder and I are happy to have been able to attend several Ladies' Nights. At all of these we were made most welcome and the opportunity of associating with the Masons and their wives throughout the District has been an enjoyable one.

Three Grand Lodge appointments were made in Niagara District "B" to the office of Grand Steward. Centennial Lodge, No. 679, was also honoured by the appointment of Rt. Wor. Bro. C. C. Martin as Grand Representative of the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia. These appointments, I feel, speak well of Masonry in Niagara District "B."

The highlight of the year came on the evening of April 14th at Prudhomme's Garden Centre Hotel. On this occasion Niagara Districts "A" and "B" sponsored a joint reception to honour our Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. James N. Allan. The reception was attended by approximately 600 members, including three Past Grand Masters, many members of the Board of General Purposes, other Grand Lodge Officers and several visiting District Deputy Grand Masters. The Grand Master delivered a very inspiring address which was enjoyed by all present.

We, in Niagara Falls, are fortunate in being able to extend our Masonic friendship to many brethren from across the border. One outstanding example of this association was on the occasion of my official visit to Clifton Lodge, No. 254, when we had the pleasure of entertaining guests from La Salle Lodge in New York State and Woodward Lodge, Cleveland, Ohio.

My thanks also go out to Bro. Rennie Boselli, who has turned in a very satisfying and gratifying report regarding the Blood Donors in Niagara District "B." In his capacity as District Chairman he has put in many hours of work, which have proven that, when this task is taken seriously, the results obtained can be rewarding.

In conclusion, I wish to thank all the Grand Lodge Officers for their support, assistance and guidance given me during my term of office. This has been a richly-rewarding experience and a year in Masonry that I will long remember. The friendships I have made and the courtesies that have been shown me speak well of Masonic progress in this area and it is my hope I have contributed to the advancement of Masonry in Niagara District "B."

JAMES POUNDER, D.D.G.M.

NIPISSING EAST DISTRICT

It has been a memorable and rewarding experience to have had the opportunity and the privilege of representing the Grand Master in the District of Nipissing East. May I now express to you, Most Worshipful Sir, my sincere thanks and appreciation for this signal honour, to Mattawa Lodge, No. 405, and to the brethren of Nipissing East District, my deep gratitude for the confidence they have accorded to me in my nomination and presentation for this office.

I was most fortunate in having the assistance of Wor. Bro. Herman Maxwell, District Secretary. Bro. Maxwell accompanied me on all official visits and reported on the records of all lodges. The wide range of his knowledge of the District and of Masons and Masonry within it was a source of kind support and help during the year.

The office of District Chaplain was accepted by Father Douglas Brown of Mattawa Lodge but to my own deep personal regret, and to the sorrow of his brethren of Mattawa Lodge, and indeed to all who knew him, he was called to the Grand Lodge Above very early in his tenure. Bro. Brown exemplified in his private life all a Mason should be.

R. Wor. Bro. Easey of North Bay Lodge consented to act as Supervisor of Masonic Education. His interest and ability in this field are outstanding and his continuing interest in this phase of Masonry as Chairman of the District Masonic Education Committee can only advance the spread of interest in his area of influence.

Bro. Ronald Campbell, as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, attended most District meetings with us, and to him I express my appreciation and thanks.

To Bro. Haig Clark, Chairman of the Benevolence Committee for the District, I also wish to express my appreciation of his assistance. I feel I was most fortunate in having the help and support of these devoted Masons during my term of office.

In a district as widely dispersed as Nipissing East, it was both heartening and encouraging to find the official visits so well attended, and the work closely followed. Visiting, an important facet of fraternal relations, is carried out to a large degree and enhances the sense of true fraternity.

Each lodge of the District was visited at least once and, where possible, on other occasions. In every case I found the work well done and the interest in Masonry of a high caliber. My reception in all lodges was heartwarming and to each Master and his Officers, my thanks and approbation go for their interest and efforts.

The District Divine Service was held in North Bay on June 19th. Bro. (Rev.) Young conducted the Service.

Mrs. Macdonald and I have enjoyed the privilege of accepting invitations to Ladies' Nights and they shall be lasting memories for us both.

As my term of office draws to a close, I cannot but express my feeling that I have made the greatest gain during the past year. To you, Most Worshipful Sir, to Most Wor. Bro. Dixon, Grand Secretary, and to all who have, through their association and assistance, made this truly a memorable period, I, once again, express my gratitude and pleasure.

M. M. MACDONALD, D.D.G.M.

NIPISSING WEST DISTRICT

It is with a sense of profound gratitude that, once again, I express my sincere appreciation to those brethren who were responsible for my election and to Most Worshipful Brother James N. Allan for his confirmation. To have been afforded the privilege of serving as the representative of the Grand Master is an experience I shall long remember and shall cherish always. The warmth and welcome accorded me on my visits to the seventeen lodges, the respect for the Grand Master and Grand Lodge were extended always with the hand of true Brotherhood.

My first official duty, and a joyous one, was to appoint the following officers: Wor. Bro. N. E. Silversen, District Secretary; Bro. (Rev.) W. C. McBride, District Chaplain; Wor. Bro. W. J. C. Noble, Chairman Blood Donors' Committee; Wor. Bro. A. Dinwoodie, Supervisor of Masonic Education; and Wor. Bro. R. E. Bryson, District Historian. These brethren performed their duties with dispatch and accord, of which they can be justly proud. Each, in his own area, was a tower of strength and I am certain they will be remembered long for their untiring efforts on behalf of all the lodges in Nipissing West District.

On each official visit I witnessed the conferring of a degree. The "Work" was generally of a high calibre and was presented with dignity and dispatch. Any suggestions that were offered were readily accepted by the Worshipful Masters. Although encouraged by the consistency of the "Work," I am somewhat alarmed at the attendance at lodge meetings by the resident members. Attendance at all meetings averaged 18.4% of the resident members. Those lodges having 200 or more resident members had an average attendance of 11.5%, whereas, those lodges having less than 200 resident members had an average attendance of 29%. The decline in attendance appears to precede a decline in membership and a rise in suspensions. The various contributing factors have indicated that we are not affording our newer brethren with the incentive to become knowledgeable Masons. Too often the seed of genuine inquisitiveness is sown on unfertile ground resulting in a poor harvest — so, too, in Masonry. Masonry and the Church, the two remaining ramparts against evil and anarchy must steadfastly hold high their purpose and goal for all to witness. For only then will the onrushing tide of irresponsibility be curbed.

In closing, I wish to express appreciation for this rare privilege that has been accorded me. It is my hope that I have been able to provide something for Masonry. In the new acquaintances, the fellowship, the stimulus and challenge, I have received much. To my successor, I wish him the same support that to me has been my inspiration.

H. ROBERT BUTLER, D.D.G.M.

NORTH HURON DISTRICT

It has been a very great honour and privilege to represent the Grand Master in North Huron District for the past year.

There have been many Masons throughout the District who have contributed, in many ways, to make the year's work lighter and very enjoyable. The list of such Masons is led by my District Officers, Wor. Bro. Horace A. Wells, my District Secretary, who has visited with me at every lodge, as well as going along on most of the other social and fraternal visits. Wor. Bro. R. P. D'Alton, District Chaplain, has also visited as often as he found it possible. He did a very creditable job in planning and arranging the District Divine Service. Here, Bro. (Rev.) Bruce Pegler delivered a fine sermon, while several of the wives treated the brethren to a light lunch in the lodge anteroom, where a very sociable time was spent by the District Masons, after the Service.

Other District Officers, whom I must thank for their efforts, were Rt. Wor. Bro. Harold Linklater, Chairman of Masonic Education, Rt. Wor. Bro. Calvin Krauter, Chairman of the Blood Donors, Rt. Wor. Bro. Peter Moffatt and Wor. Bro. Carmen Thompson, for inter-lodge visits, and Rt. Wor. Bro. Norman Hoover, as District Treasurer. They have all co-operated in a truly fraternal way and carried out their duties efficiently and as a credit to the Craft.

In visiting throughout the District, I found the work was very impressively presented under the capable direction of the twelve Worshipful Masters and their officers. Each lodge afforded the warmest of welcomes to me and my Secretary, indicating the high esteem which they have for the representative of the Grand Master. The books and records of every lodge are being maintained in fine condition. They are a credit to the lodge Secretaries and Treasurers. I must commend them for their co-operation in responding to all my requests so punctually, on top of their regular duties.

It is heartening to see the number of initiations showing a turn for the better. I hope that it indicates a steady trend for the future.

Inter-lodge visiting is a strong part of Masonry in North Huron District, with a regular schedule of visits in operation. It was also very gratifying to have so many visitors at each of my "officials," besides the number of exchanges by degree teams, especially those by the various Ontario Provincial Police Degree Teams.

I was privileged to attend lodges in neighboring Districts when those District Deputies made their official visits, with special remembrances of fine evenings spent at Kilwinning Lodge, Craig Lodge, Mount Forest, and Clifford Lodges, as well as the dedication of the new Temple at Doric Lodge, No. 289, in Lobo.

A highlight of the year's activities was the visit of the Grand Master, which the brethren from all of the district lodges supported in fine spirit. His message was interesting, timely and very enlightening, yet often lighthearted and quite enjoyable. This was truly an outstanding event of the year.

My wife and I found it a great pleasure to be with Fordwich Lodge, No. 331, Bruce Lodge, No. 341, Teeswater Lodge, No. 276, and Blair Lodge, No. 314, on their annual Ladies' Nights, and regret that circumstances prevented us from accepting all of the other social invitations extended to us.

Annual Church Services were held by eight of the lodges, while a number of other special activities were held by the lodges to extend the interest and functions of Masonry.

In conclusion, I would like to say thank you to everyone who has helped, in any way, to facilitate my official duties. I must congratulate the brethren for the fine spirit of co-operation, friendship and brotherly love that prevails among our lodges. I sincerely hope that I have added a little to the progress of Masonry in this District.

ARTHUR G. EDMUNDS, D.D.G.M.

ONTARIO DISTRICT

As my term of office draws to a close I have the honour of submitting for your consideration a report on the condition of Masonry in Ontario District for the year 1965-66.

May I first express my sincere appreciation to the brethren of this District for entrusting to me the important office of District Deputy Grand Master. I also desire to place on record my thanks to the Past Masters of Ontario Lodge, who made my election possible.

Shortly after being installed I appointed the following brethren, District Secretary, W. Bro. H. J. McCaw; District Chaplain, Bro. J. E. Cargo; District Chairman of Masonic Education, W. Bro. R. J. Hughes; and District Chairman of Blood Donors' Committee, Bro. J. H. Roy. My sincere thanks go to all these brethren for their work.

I managed to visit fourteen of the lodges in the District prior to my inspections. At these meetings I suggested to the Worshipful Master that he should try and arrange his evening so that the brethren could be on their way home before 11 o'clock. I am pleased to report that on all my inspections we had the Junior Warden's Toast before 11 p.m. and on several occasions before 10.30.

The principal officers in all fifteen lodges purchased and followed the booklet "Suggestions to Officers." This was reflected in the uniformity of the work throughout the District.

A degree was performed at all my inspections and the work, in most cases, was better than average and was presented in a very impressive manner. Our District is fortunate in having dedicated and capable Secretaries in all lodges, ensuring that proper records are kept.

We held one Lodge of Instruction. This meeting was held in Port Hope and we demonstrated the work of the Deacons in each degree. Rt. W. Bro. W. K. Bailey kindly consented to come to Port Hope and be our commentator. Although the attendance was disappointing, those who availed themselves of this opportunity enjoyed an evening of profit and pleasure.

We held a District Divine Service at Welcome United Church, on May 1st. I am pleased to report that the church was filled to capacity. During the year I attended several other Divine Services throughout the District and, in some cases, the attendance was so poor I felt they should have cancelled the parade. This is one area where we seem to be slipping quite badly. I feel that, if we are going to promote Masonry in a community, and a church parade gives us this opportunity, we should either have a good attendance or not hold the parade.

During the year many meetings of special interest were held. One of the most outstanding was the Charles MacKenzie Wallace Memorial Night held in Cedar Lodge on March 22nd. Presentations to Cedar Lodge by the family of the late Rt. W. Bro. Wallace included a new Ontario Flag and Standard and a ceremonial floor covering.

The highlight of the year would have to be the dedication of the Temple in Colborne, Rt. Wor. Bro. D. J. Gunn, D.G.M., officiated at the dedication and we were pleased to have a large turn-out of Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers. The brethren of Colborne Lodge will long remember this night.

During the year Masonry in Ontario District was made poorer by the death of many tried and true brethren whose loss we mourn. Rt. W. Bro. W. Davidson of Composite Lodge, No. 30, V. W. Bro. W. G. Augustus of Composite Lodge and V. W. Bro. G. R. Davey, Fidelity Lodge, Port Perry.

The affairs of Ontario District are in good condition and in competent hands. All the Lodges are sound financially and lodge buildings are in excellent condition.

I now conclude one of the busiest, most profitable and happiest chapters of my Masonic life. The year just ended has been one of many friendships, and I have seen Freemasonry exemplified by my brethren at its finest and best. I would like to thank the Masters, Past Masters, and brethren who accompanied me on so many official visits. It has been for me a liberal education. To all my brethren, who expressed such confidence, I offer my humble and heartfelt thanks.

May I express the hope that the same loyal support, courtesy and friendly co-operation, which has been accorded me, will be extended to my successor.

W. H. ROWDEN, D.D.G.M.

OTTAWA DISTRICT

To have been District Deputy Grand Master for Ottawa District during this past year has been a wonderful, challenging and rewarding experience.

My year of office has been made pleasant by the sincere co-operation and sympathetic understanding of the lodges of the District, and the cordial and gracious reception accorded me on my official visit to each of the twenty-nine lodges certainly shows that the Grand Master and Grand Lodge are held in high esteem by the brethren.

On each of these visits a degree was conferred and it was evident at all times, that the Worshipful Masters and their officers were sincere in their work and anxious to pass on to the candidates their faith in Masonry and their conviction that only the best in any man was good enough. The Worshipful Masters of the year followed my official visits most faithfully. The Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers in the Districts also attended well and supported me in every way possible.

It was my good fortune to have associated with me very capable and devoted Masons as District Officers. Wor. Bro. S. W. Cotton served as District Secretary and accompanied me on my official visits. He reported that the books and records of the lodge Secretaries and Treasurers were being kept in a clear and efficient manner. While I am happy to report that the great majority of lodges in this District are in good shape financially, there are a few who seem reluctant to take positive steps either to collect back dues or apply the Bylaws provided to deal with this situation.

Masonic Education is in very good hands in the Ottawa District. We are indeed fortunate to have Wor. Bro. Robt. C. Taylor as our Supervisor of Masonic Education. He organized two Lodges of Instruction which were sponsored by Ionic Lodge, No. 526, Westboro, and were held on January 5th and March 30th. They consisted of exemplifications of all three degrees and were very well attended by representatives from the different lodges. Wor. Bro. Taylor made many visits to lodges in the District and is to be congratulated on the manner in which he carried on his work. I cannot speak too highly of his service to the Ottawa District.

Our Blood Donors' Committee was headed by Wor. Bro. Colin C. Lillico of Acacia Lodge, No. 561, and he was tireless in his efforts to arouse a sense of duty in the minds of the brethren with regard to this truly Masonic duty. I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to him for his interest in this great humanitarian work.

Owing to the size of the District and the distances involved, I appointed two District Chaplains, Bro. (Rev.) J. E. Allsopp, of Ottawa, and Bro. (Rev.) W. F. Jewell, of Beachburg.

This year a combined Annual Memorial Service and District Divine Service was held on November 7th at St. Matthew's Anglican Church in Ottawa, and Bro. (Rev.) J. E. Allsopp preached the Sermon. On April 24th we were privileged to hear another excellent sermon at the United Church in Beachburg by our Bro. (Rev.) W. F. Jewell. These two Services, as well as those held by individual lodges, have been well attended.

One of the highlights of the year was the centennial anniversary of The Builders Lodge, No. 177, which was fittingly observed and climaxed by a visit of our Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. James N. Allan. Another was the exchange of visits on District Deputy nights with Rt. Wor. Bro. Fred M. Cass, D.D.G.M. of Eastern District, when I visited his lodge in Winchester and he later returned the visit to my Mother Lodge at Russell.

Every lodge in the District held a Ladies' Night and Mrs. Stanley and I were happy, indeed, to be guests at these enjoyable evenings. The Annual Masonic Ball was held at the Chateau Laurier. It, again, was a success and is one of the outstanding social events in the Capital.

I would also like to extend my thanks to Wor. Bro. Wm. May for his efforts in organizing a District Golf Tournament and to V. Wor. Bro. Don Hewer for his success as chairman of the District Curling Bonspiel.

I am pleased to report that Masonry in the Ottawa District is in very good condition but, nevertheless, there is a tendency to be complacent. I believe the larger lodges should consider splitting and forming new lodges. It is also my belief that the Ottawa District is too large for one District Deputy. There are so many official and unofficial functions, which one is expected to attend, that there is no time left to spend with the individual or lodge which needs that extra help. Are we not depriving ourselves of the service of many capable men who just cannot afford the time which is expected of them in a District of this size?

In conclusion, I wish to thank all the brethren for their assistance and loyal support. I have tried to serve them well and trust the year has met with some measure of success.

W. M. STANLEY, D.D.G.M.

PETERBOROUGH DISTRICT

It has been an honour and a privilege for me to represent the Grand Master, the Most Worshipful Brother James N. Allan, in the District of Peterborough. I sincerely thank the Grand Master for confirming my appointment and to my brethren of the District for allowing me to experience this honour.

It was my pleasure to appoint Wor. Bro. D. M. Carswell as District Secretary; Wor. Bro. M. Locke as Supervisor of Masonic Education; Bro. Rev. G. Whitehorne, District Chaplain. Bro. J. C. Smith again consented to be chairman of Blood Donors. I thank them for their service to the District and to me.

During my visits to the twelve lodges of the District I was received with the dignity and sincerity befitting the office, and sensed that an atmosphere of co-operation and brotherly friendship prevailed, with a keen desire to do the ritual work precisely and with feeling.

It was a pleasure to find the affairs of these lodges in very capable hands, and a joy to report that our rural lodges are receiving more candidates. I find Masonic life vigorous and flourishing among the officers and members of these lodges.

During my year I had the happy experience of being present at several initiations of sons of Masons, with the father and relatives being present and assisting in the initiation.

On my visit to Keene Lodge I witnessed a grandfather obligating a grandson, with three generations of Masons present, then again have them present at my Millbrook, J. B. Hall Lodge visit, displaying Masonic activity and brotherly friendship. I am informed this grandfather hopes to obligate the brother of the recent candidate, if the lodge so sees fit, and age permits. I sincerely trust he is allowed this rare and enjoyable privilege.

I endeavored to attend as many district lodge activities as possible, and found these visits very rewarding and enjoyable. Conversely, the city lodge members have reaped much benefit from working co-operatively on joint projects such as Ladies' Nights, Divine Services, and so on. The degree teams of rural and city lodges exchange visits regularly, thus displaying a healthy, Masonic attitude.

Our District Divine Service, held in Christ Church, Campbellford, was well attended. The District Chaplain, Bro. (Rev.) Gordon Whitehorne, delivered an interesting and inspiring message to the brethren, and Rev. Owen C. Barrow of Christ Church assisted in this Service.

It was a privilege and pleasure to attend several of the receptions for our Grand Master throughout the province, and receptions for other Grand Lodge Officers, as well as the dedications of two Masonic Temples at Lindsay and Colborne.

These visits have given me an opportunity to carry the word of Masonry to these other areas from Peterborough District. From the friendships gained, and the experience of Masonry's warmest hospitalities extended wherever I went, the memories of these occasions will never be forgotten. The past year has been a joyous experience, and my life has been greatly enriched by all the courtesies and kindnesses extended by the brethren of Peterborough District. May their prosperity continue and may all the principles of Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth characterize us as men and Masons.

SIDNEY A. HOPPING, D.D.G.M.

PRINCE EDWARD DISTRICT

I trust that the confidence placed in me by the Masons of Prince Edward District has not been misplaced. To be elected as your representative, Most Worshipful Sir, was indeed a challenge and I am well aware of the honour bestowed upon Bancroft Lodge and on me. My sincerest thanks to the Masons of the District for their co-operation and the respect with which they received your representative.

The efficient way in which W. Bro. R. W. Blatherwick carried out his duties as District Secretary, and the invaluable advice and guidance received from him proved my choice to be a wise one. W. Bro. H. E. Petch, in spite of his many other activities, fulfilled his duties as District Chaplain as no one else could have done. It was a pleasure to have them with me on my many visits to the lodges of the District.

R.W. Bro. Clare McFaul once again acted as Masonic Education Supervisor. He was in charge of a meeting of the Wardens of the District held in Belleville Temple, February 28, 1966, sponsored by the Past Masters', Masters', and Wardens'

Association. R.W. Bro. Bruce Portt ably assisted him. I am pleased to report that thirteen Senior Wardens and fourteen Junior Wardens received some very valuable information concerning their forthcoming duties. The number of questions asked by the Wardens proved their interest and I am sure the District will benefit by this meeting in the next two years.

W. Bro. C. W. Barnett consented to act as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee and the results show the effort he has put into this worth-while project.

On April 6, 1966, Moira Lodge, No. 11, was host to the Grand Senior Warden, R.W. Bro. W. D. Stevens, and the Senior Wardens of the District who conferred a First Degree on Mr. Arthur Dickens. All seventeen Wardens were present and, Worshipful Sir, you would have been proud of the calibre of the Work.

The seventeen lodges were officially visited and the spirit of friendship and brotherly love was universally evident. The efficiency of the Masters and officers of the various lodges was clearly shown and I am convinced that the condition of Masonry in this District is sound. The Masonic Education Committees have been active and I have heard, without exception, inspiring talks and interesting explanations of the Work.

Due to my geographical location in the District, I was unable to attend as many installation ceremonies as I would have liked. The ones observed were conducted with the usual dignity by the Past Masters.

Mrs. Hewitt and I were able to attend a number of Ladies' Nights. The hospitality on these informal occasions was greatly appreciated by us. The fellowship and cordiality of these evenings made me proud to be a member of such a wonderful Fraternity.

I was fortunate to be able to attend the Lodge Dedication at Lindsay and share with other Grand Lodge Officers the delight in taking part in the ceremony. The invitation from the D.D.G.M., R.W. Bro. F. M. Cass, of Eastern District, to take a small part in honouring the Most Worshipful Grand Master, was deeply appreciated. I was able to renew many acquaintances, having received a part of my education in Chesterville. The evening in Campbellford with the D.D.G.M., R.W. Bro. S. A. Hopping, and Past D.D.G.M.'s of Peterborough District was educational as well as inspiring.

The District Divine Service was held in St. Paul's United Church, Bancroft, on June 19, 1966. We were graciously received by Bro. (Rev.) H. J. Funge, Minister of the Church. An inspiring message was given by V.W. Bro. (Rev.) J. H. Stewart of Cooksville, Ontario.

The assistance and co-operation of the Masons of Prince Edward District have greatly assisted me in the performance of my duties and I wish to express my heartfelt thanks. The "Torch" now passes to another's hand who will receive the same consideration. "Be yours to hold it high."

ARTHUR M. HEWITT, D.D.G.M.

SARNIA DISTRICT

It is a privilege and a pleasure for me to submit my report, as representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, on the condition of Masonry in the Sarnia District.

May I first express my appreciation to Beaver Lodge, No. 83, for the nomination and the brethren of Sarnia District for honouring Beaver Lodge by electing me District Deputy Grand Master and to Most Worshipful Brother James N. Allan for confirming the election. It was indeed a great honor and privilege to represent the Grand Master in the twenty-one lodges in Sarnia District.

It was my pleasure to appoint Wor. Bro. Reg. Tufford as my District Secretary, and he reports that the books and records of the various lodges are kept in a most efficient manner. I am greatly indebted to him for his assistance and co-operation throughout the year as he was with me on all but one of my Official visits.

It was also my pleasure to appoint Bro. (Rev.) Charles Middleton as my District Chaplain; Bro. Frank Hendry as District Chairman of Blood Donors and Wor. Bro. J. J. Stephenson, fulfilling his third term as Chairman of Masonic Education.

The first notable evening of the year was held in Petrolia in September, when Petrolia played host to the Worshipful Masters and Wardens of the District at a dinner, giving me the privilege of getting acquainted with them and outlining the year's program.

In our District, it is the practice of the District Deputy to observe each lodge in their business and see them at work. When I visited the twenty-one lodges, each one officially and again unofficially, a degree was conferred or exemplified, with the exception of one. At this the degree was cancelled due to the heat and the small number of Masonic brethren present. But I am happy to report that I had visited this lodge on several previous occasions and had witnessed degree work on these visits.

On the Official visit to my Mother Lodge, Beaver, No. 83, I am pleased to say that a good attendance of Grand Lodge Officers were present. During the year I visited with the District Deputy Grand Masters of several surrounding Districts and was well received; these visits were returned.

It also gave me great pleasure to present Bro. Traxler of St. Clair Lodge, Sombra, with his 50 Year Button, and also to be present when V. Wor. Bro. St. Clair Slater and Wor. Bro. John Rose, both of Tuscan Lodge, Sarnia, received their 50 Year Button. In January, it also was a pleasure to present to Wor. Bro. Hugh Hunter, of Burns Lodge, Wyoming, his 50 Year Past Masters Button, which is quite an accomplishment. We wish these brethren good health for the years to come.

I am pleased to announce the instituting of the new Lodge, Otisippi, in Sarnia on June 16, 1966. I am glad this new lodge has come about as more lodges in Sarnia, due to the population increase in the last 25 years, give more of the brethren an opportunity to take part in lodge work and management. It was a great honor to have this lodge instituted in my year as D.D.G.M. as this is the first new lodge in Sarnia District in 44 years.

The District Divine Service was held on June 5, 1966, in the Kerwood United Church, with a good attendance of Masonic brethren and their families. An inspiring message on Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth was delivered by the District Chaplain, Bro. Rev. Charles Middleton, present Senior Warden of St. John's Lodge, Mt. Brydges. Divine Services were held by the various lodges in the District. Most of these I have attended and in most cases they were well attended by the brethren.

Mrs. Patterson and I enjoyed the Ladies' Nights throughout the District. We were made most welcome and the opportunity of associating with the Masons and their wives has been an enjoyable one. To these lodges we say a very sincere "Thank You," and to those we had to decline, our apologies.

Although we did not have the honor of having the Grand Master in our District this year, I had the pleasure of being in several other Districts in which he was so honored. One in particular with the 100th anniversary of Walsingham Lodge, in Port Rowan.

The report of the Blood Donors' Committee in Sarnia District has been very encouraging, with the percentage up from last year.

Masonic Education—I feel that this is the most pressing need of our Order and, as Supervisor of Masonic Education, Wor. Bro. Joseph Stephenson of Burns Lodge, gave valuable leadership in organizing and conducting Masonic Education work, and from Bulletins received from Rt. Wor. Bro. Wm. K. Bailey.

Also, the Sarnia District Past Masters' and Wardens' Association is very active, having, during the year, three meetings in which all members of the twenty-one lodges participate.

As the Grand Master has stressed the need for less suspensions, this year, I feel Sarnia District has complied with this, as suspensions this year have decreased a considerable amount.

In conclusion, may I take this opportunity again to thank most sincerely the Grand Master and the brethren of the Sarnia District for granting me this privilege of serving Masonry in this District. Also to my devoted Secretary, Chaplain, Chairman of Blood Donors and Chairman of Masonic Education, a sincere thank you for the splendid work done. I am most grateful to the Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers, Past Masters, Worshipful Masters, the officers and members of the twenty-one lodges, for their inspiration and support. I hope, in some small way, that I have contributed to the betterment of Masonry in general and Sarnia District in particular.

ROBERT G. PATTERSON, D.D.G.M.

ST. LAWRENCE DISTRICT

At the close of this most exciting year, it is my pleasant duty to present this report of the Masonic activities in St. Lawrence District.

It is most unfortunate that every Mason cannot represent the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, because it is something that he will never forget. The high esteem in which our Grand Master is held throughout our District was quite evident in the turnouts at our visitations.

With one exception every lodge has shown a tremendous interest in the Craft and so many of our newer members are eager to learn all they can from our Masonic way of life.

Masonic Education, which is the lifeblood of our society, was very capably organized by Wor. Bro. H. Wallace as our District Supervisor. He had the District divided in four, each with its own chairman and they looked after the lodges in their own group. Some of the talks we heard were real gems of wisdom and were well received by the members. My sincere thanks go to Bro. Wallace for a job well done. The additional bulletins he sent to the lodges were very beneficial.

A great contribution to the Craft was rendered by Wor. Bro. W. Whitney in his capacity as Blood Donor Chairman. He has put a lot of effort into his work and this is shown by the increase in blood donations during the year. He has been present at many of our official visits and always encouraged the brethren for this worthy cause. His letters and talks have brought good results.

Of course the real backbone of the District Deputy is his Secretary. Wor. Bro. Helmer Reddick filled that office for me, and his dedication and devotion to his office is something I shall never forget. He attended all our meetings and fulfilled his duties in a most capable manner.

On each official visit to a lodge there was always degree work, and most times a good talk on Masonic Education. There was always a good turnout of lodge members and, of course, many visitors from sister lodges. It bears mention about the members from St. Francis Lodge, Smiths Falls, who followed the District Deputy on every one of his official visits; nineteen in all. This support will never be forgotten.

The messages to the lodges at the banquet table were short and to the point. Some of the topics we touched on were, "Duties of the Sponsor of a Candidate," "Responsibilities of the Investigating Committee," "Keeping our Meetings Interesting," "Harmony at our Assemblies," and many others, which I thought would be of interest and a benefit.

The highlight of the year was the Divine Service, held in the United Church, Spencerville, on Sunday, May 15th. The District Chaplain, Bro. (Rev.) Keith Whitney, who is stationed in P.E.I., came home to conduct the Service, and we had Rabbi David Kozak from the Congregation Anshe Zophen, in Ogdensburg, N.Y., as guest speaker. This was a memorable day with a huge turnout of Masons present from near and far.

The dedication of Macoy Lodge, No. 242, on April 23rd, was truly a grand evening, with Rt. Wor. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, D.G.M., presiding. This lodge, which was destroyed by fire two years ago and now rebuilt, held a most enjoyable banquet, serving dinner to over 200 Masons in their new dining hall.

Of course the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association is a great help in keeping our District together. At our meetings in June and September, the important business and problems are discussed, and we are usually treated to some very fine speakers. Our Association also helps in the selection of the new District Deputy.

There were many "Ladies' Nights" held during the year, and my sincere thanks to the lodges for their kind invitations to attend.

The Past Grand Lodge Officers in our District have done a fine job. They support the District Deputy on visitations and are always available for assistance and guidance at all times. God bless them.

In closing, I would like to thank each and every one who has given me the opportunity of serving the District. It truly has been a rewarding year.

BEN J. STECK, D.D.G.M.

ST. THOMAS DISTRICT

It has been an honour as well as a privilege for me, this year, to have been the representative of the Grand Master in this District. I would again thank the brethren of Talbot Lodge,

No. 546, for selecting me and the district lodges for supporting me, as well as the Grand Master for endorsing their choice.

I have been ably supported by my District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Schooley, also District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. (Rev.) Coates.

Following an interesting and educational meeting with Most Wor. Bro. Martyn for D.D.G.M.'s in London, a meeting was held with the Masters of the district lodges prior to the annual fall Past Masters' dinner at Iona.

Some instructive and attendance ideas were passed on to them, as well as some thoughts relative to leadership of meetings both in lodge and banquet rooms and their responsibilities to their lodges and the district.

All the lodges were visited officially once as well as on other special occasions, such as presentations of 50-Year Lapel Buttons. On all such occasions I was received with good Masonic affection and respect.

I enjoyed and was greatly pleased to share inter-district visitations with neighbouring District Deputies, as well as travelling with them to many of the Grand Master's Receptions in other districts.

An annual District Sunrise Church Service, followed by a sit-down breakfast, is being organized to be held in Pinafore Park, St. Thomas, June 12th. All indications point toward good interest in it as well as a large attendance.

In summary, I observe that some of the district lodges, having experienced a decline in previous years, seem to be stabilizing now.

Shortage of youthful officer material appears to be of some concern, partly accountable by greater industrialization as well as shifts in population.

Most lodges are in a good financial position but it has been necessary for some to raise their dues in line with current costs. Some who have not done this are contemplating doing so.

The work is uniform and reasonably well done in most lodges. With a few exceptions candidates seem to be applying in ample numbers.

Suspensions continue to be of concern but are being watched more closely in conformity with the Grand Master's recommendations.

RECOMMENDATIONS

That each lodge consider annual recognition of birthdays of members by months at their regular meetings with the aim of showing greater interest in the brother, at the same time providing an attendance incentive.

That each lodge consider operating with a Committee of General Purposes, composed of the Wardens, Past Masters, Secretary and Treasurer, to assist the Master in good government of the lodge, also helping to make meetings more interesting and educational.

That the funeral ritual be modernized.

That a suggested guide for Master's duties be originated to enable them to realize their responsibilities to their lodges and District.

In conclusion, I am pleased to state Masonry as a whole is in good condition and interest remains high in St. Thomas District.

LORNE R. MacLEOD, D.D.G.M.

SOUTH HURON DISTRICT

As I submit my report, at the end of the year, as the representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, in South Huron District, I would gratefully acknowledge the help and encouragement afforded to me by many people. I am deeply indebted to all the district officers;—to my District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Don McLeod of Craig Lodge; the District Chaplain, Bro. (Rev.) R. S. Hiltz of Exeter; Rt.Wor. Bro. R. G. Shortreed of Clinton, Chairman of the Masonic Education Committee; and Rt.Wor. Bro. Clare Reith of Seaforth, Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee. Rt.Wor. Bro. Herb Sparling, a member of the Board of General Purposes, was of inestimable help to me in carrying out my duties in this District, as he has been to all South Huron D.D.G.M.'s in recent years. He included me in many trips to other districts throughout the province, and saw to it that I became acquainted with most of the officers and members of Grand Lodge. Rt. Wor. Bro. Sparling is truly an ambassador of good will for South Huron District all over Ontario. I shall always remember his many kindnesses to me.

I visited all seventeen lodges in the District at least once, and most of them on more than one occasion, although I had to miss one of my official visits because of illness. The degree work on all occasions was presented in a dignified and efficient manner, and the lodges appear to be sound financially, but I would expect that a few of the lodges will have to consider raising their dues within two or three years, as costs seem to be continually rising.

I believe that the conduct of the lodge meetings in our District has improved a great deal in the last few years. The Worshipful Masters appear to be following the instruction book sent to them following their installation. Most of the meetings I attended started on time, the business was conducted at a brisk pace, and the degree work was carried out in a dignified manner but with no time lost, so that lodge could be closed down with time left for fellowship and refreshment. I would suggest that a few of our lodges might improve the organization of the refreshment period. Refreshments should be ready as soon as the lodge is closed. On occasions, this year, there was a time lag of as much as half an hour between closing and refreshment, so that some of the brethren went home rather than wait.

A few of our Worshipful Masters have mentioned to me that they have difficulty getting their junior officers to attend degree practice and even lodge meetings. This is a serious problem and one that cannot be solved by an outsider, but solved it must be if these lodges are to be strong in the future. I can only suggest that this question be given serious consideration by the senior officers and Past Masters of the lodges concerned. It must be impressed on the junior officers that it is their duty to fill their chairs at every lodge meeting, that they themselves are going to derive satisfaction from a job well done and that each of the junior offices helps to fit them for the Master's chair.

South Huron has an active Past Masters' and Wardens' Association who also extend a great deal of help to the D.D.G.M. Among their activities this year was a Fall Education Meeting held in Doric Lodge, Parkhill, where Rt.Wor. Bro. Bruce McCall gave us a very fine message. They also sponsored a District Ladies' Night in the Exeter Legion Hall, with about three hundred and seventy-five present. The speaker on this occasion was Rev. R. T. Marshall of Strathroy.

I was in a rather unique position this year, in that I lived very close to Rt.Wor. Bro. Hord of London District, and Rt.Wor. Bro. Patterson of Sarnia District. This meant that we exchanged many fraternal visits during the year and travelled together into many other districts. R.Wor. Bro. Hord also conducted my Official Visit to St. James Lodge in St. Marys, when I was unable to attend because of illness, and I am very grateful to him for this.

Our District Divine Service was held in the Ailsa Craig United Church and was well attended. The Service was conducted by the minister, Rev. John Davies, and the message was delivered by the District Chaplain, Bro. (Rev.) R. S. Hiltz, who took as his subject "The Volume of the Sacred Law." Brethren of the District formed a choir for this occasion. Following the Service, the ladies of the church served lunch to the Masons and their families. This courtesy was very much appreciated.

I attended many Divine Services held by the lodges of the District. Mrs. Rosser and I were happy to accept invitations to several Ladies' Nights. I would suggest that every lodge should attempt to hold a Ladies' Night each year, as I believe the surest way to maintain interest in any organization is to have the ladies interested in it.

As I conclude, it has been a great privilege to represent the Grand Master in South Huron District and I shall always be indebted to those who made it possible.

JOHN A. ROSSER, D.D.G.M.

TEMISKAMING DISTRICT

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the brethren of Corinthian Lodge, No. 657, for selecting me as their appointment for the office of District Deputy Grand Master of the District of Temiskaming and to the Most Worshipful the Grand Master for his confirmation of my election by the delegates at the district meeting.

The inspiring and instructive meeting with M.Wor. Bro. H. L. Martyn at North Bay in late July was of great value. His words of advice and instruction proved to be most helpful during the year.

A few words of thanks must be extended to my District officers, Wor. Bro. Wallace Stroud, District Secretary; Wor. Bro. Ernest Lavery, Chairman of Masonic Education; Wor. Bro. Norman Orcheson, District Chairman of Blood Donors and Wor. Bro. Gordon Burrows, District Chaplain, each of whom served his office well and gave so generously of his time. Many pleasant hours of fellowship were enjoyed on our long journeys throughout the District.

Following the practice of the last few years, I met the Worshipful Masters and the Wardens of the nine lodges early in September. These informal meetings proved to be of inestimable value as I was able to put forth my plans for the year and at the same time to answer the many questions which could not have been done on my official visits. The fact alone that I was able to get to know the brethren was of infinite value.

Although I felt that all of my visits were highlights, the 50th Anniversary of Englehart Lodge, No. 534, must be considered the outstanding event of the year. Englehart Lodge and the District were honoured by the visit of Most Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon and Rt.Wor. Bro. George McQueen for the well-attended event. Both of these brethren brought messages which will long be remembered.

I hesitate to change the tone of my message from one of happiness to one of gloom but I must express my regrets to the brethren of Abitibi Lodge, No. 540, who lost their lodge room, furniture, regalia and records in a fire in early August. These brethren are to be commended for holding their lodge together and continuing their Masonic activities under great difficulties, having to travel long distances each month to hold their meetings. I hope their plans will soon be finalized for new or renovated premises so that Masonry will once again flourish in Iroquois Falls.

I made official visitations to each of the nine lodges in the District and was received in each one with that dignity and respect due a representative of the Grand Master. The work was well done and, to the best of my knowledge, all lodges are operating in close harmony and high efficiency.

I regret that the distances in Temiskaming District are so great and that the winter is so long as I would have liked to have made a second visit to each lodge to enjoy the fellowship so generously displayed.

The District Secretary reported to me that the books of the various lodges were kept in an excellent manner. However, in several cases he suggested that consideration should be given to the establishment of a more definite policy with regard to the collection of fees.

The District Chaplain, Wor. Bro. Gordon Burrows, arranged two District Church Services. Both of these Services were conducted by brethren of the cloth and were very well attended.

Throughout my travels I encouraged the lodges to set aside their regular meetings for lodge business and a period of Masonic Education. Most lodges are making good use of the Grand Lodge material forwarded to them by Wor. Bro. E. A. Lavery, District Chairman of Masonic Education.

Wor. Bro. Norman Orcheson, District Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, has reported another increase in blood donations in the District. To the brethren of the various lodges, I say, "Thank you for your contribution to a worthy cause."

On my visit to Spruce Falls Lodge, No. 648, I was delighted to welcome to the District of Temiskaming, R.Wor. Bro. Bruce Doyle, D.D.G.M. of Algoma District, who made a special trip, along with some of his brethren, from Hornepayne to be present on the occasion of my official visit. The brethren remarked that this was the first time in the history of the lodge that they had had the pleasure of having two D.D.G.M.'s on the same evening.

In conclusion, I would like to thank all the Grand Lodge Officers for the assistance and guidance given to me during the year. My term of office has been the highlight of my Masonic career. I only hope that in my messages to each lodge I left something that will contribute to the advancement of Masonry in the future. It has been a rewarding experience and I thank the brethren of the District of Temiskaming for making it possible.

RUSSELL R. WILSON, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "1"

It has been a great honour and a rare privilege to represent the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in Toronto District "1" during 1965 - 1966.

The District Secretary was W. Bro. G. C. Mercer of Connaught Lodge, No. 501. He examined the books of each lodge and found them, without exception, in good order. The co-operation with and assistance of each Secretary to the District Secretary were most gratifying. He accompanied me on all of my official visits, as well as other visits, and I am sure that this genial and friendly personality made many friends for both of us throughout the District.

It was my pleasure in having Bro. (Rev.) K. G. Kiddell, B.A., Lth., as District Chaplain. Our District Divine Service was held at the Church of the Atonement. It was well attended.

The Chairman of Masonic Education, W. Bro. Robert Smith, and Secretary, W. Bro. J. P. O'Sullivan, performed their duties in a faithful and satisfactory manner. The District Education meetings were well attended, thanks to all the members of the Education Committee.

W. Bro. Hartley Thompson, Chairman of Blood Donors, has worked hard to bring the need for blood donors before the brethren. The splendid report is directly the results of his efforts.

On two occasions I had the privilege of presenting 50 Year Lapel Buttons. These events are always a joy and we can anticipate that, with the progress of medical science, we shall see more and more of them. It was a pleasure to have with me on many occasions, R.W. Bro. Donald Gunn, D.G.M.

I attended Stanley Lodge, No. 426, who had their 75th Anniversary, and also, six Installation Ceremonies in District "1," where the Installing Master was the father of the Master-elect. I feel that this is certainly a wonderful honour.

Mrs. Manson and I, together with Mrs. Mercer and W. Bro. G. C. Mercer, attended a number of "Ladies' Nights." We were made most welcome and the opportunity of associating with the Masons and their wives has been an enjoyable one. To these lodges we wish to say a very sincere "thank you" and to those whose invitations we were forced to decline, we offer our apologies.

In my visits to all the lodges, I have been impressed by the high standard of the work and by the enthusiastic leadership of the Worshipful Masters and their officers. The work was presented in a sincere and dignified manner and it is a pleasure to see many of the junior officers and members taking part in the degree work, which adds interest to Masonry for the younger brethren.

It was a pleasure to be associated with the District Deputy Grand Masters of Toronto Districts "2", "5" and "6" in sponsoring a Dinner and Reception in honour of our Grand Master, Most W. Bro. J. N. Allan. The Grand Master delivered an inspiring and thought-provoking address which I know made every man who was present proud that he was a Mason.

In conclusion, I would like to thank all the Grand Lodge Officers for the assistance and guidance given to me during the year. My term of office as D.D.G.M. has been a richly rewarding experience, the memories of which will remain with me throughout my life. It is my hope that in some way I have been able to contribute to the advancement of Masonry in Toronto District "1."

WM. MANSON, D.D.G.M.

Whenever I visited any lodge in the District, I was received warmly and in a most gracious and dignified manner. The brethren taking part in the work, which I viewed on the occasion of the official visits, exemplified it with sincerity. With one or two exceptions they were of the standard we have come to expect in Toronto District "2." Where correction or improvement was necessary, this was quietly brought to the Worshipful Master's attention.

The books and records of each lodge were in good order and were made readily available to the District Secretary, W. Bro. J. W. Finnimore, who praised the Lodge Secretaries for their ready assistance to provide any information asked for. These records also indicate that the financial condition of each lodge is generally good to excellent. In almost every case, current expenses are met without recourse to the reserves and most lodges are keeping outstanding dues low. I am indebted to W. Bro. Finnimore for the excellent manner in which he has performed his duties this year and indeed more than should be expected.

I am aware of the many reasons that have been advanced for the continuing decline in membership. However, the Worshipful Masters in this District are enthusiastically applying themselves to reverse this trend. Our guarantee for the future and their efforts can be encouraged by many who are in the position to offer help and assistance in the affairs of the lodge.

The District Education Committee, most capably headed by V.W. Bro. A. C. Gerrard, produced a booklet for the guidance of Lodge Chairmen and this was very well received. The opinion of many of our members is that Masonic Education is the responsibility of the local lodge. The District being responsible for instruction, the District Committee was, therefore, enlarged to include all Lodge Chairmen. By being a part of this Committee these men are able to discuss ways and means of developing programmes to meet the needs of their members. A more active participation at the local level has been the result. Up to the present, five lodges have or will have plans well advanced for an evening's programme of Masonic Education only. If continued throughout the District, a much larger audience will be reached.

The District Blood Donors' Committee continues to make progress under the direction of W. Bro. E. P. Bruce, using the system he started last year; the increase this year being 52.6%. I am sure the support given to the Red Cross Blood Programme by our members is much greater than the donations we are able to record. I draw to your attention the suggestion of W. Bro. Bruce for an article in the Bulletin explaining Grand Lodge's position in this service and why a record should be kept.

I was privileged to attend the Divine Services sponsored by several lodges, either alone or combined with sister lodges, and the attendance was good. Those fortunate enough to have been able to attend the District Service held in Iondale Heights United Church will long be inspired by the address delivered by the District Chaplain, Bro. (the Reverend) L. G. King.

On October 16th, 1965, with the Deputy Grand Master, R. W. Bro. D. J. Gunn, presiding and under the direction of M. W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, it was my pleasure to assist in the Constituting and Consecrating of Islington Lodge, No. 715. Two weeks later, I had the further pleasure of Installing and Investing the Worshipful Master and Officers of this new lodge which, in its first year of operation, is enjoying an attendance far in excess of the district average. The difference appears to be Appreciation, Communication and Participation.

I understand the theme at the recent Washington Conference was that Freemasonry should present "An Image of Growth." With the completion this fall of the new Temple in the west end of this City, the opportunity and accommodation will be available for further expansion. This expansion would demonstrate that we are aware of the tremendous potential in this area.

In co-operation with the brethren in Districts "1," "5" and "6," a reception was tendered to the Most Worshipful Grand Master. The brethren present were privileged to listen to an interesting and instructive address by M.W. Bro. James N. Allan.

In conclusion, then, I am pleased to report that I believe Masonry in Toronto District "2" to be in a good condition, our members being conscious of the fact that there is always room for improvement.

D. W. McKERRACHER, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "3"

May I first express my appreciation to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for the confidence you have placed in me by confirming my election, and to the brethren of Toronto District No. 3 for the honour they have given to my lodge, Doric, No. 424, and to myself.

Wor. Bro. Frank Simons was appointed District Secretary and has been of great assistance in all official as well as social duties.

Wor. Bro. Charles Ness was appointed as Supervisor of Masonic Education to continue the good work started in 1965. He has been assisted by Wor. Bro. Donald M. Wilson as Secretary. Wor. Bro. Roy Cordingley, Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, was an enthusiastic promoter of this good work as he himself is a donor. I am grateful for the valuable assistance of Bro. (Rev.) T. Rex Norman, B.A., B.D., who was appointed District Chaplain.

All lodges in my District were officially visited. Without exception, a warm, genuine, dignified reception was given to me. A degree was worked in each lodge and the uniformly excellent work and sometimes exceptional presentation of the degree were a great credit to the Worshipful Master and his Officers.

The District Secretary examined all the books and records and was able to report very favourably on the excellence of the various Secretaries' work and the co-operation he received. The financial condition of all lodges was good. There has been a slight increase in attendance over the previous year and in most cases a holding steady or slight increase in membership.

It was my pleasure to attend all Installations and all Ladies' Nights, as well as many special events, in the various lodges in the District. These inspiring meetings and social visits do much to weld the whole District into a great fraternal unit. One very personal pleasure was to attend the reception to M. Wor. Bro. James N. Allan, Grand Master, in Toronto, on March 19, 1966. I also had the honour and pleasure of attending with him or his Deputy several consecrations and dedications.

The receptions to my brother District Deputies in Toronto and immediate neighbours were attended and one which will be long remembered is the reception to R. Wor. Bro. Walter T. Overend. This worthy brother is an honorary member of Doric Lodge, No. 424, and it was my pleasure to extend good wishes on behalf of my District and lodge.

Under the direction of Wor. Bro. Roy Cordingley a Blood Donors' Clinic was held with a moderate response from the brethren but excellent public relations resulted from the effort.

On November 4, 1965, The Beaches Lodge, No. 473, celebrated their Diamond Jubilee with R. Wor. Bro. Donald M. Fleming, Q.C., as guest speaker, with consecration of new colours and new altar cloth by Bro. (Rev.) T. Rex Norman, District Chaplain. Wor. Bro. Allan Spofford and his Committee are to be congratulated on a very fine evening.

On Sunday, January 30th, 1966, Birch Cliff Lodge, No. 612, held their annual Church Service at St. Nicholas Anglican Church and the memorial window "St. John," a gift of the Masonic brethren of that church, was dedicated. The District held its Annual Divine Service on a Sunday afternoon and the time of the Service was well received. Rev. T. Rex Norman, District Chaplain, preached the sermon.

The presentation of 50 Year Lapel Buttons to some of the brethren was a great pleasure and one deserves special mention. On January 20, 1966, being the same date and day of his own installation as Master in 1916, Wor. Bro. Harry E. Reid was presented with a lapel button representing 50 years as a Past Master of Doric Lodge, No. 316.

My deep appreciation for their kind assistance and direction is extended to M. Wor. Bro. E. G. Dixon, M. Wor. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, R. Wor. Bro. Wm. K. Bailey, and many other past and present Grand Lodge Officers, as well as to the Masters, Wardens and members of the lodges in this District, for their patience, enthusiasm and untiring efforts

CYRIL E. MORLEY, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "4"

It is my privilege to submit the following report on the condition of Masonry in Toronto District "4" for 1965-1966.

I am very grateful for having had the pleasure of representing the Most Worshipful the Grand Master and for the most thrilling and educational experience of my life.

I shall always be indebted to the Worshipful Master, Past Masters and Wardens of Coronati Lodge, No. 520, for nominating me, and to Toronto District "4" for electing me, and to the Grand Master for confirming my election.

It has always been my opinion that if you want a job done well and done when you want it, give it to a busy man. Consequently I appointed busy men who were well-skilled Past Masters to assist me in discharging my duties. My belief paid off because every one of them fulfilled his obligations beyond my fondest expectations and was a credit to Masonry.

In selecting a District Secretary I was most fortunate in having Wor. Bro. Wm. E. Taylor accept the appointment. His congenial manner, businesslike appearance, his knowledge of how books and records should be kept, because of his business and educational qualifications, commanded the respect of everyone in the District. He reports that the records of the lodges are efficiently and conscientiously kept in a good to excellent manner, and that all lodges are in a fair to excellent financial condition, but some are showing greater expenses than income. However I was pleased to learn that all lodges have either taken steps or will be taking steps to try and make their lodges self-sufficient on dues alone.

I was pleased to appoint Wor. Bro. (The Reverend) Ronald V. Campkin as District Chaplain and had the privilege of seeing him priested during his term of office. The District Church Service was a huge success and my thanks to W. Bro. Campkin for his inspiring address and for his help throughout the year.

Wor. Bro. Herbert Claridge again rendered meritorious service to Toronto District "4" as Director of the Blood Donors' Committee. His report shows a keen interest in this worth-while cause but we could do with more donors.

The Director of Masonic Education, V.Wor. Bro. George McCulloch, worked faithfully to encourage the interest of the members. The fall meeting was a panel consisting of the members of the committee answering questions of general Masonic interest and the spring meeting was based on short talks given by the entire committee together with eight past D.D.G.M.'s which were exceptionally well received by all present.

Thanks to good health I was able to visit all the lodges in the District at least once and was thrilled to see all degrees and on each visit to see that the Worshipful Master, his officers, members and Past Masters were all working as a team to impress the candidate. The work in every case was good to excellent and I must remark on the high calibre of the officers as a whole and their participation in the mechanics. The improvement in the past few years has been tremendous, thanks to the untiring efforts of the Masonic Education Committees of the past and the booklets prepared and supplied by Rt. Wor. Bro. Wm. K. Bailey.

In all of my visits I was encouraged and heartened by the excellent attendance of Present Grand Lodge Officers, Worshipful Masters, Wardens, members and visitors.

I was privileged to be able to attend many receptions and installations and, because there were conflicting nights, I accepted the first invitation received.

Mrs. Duckworth and I, together with Mrs. Taylor and Wor. Bro. Taylor, attended all of the Ladies' Nights and we will be forever grateful to the Worshipful Masters, Senior Wardens and their ladies for their gracious hospitality. I must also congratulate the ladies for their interest in helping in every way to make the evenings and particularly the social events interesting to all, which is for the good of Masonry.

There were several outstanding events in the District which I attended, but two in particular were—the reception for Rt. Wor. Bro. Walter T. Overend by his Mother Lodge, Coronati No. 520, in recognition of 52 years of devoted service to the Craft in general, and the reception for V. Wor. Bro. Frank Cooper on the presentation of his Grand Lodge Regalia just before his 90th birthday by Queen City Lodge, No. 552.

In closing, I extend my sincere thanks to the Present and Past Grand Lodge Officers whose kindly advice made my task so much easier; also for their concern regarding the future of Masonry and their efforts and thoughts to improve interest and attendance.

HARRY H. DUCKWORTH, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "5"

To have had my election confirmed by you at the One Hundred and Tenth Communication of Grand Lodge as your representative for Toronto District "5" was indeed an honour I shall always cherish.

During each visit as District Deputy Grand Master I must report the reception I received was with true Masonic dignity and every courtesy was extended to Wor. Bro. Sabine, the District Secretary, and myself.

I visited each lodge in my District at least once during the year. Unfortunately, I must report there were two lodges I was unable to inspect due to a back injury, but I am happy to say that they were inspected by R.Wor. Bro. John Yaeger, P.D.D.G.M., Toronto District "5" — and R.Wor. Bro. Gordon Cluskey, D.D.G.M., Toronto District "6." I am very grateful to these two brethren for their most capable assistance and consideration. Their report to me was as I found during my inspections. The degrees are being conferred in a highly satisfactory manner. Masonry in this District is in capable hands both now and for the future. Lodge attendance and membership over the past year is much the same as the previous year. Buildings and appurtenances are in excellent condition.

I was very pleased to have as District Secretary Wor. Bro. Keith Sabine. He has performed his duties in a most efficient manner. He reports that all lodge records are well kept in the prescribed manner and he is quite satisfied with the work of the Lodge Secretaries.

Masonic Education received due attention this year under the capable chairmanship of Wor. Bro. Bruce Burden and Secretary, Wor. Bro. Ronald Kay, along with their committee. Lodges of Instruction were held at Tuscan Lodge, Newmarket, and Zetland Lodge, Toronto. These meetings were composed of well-prepared, short talks on various parts of Masonry and were well attended. My thanks are extended to the members of the Advisory Board for their participation.

Some lodges held Church Services and I was pleased to attend and participate in each. The District Divine Service was held at St. James Bond United Church which is the church of Brother (The Reverend) Harry M. Denning, B.A., B.D., the Chaplain for Toronto District "5," who gave a most inspiring talk.

The Blood Donors' Committee, under the capable direction of Wor. Bro. Wm. Hill, Director, assisted by Bro. S. M. Stewart, showed excellent results considering this was their first year on this committee, taking over from V. Wor. Bro. James Manuel.

I attended most Installations and I am sure that all present were deeply impressed by the dignified manner in which these Installations were performed. The highlight of my year was having the honour of installing my own son, Wm. Elvidge, in the chair of King Solomon.

Mrs. Elvidge and I, with Mrs. Sabine and Wor. Bro. Sabine, the District Secretary, attended several "Ladies' Nights." These were most enjoyable evenings for us.

In conclusion, may I offer my humble thanks to you and to those who assisted me in this important year.

S. GORDON ELVIDGE, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "6"

I wish to thank the Officers and Past Masters of the District in honouring FAIRBANK LODGE, No. 592, and myself, in electing me to be the direct representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, and to the Grand Master for confirming my appointment.

To assist me during the year, I appointed Wor. Bro. George Paul, a P.M. and Secretary of Fairbank Lodge, as District Secretary; Wor. Bro. Aubrey H. L. Barker, a P.M. of Bedford Lodge, as Chairman of the District Masonic Education Committee; Wor. Bro. (Dr.) D. Murray Martyn, a P.M. of Harry L. Martyn Lodge, as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee; and Bro. (Rev.) A. W. Jones, B.A., as District Chaplain. Wor. Bro. Paul was of invaluable assistance to me as District Secretary, and the manner in which he performed his varied duties merited the acclaim of all the lodges in the District.

Wor. Bro. Barker appointed the following to serve on the Committee of Masonic Education; Wor. Bro. Harold Jack, Secretary, and as members, Wor. Bros. Thomas Allen, Thomas Brodhurst, Harold Gray, Howard Morton and Andrew Rose. We were honoured to have several of our Past D.D.G.M.'s on the Advisory Board. We held two District Masonic Education Meetings, one in Bedford Lodge on Tuesday, February 15th, when papers on the First Degree were presented, and the other, for Master Masons only, on the Third Degree in Rising Sun Lodge, Aurora, on Thursday, April 7th.

Wor. Bro. (Dr.) Martyn reports that, so far, the results from the information he has received from the Lodges' Chairmen of their Blood Donors' Committees seem quite favourable.

The dignified manner in which I was introduced and received into each lodge on my official visit from the first, at Rising Sun Lodge, Aurora, on October 7th, to the last, at Delta Lodge on May 10th, has shown me that Freemasonry in Toronto District "6" is flourishing. This has been proven to me by the way in which each Worshipful Master and his officers performed the work of the evening, which would be a credit to any degree team, and left nothing to be desired.

On Sunday, April 24th, three District Divine Services were held. Toronto District "3" was held at Ajax at 3.00 p.m., Districts "1" and "6" were held in the evening. Toronto District "6" Divine Service was held at Willowdale United Church; the District Chaplain, Bro. (Rev.) A. W. Jones, B.A., delivered an inspiring address on "A Sermon in Stones." The Service was well attended and I was honoured to have two Past Grand Masters, several Past Grand Lodge Officers and the District Deputy Grand Masters of Toronto "2," "3," "4," "5" and "7" which was most appreciated.

My sincere thanks go to Rt.Wor. Bro. N. Coulson Malloy, District Deputy Grand Master, Toronto District "7," and to his District Secretary, Wor. Bro. Norman C. Payne, for performing the Inspection of Fairbank Lodge on March 21st, owing to my being Treasurer, and Wor. Bro. Paul being Secretary of Fairbank Lodge.

I have had the honour of attending many Ladies' Nights held in the District, accompanied by my wife, Sadie, together with Wor. Bro. George Paul and his wife, Robina. Each visit evinced the high esteem in which the Grand Master and Grand Lodge is held by the brethren and their ladies.

This year Toronto Districts "1," "2," "5" and "6" held a very successful Reception to the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in York Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, March 19th. It was well attended. The Grand Master gave us some insight into the workings of Grand Lodge which was appreciated by all.

The time has nearly come when my successor shall take over, and I wish for him a good year, and may Masonry prosper under his direction in Toronto District "6."

F. GORDON CLUSKEY, D.D.G.M.

TORONTO DISTRICT "7"

" . . . ; the FCs were paid their wages in specie."

No tangible remuneration in the form of "specie" could possibly compensate me for the Masonic experiences encountered during 1965 - 66. The honour of representing our Grand Master in Toronto District "7" was the obvious high light in over thirty years of Craft membership.

The Toronto area Districts have always enjoyed very close ties. The receptions accorded my fellow D.D.G.M.'s, along with my own at Vaughan Lodge, No. 54, got everything off to a perfect start in September. We also met frequently during the year.

Prior to the first of the 26 official visitations, a most productive meeting was attended by the Worshipful Masters, Wardens and the newly-appointed committee chairmen. Plans for the current Masonic year were formulated and objectives agreeably established. I am so grateful for their constant, enthusiastic support and participation.

The Constitution and Consecration of Bridgewood Lodge, No. 713, our District's first "increase" in almost forty years, was a very "happy event." Coming early in the fall, it gave many brethren the opportunity to work with the new Grand Lodge officers as well as those who have guided us so faithfully in the past. I was blessed with an exceptionally good "team," each one of which made highly constructive contributions beyond the scope of their particular responsibilities.

Our District Secretary, W. Bro. Norman Payne, was most favourably impressed by the excellent co-operation he received from the officers and members, and the Secretaries in particular, of each of our lodges. This was due, in a great measure, to his untiring efforts to oblige and assist in every way possible. Bro. (Rev.) Marshall Jess, our Chaplain, was present at many District functions which profited greatly as a result. He preached the sermon at our District Divine Service at Glenview Presbyterian Church.

As Chairman of Masonic Education for a second year, W. Bro. Jack King instituted an educational meeting for new Master Masons raised within the past year. Our sincere thanks go to the moderator, Bro. William Rash, the panel members, R.W. Bros. R. Lindsey, S. Nixon and W. Sills and the W.M.'s who assisted. The highlight of our regular meeting was Bro. (Rev.) J. Gordon Jones who enlarged on our district theme "Masonry in your Community."

W. Bro. John Thistle, who last year inaugurated a very successful Masonic Blood Donors' Clinic at York Temple, again chaired this important committee. Arrangements have been made to continue this demonstration of Charity and Brotherly Love.

Masonry is being maintained at a very high level throughout the District. The unique programme of the Senior Wardens' Association, the continuing enthusiasm of its graduates and the loyalty of our Grand Lodge officers are reflected in the excellence of the ritual at all degrees and installations. The high calibre of the summonses of the various lodges is indicative of the dedication of those responsible for them. The role played by the Central Masonic Bureau is most helpful.

Although there was a decrease in membership of almost 2%, the initiations were in excess of the uncontrollable number of deaths. Significantly, those lodges, experiencing the least problems with attendance and arrears, had the greatest number of meetings incorporating Masonic Education. As 27% of our 6,437 members have better than 25 years' service, it was refreshing to see several relatively young men seek admission. Perhaps the general public is becoming more aware of our place in society.

It is a pleasure to report that the various Divine Services were well attended. The Ladies' Nights and other social functions were highly successful and a credit to our Fraternity. Our sincere gratitude, on behalf of the District Secretary and our wives, for the many kindnesses shown to us at such functions.

The large number of visitations of lodges within and beyond this District and our own Grand Jurisdiction augurs well for the future.

Freemasonry continues to fulfill its ever increasing role in the community and may my successor be as amply rewarded and enjoy the same guidance and encouragement.

N. COULSON MALLOY, D.D.G.M.

VICTORIA DISTRICT

It has been a rich and rewarding experience to have had the privilege of being the official representative of the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in Victoria District. I shall ever be indebted to the Past Masters and Wardens of my own lodge, King Edward Lodge, No. 464, at Sunderland, for nominating me for the high office and to the brethren of Victoria District for electing me, and to you, Most Worshipful Sir, for confirming the same.

I was pleased to appoint Wor. Bro. Ralph L. Pinkham of King Edward Lodge, No. 464, as District Secretary, who capably and willingly handled the detail work that came up so frequently during the year. He accompanied me on each of my official visits and the capable manner in which he handled his duties was appreciated by the brethren. His moral support and encouragement was a great inspiration to me.

I was most fortunate in my choice of Bro. (Rev.) William Fairley of Victoria Lodge, No. 398, who graciously accepted the appointment to act as District Chaplain. He also accompanied me on all my official visits. On each occasion he gave a short but most inspiring address. On many, many occasions I was complimented on my choice of District Chaplain. To him I extend my gratitude.

Rt.Wor. Bro. G. Ken Johnson of Gothic Lodge, No. 608, Grand Registrar, who has served as Chairman of Masonic Education for many previous District Deputy Grand Masters, kindly agreed to continue in that capacity again. In spite of his many visits and travelling many miles as Grand Registrar he still found time to carry on the work of Chairman of Masonic Education in his usual capable manner. He also found time to compile a 350 word "Glossary of Pronunciation." There are three copies in each lodge in the District.

Rt. Wor. Bro. Chas. H. Heels, Secretary of Faithful Brethren Lodge, No. 77, again consented to act as Chairman of the Blood Donors' Committee, a position he has held for many years. Through his untiring efforts we have an increase of about 75% in the number of brethren giving donations. There are two more clinics to be held in June and possibly we may yet reach a 100% increase.

I visited all the lodges in my District at least once during the year. It is with pride I report that the degrees are being conferred in a highly satisfactory manner. Every effort was made to make my visits enjoyable. All courtesies were extended to me as your representative, in keeping with true Masonic dignity and tradition, with just a personal touch added to show the kindness they felt toward me.

The District Secretary found many of the minute books and Treasurers' accounts in excellent condition and all the lodges in good financial condition. Any suggestions that he found necessary to make were received most graciously.

My first official duty was to invest V. Wor. Bro. W. B. Shaw of Lorne Lodge, No. 375, with his regalia as Grand Steward. I felt honoured in being asked to perform this pleasant duty.

The highlights of our Masonic year were two Dedications and a reception by the District tendered to our Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. James N. Allan. On November 10, 1965, Rt. Wor. Bro. Donald J. Gunn, Deputy Grand Master, dedicated the new Masonic Temple of Brock Lodge, No. 354, Cannington. On April 16 Victoria District tendered a reception to the Grand Master, Most Wor. Bro. Allan, in Queen Street United Church, Lindsay, where a capacity crowd of two hundred and twenty-five brethren gathered to honour our revered Grand Master. The dinner was excellent and the Grand Master's address was both eloquent and inspiring. Following the reception Most Wor. Bro. Allan dedicated the new Masonic Temple in Lindsay, the new Masonic home of Faithful Brethren Lodge, No. 77, and Gothic Lodge, No. 608, both of Lindsay. The brethren of the three lodges are to be highly commended in erecting such stately edifices for the purposes of Masonry in their respective communities.

It was with deep regret that the brethren of the District learned early in May, of the complete loss by fire of the lodge rooms of Lorne Lodge, No. 375, Omeme, together with their Warrant and all their furnishings. It is my hope, and of all the District, that Lorne Lodge soon finds suitable accommodation and that Masonry will continue to prosper in the Omemee community.

I wish to pay tribute to the Wardens' Association for their splendid contribution to Masonry in our area. They are constantly on the alert to discover new ways and means, not only to maintain, but to increase interest in our Fraternity.

I was able to make many fraternal visits in addition to my official inspections, within and without our own District. In all cases, I was received with dignity and cordiality and with wonderful hospitality.

During the year many of the lodges held "Ladies' Nights" and Mrs. Pinkham and I, accompanied by my Secretary and his good lady, were privileged to attend these pleasant occasions. We were given a warm greeting and will be forever grateful for the kind hospitality extended to us by the brethren and their ladies.

I attended many of the Divine Services of the lodges. Our District Divine Service will be held in Sunderland United Church on June 5th when Bro. (Rev.) Fairley will deliver the sermon. We feel sure that we shall have a good attendance of the brethren.

In conclusion, I would like to thank all the Past and Present Grand Lodge Officers for their assistance and guidance given to me during the year. My term of office as D.D.G.M. has been a richly rewarding experience, the memories of which will remain with me throughout my life. It is my hope that in some way I have been able to contribute to the advancement of Masonry in Victoria District.

GORDON G. PINKHAM, D.D.G.M.

WELLINGTON DISTRICT

I am pleased to report that, as the District Deputy Grand Master, it has been an experience rich in its rewards. It has given me the privilege of meeting many fine men who have made Masonry a way of life. I was fortunate to have Wor. Bro. Roth as my Secretary; Bro. (Rev.) Branscombe as District Chaplain; Wor. Bro. Semple as Blood Donor Committee Chairman; and Wor. Bro. Hahn, Chairman of Masonic Education for the District.

Wellington District consists of 22 lodges evenly divided between larger city lodges and small suburban lodges. This situation affords a wonderful opportunity to observe Masonry at these levels. I am pleased to report that lodges, both large and small, are maintaining a high standard, and are in good financial condition.

Lodge rooms and buildings are in good condition, with three lodges in the process of building new Temples. The furniture and regalia are kept in a good state of repair, with one lodge having completely reupholstered their furniture and redecorated the lodge room. The dues structure appears to be adequate to maintain a solid financial program as indicated by the individual lodge financial statements.

The work of conferring degrees and the installation of officers are, in most cases, correct and are done in a competent and dignified manner. The smaller lodges have difficulty in maintaining a high standard because of lack of candidates. One of our city lodges, which has a large number of candidates each year, shares with the smaller lodges the brothers who are to be passed and raised. This benevolent attitude should be promoted and a directive from Grand Lodge would assist this endeavour.

Our Masonic Education program, under the direction of Wor. Bro. Hahn and his committee of five, met with a fair response. Our topics were Public Relations, the Church and Masonry, and the Do's and Don'ts of Masonry. Details of this program are in the education report submitted to R. W. Bro. Bailey. To make our educational program more meaningful and successful more continuity should be maintained both in subject matter and presentation. In this respect more use of the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association could be made as a more permanent committee of education could be maintained. This has been brought to the attention of this Association for further study.

I am also pleased to report that I was able to make an official visit to each of the 22 lodges in the District, and was received in a manner befitting the representative of the Grand Master. I was also able to attend a number of installation ceremonies and three centennial celebrations, at which the Grand Master was received. I made two fraternal visits outside Wellington District as the guest of R. W. Bro. Knowles and R. W. Bro. Hord in their respective Districts and had the pleasure of their company as my guest, along with R. W. Bro. Rosser, at two of my official visits.

Mrs. Daniells and I were guests at five Ladies' Night Banquets, and are grateful to the Masters and Wardens for their warm welcome and hospitality. I completed my year with a District Divine Service held at the New Hamburg Baptist Church under the direction of Bro. (Rev.) Branscombe.

May I express my gratitude and pleasure for having had the opportunity of serving my brethren in Masonry as D.D.G.M. of Wellington District.

F. G. DANIELLS, D.D.G.M.

WESTERN DISTRICT

The great privilege and honour conferred on me a year ago, to serve as District Deputy Grand Master of Western District, became increasingly evident as the year progressed. As I now approach the close of my term of office I wish to express to the Most Worshipful the Grand Master and the brethren of Western District my most sincere thanks for the confidence they placed in me.

In the appointment of District officers I was most fortunate when Wor. Bro. W. Leslie Sanderson agreed to become District Secretary and Brother Leslie O. Brown, District Chaplain. I deeply appreciate the faithful and untiring efforts of each of them to make the Chukuni year in Western District, as representative of the Grand Master, conform with the dignity and responsibility worthy of this high office, and to maintain the high standards set by my predecessors. To them I express special thanks.

I was quickly and assuringly made aware of the respect all brethren hold for the office which I have been privileged to represent by the full and eager support so genuinely given to me on all my visits throughout the District. The warmth and exemplary expressions of fraternalism by all the brethren, as I visited among them and their lodges, have caused me to reflect, many times over, how the Brotherhood of Man is exemplified by the Manhood of the Masonic Brother, and I thank God to have been born in a land where man is free and I could of my own accord apply to join with a fraternity that exemplifies in the manhood qualities of honour, principles and warmth toward our fellowman in such real measure as to cause within myself that urgent desire to want to become one of them.

I have repeatedly been reminded of the faithfulness of our Secretaries, our Treasurers and our Chaplains, and especially how much our respective lodges must depend on these dedicated brothers for the continuity and sound preservation of this remarkable order of men. These brethren are often taken for granted and go relatively unheralded. I became aware of the dispatch with which each Secretary in Western District responded to my enquiries, and there was no instance when I had to make a second request.

My official visits began with Chukuni Lodge, No. 660, my Mother Lodge, and my last visit was to Keewatin Lodge, No. 417. Travel was all done by car which exceeded two thousand miles, during which we met up with some of the heaviest blizzards and fog ever experienced in our District. We thank the Ontario Government for the completion of the new highway from Fort Frances to Atikokan which has made travel possible by highway in the District without having to revert to rail. On no occasion were we late for a meeting. In the instance of my visit to Rainy River, Ionic Lodge, No. 461, the roads were completely closed in and some of the brethren arrived at lodge that evening by Skidoo snowmobile. On all visits my Secretary and Chaplain travelled with me.

Wor. Bro. W. L. Sanderson informed me that all books and records of each lodge were checked and found to be in good order. During my visits all three degrees were conferred and the work was of a very high order illustrating diligent preparation of the work without exception. It was obvious that all lodges in Western District are in good and capable hands and the Worshipful Masters, their wardens and officers are to be commended on their strict adherence to procedure consistent with that set down by Grand Lodge.

Each visit was an individual and rewarding experience. To me, this opportunity to make any new Masonic friends and renew old acquaintances that I feel will be long and lasting, is truly the greatest opportunity in life that man can gain. That this opportunity was given to me, I believe as a result of the experience gained notwithstanding the honour, I have an obligation to my District and myself to continue actively in the Masonic affairs of Western District and pledge my full support and co-operation to my successor.

I have found that we have many able and experienced brethren who are willing to give of their time for Masonic Education and if I have a recommendation to make it is this; let us fully utilize the labours of research and preparation by calling on our various lodges within the District to exchange speakers on Masonic Education. We can surely broaden our fraternalism and our knowledge this way and, while we may remind ourselves that we are remote from one another, an invitation to each other specifically to come and bring a new message will immediately shorten the distance, and cause more positive action to be achieved from the vision engendered by Masonic studies.

I have been deeply challenged by this honour and express my thanks to all within the fraternity most sincerely. My only regret is that more visits could not have been made.

J. EDWIN J. FAHLGREN, D.D.G.M.

WILSON DISTRICT

During the past year it has been an honour and my privilege to observe and inspect the many facets of Masonic activity in the Wilson District as the District Deputy Grand Master. In the execution of my duties I have officially visited each of the twenty-three lodges accompanied by my District Officers, each of whom assumed responsibility for part of the duties. In addition I have made at least one other visit to nearly every lodge on a variety of occasions as well as working closely with the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association and its executive committee.

I now submit the following report of my evaluation of Masonry in this District.

The one event which most uplifted the fraternity occurred in November when the District received the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in our midst. His words of inspiration and practical advice left a lasting impression on the minds of the brethren. Coupled with the reception was the Centennial Celebrations of Walsingham Lodge, No. 174. The Community Centre in Port Rowan was the setting for this memorable Masonic gathering. The excellent attendance of Grand Lodge officers added to the dignity of the celebrations.

On June 19th the Grand Master again honoured Wilson District when he attended the 45th Annual Pilgrimage to the grave of our first Grand Master in beautiful St. John's churchyard, south of the Town of Simcoe. Wor. Bro. James A. Olley, W. M. of Norfolk Lodge, No. 10, presided at the graveside service which has been sponsored continuously by this Simcoe Lodge. I was accorded the honour of introducing the Most Worshipful the Grand Master and welcoming to Wilson District, the many visitors from near and far. M.W. Bro. James N. Allan, in his usual good form, delivered a fitting eulogy to the memory of M.W. Bro. William Mercer Wilson and called upon the Masons present to be true to the great precepts of our Order for which our first Grand Master laboured and by which he lived. R.W. Bro. Bruce M. Pearce, P.D.D.G.M., thanked the speaker and urged Grand Lodge, in the Centennial Year 1967, to sponsor this historic event and make it of prime significance to the whole of our Grand Jurisdiction.

The Blood Donor Committee, under the able chairmanship of Wor. Bro. J. L. Griffith, who was serving for the third consecutive year as its head, surpassed last year's record in the number of persons donating blood. Wor. Bro. Griffith was able to instil his own enthusiasm into the various lodge chairmen who responded accordingly. Cards from Grand Lodge, recognizing those giving blood on three or more occasions, were presented in simple ceremonies, thereby recognizing this aspect of Masonic charity.

Unable to procure a clergyman for the office of District Chaplain, I appointed Wor. Bro. J. Oliver Johnson, a member of the Session of St. Williams United Church. On each official visit the Chaplain read a few verses from the V. S. L. commented on them, and read a short prayer. The whole presentation lasted only three to four minutes, but was meant to evince to the brethren that the V. S. L. is to be read and that worship, i.e., the church, has a place in every Mason's life.

Wor. Bro. D. G. Johnson served as District Supervisor of Masonic Education, assisted by Wor. Bro. J. Evans Knowles. These brethren regularly emphasized the purpose of Masonic Education and suggested books to provide reference material. I purchased a set of slides from Grand Lodge depicting last year's Communication and these were effectively used on occasions. A copy of the Grand Lodge Booklet, "Suggestions to Officers, etc.," was placed in the hands of each W.M. on my official visit. In presenting these booklets I asked that they be available for use by all officers and kept in the lodge for rehearsals.

I worked diligently with the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association and its energetic executive committee headed by the President, V. Wor. Bro. W. Hartley Smith. Together we brought in speakers at two meetings in the persons of R.W. Bro. Bruce B. Foster, Ridgetown, and Wor. Bro. Gordon Hinge, London, each of whom delivered a forceful Masonic message. The third meeting took the form of a Lodge of Instruction at Woodstock. The Senior Wardens of the District exemplified the degree, and a panel of past and present Grand Lodge Officers under R.W. Bro. Nelson Weakley, answered questions and commented on the degree.

The District Divine Service was held at the beautiful new United Church in Delhi. The brethren of Frederick Lodge, No. 217, Delhi, under Wor. Bro. W. J. Hall, assisted in the arrangements. The Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. S. Ernest Stevenson, Highgate, was the guest preacher and Bro. (Rev.) Dr. Robert Young conducted the Service. The Service of Praise was led by the excellent Masonic Choir from Woodstock with V. Wor. Bro. Jack Bryan conducting.

It was my policy to strengthen the bonds of our fraternity beyond district boundaries and to this end I visited with D.D.G.M.'s in nine other Districts on their official inspections. In return they reciprocated the gesture of goodwill and, when this occurred in the smaller rural lodges, it gave the brethren a real lift. The same effect was felt when other Grand Lodge Officers dropped in on my inspection nights.

Other events which served to enrich and uplift Masonic life in Wilson District were annual Ladies' Nights which provided pleasant outings for Mrs. Knowles and myself whenever my schedule permitted. In this category I should mention the simple ceremony of presenting 50 Year Lapel Buttons to our senior brethren and the visit to certain of our lodges by a group of Ontario Provincial Police brethren who conferred degrees with military precision and accuracy.

As a general observation I must report that, while some lodges are temporarily discouraged by lack of candidates and consequent low attendance, yet, on the whole, the spirit of Masonry in Wilson District was never better. The ritual work is done with a care and understanding that shows genuine love for our tenets and principles. The fellowship is excellent, fostered as it is, by a double schedule of exchange visits among the lodges, arranged by the Past Masters' and Wardens' Association.

During all these activities, I have been ably, loyally and devotedly served by Wor. Bro. Fred W. Evans, my District Secretary. He has gathered all the necessary data for me, checked records of the lodges and kept my accounts for me. Together we have logged literally thousands of miles both in the District and beyond. I never went alone. Words cannot adequately express the thanks I owe him.

In conclusion, I must say a word of genuine appreciation to my other officers, to the P.D.D.G.M.'s of the District, to the Worshipful Masters of the 23 lodges and to my Mother Lodge, Walsingham, No. 174. Together you have given me the best year of my life.

W. D. KNOWLES, D.D.G.M.

WINDSOR DISTRICT

It is with a great deal of pride and a little regret that I submit this report, pride for having had the opportunity of serving as the representative of the Grand Master in Windsor District, and regret that my term of office is drawing to a close. Serving as D.D.G.M. in Windsor District has been an educational and stimulating experience. I am most grateful to the brethren of Border Cities Lodge, No. 554, for having nominated me for this high office, and to the brethren of Windsor District for electing me and submitting my nomination to the Grand Master for his confirmation.

I was very fortunate in procuring the services of Wor. Bro. John Lock, of Border Cities Lodge, to serve as District Secretary. He has been most faithful and diligent in the performance of his duties, having accompanied me on all of my "Official Visits" and he has given me a most clear and concise report as to the condition of the lodge books.

Bro. (Rev.) W. L. Langille has served us well and faithfully as District Chaplain, but due to an unfortunate illness, was unable to attend as many of our meetings as he would have liked. He is a pillar of strength in our District, and revered by all who know him.

Masonic Education in Windsor District was under the joint chairmanship of Wor. Bro. E. Loomis for the city lodges, and Wor. Bro. E. P. Stephens for the county lodges. These brethren have been most conscientious in the performance of their duties. Both are dedicated Masons and are very much interested in this phase of Masonry. I have received some constructive suggestions from them and I have forwarded these suggestions to Rt. Wor. Bro. W. K. Bailey for his consideration. They have spoken on Masonic Education, or have arranged to have some other brother speak, at most of the lodges in the District. I am greatly indebted to them for their efforts on my behalf.

Wor. Bro. J. D. W. McCracken and Wor. Bro. W. G. Haydon very kindly consented to serve as joint chairmen for our Blood Donor program and have done a most remarkable job. Although their final report has not yet been submitted, they have assured me that we will surpass our record of last year, when we were fourth highest in the Province. This is indeed very encouraging and I am quite sure that Rt. Wor. Bro. Dr. G. E. Turner, who is a member of Windsor District, will be pleased with their efforts.

I made an official visit to each of the nineteen lodges in the District, and found the work to be very efficient. There seems to be a great deal of enthusiasm among the officers of the lodges. The Worshipful Masters have supported each other throughout the entire year, by attending meetings at the various lodges in the District, and particularly by attending installations. I was able to attend seventeen of these installations and was gratified to see an average of eight Worshipful Masters present. When making my "Official Visit" I have tried to impress upon the officers and the members the duty they owe to the Order to conduct themselves with dignity while in the performance of their respective duties, to set an example for the younger members to follow, and to prepare themselves for the time when they may have the opportunity of occupying the Chair of King Solomon.

Generally speaking, the lodges in Windsor District are in good hands. I feel that I ought to mention Pelee Lodge, No. 627, which is situated on Pelee Island, and during the winter months their only means of transportation to the mainland is by airplane. The total membership of this lodge is 49 of which number 27 reside on the Island. The members of this lodge deserve a great deal of credit for the manner in which they keep Masonry alive. They have set an example for all of us to follow.

I made several visits to lodges in the United States, one of which will remain in my memory for many years. This was a visit to Mount Moriah Lodge of Anderson, Indiana, in the company of brethren of Windsor Lodge, No. 403, of Windsor. I presented the Canadian Flag to Wor. Bro. Murphy at a dinner preceding the lodge meeting. I was escorted into lodge accompanied by Bro. Thornbrough, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Indiana.

The highlight of my term of office was the visit of Most Wor. Bro. Allan to Windsor District on March 26. This was a most memorable occasion for the brethren of Windsor District. Most Wor. Bro. Allan was introduced and shook hands with most of the four hundred brethren who were present. His speech was most inspiring and he left a message that will long be remembered by all who heard it.

Mrs. Colledge and I were privileged to attend several "Ladies' Nights" and we are indebted to the brethren who extended their kind invitations.

The District Divine Service was held at the Shaar Hashomym Synagogue under the auspices of Harmony Lodge, No. 579. Over four hundred Masons attended this Service and it was a most inspiring sight to see such a large group parading to worship.

In closing, I ask the brethren of Windsor District to accord the same support and co-operation to my successor that they have to me.

ROBERT COLLEDGE, D.D.G.M.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON WARRANTS

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. H. I. Sparling, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Sparling, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Warrants begs to present this report for the past year. This Committee consists of M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, R.W. Bros. J. A. McCleave, J. W. Bradley, T. E. Greenaway, James Pounder, H. R. Butler, J. E. J. Fahlgren and the Chairman.

Applications for two warrants have been received and this is most gratifying to all concerned. Careful examination has been made of the petitions, books and records of these two Lodges. They have been found in order and neatly kept. We therefore, recommend that warrants be issued to the following lodges.

1. Willowdale Lodge, U.D. Thornhill, instituted June 28, 1965, to be numbered 717 and placed in Toronto District "6."

2. Twin Lakes Lodge, U.D. Orillia, instituted March 25, 1966, to be numbered 718 and placed in Georgian District.

Your Committee further recommends that the dispensation granted Otisippi Lodge U.D. of Sarnia, instituted June 16, 1966, be continued for another year.

Records are extremely important; therefore the best record books that any lodge can procure are necessary. Your Committee strongly urges that a new lodge obtain the following record books;

- (a) A lodge membership register
- (b) A Tyler's register
- (c) An account book

The office of Grand Lodge is your office and for your use and information. The Grand Secretary and his staff are most willing and indeed anxious to assist in any way possible. They can give valuable assistance and guidance to all lodges regarding the records which should necessarily be kept.

Each year this Committee tries to impress on all lodges the importance of keeping their records in proper order and storing them in fire proof storage, as we all should realize that the original records cannot be replaced if destroyed by fire or improper "house-keeping."

On behalf of Grand Lodge, the Committee wishes to congratulate our two new lodges and welcomes them to this Grand Lodge. May the rays of Heaven spread their benign influence upon them, and may their light in Masonry forever shine.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

H. I. SPARLING, Chairman.

Following some introductory remarks by M.W. Bro. T. H. Simpson, regarding his very close associations with the Leather family, he moved, seconded by M.W. Bro. R. W. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. E. W. Nancekivell, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Nancekivell, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario:

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my pleasure, on behalf of the Committee, to present this report on Benevolence for 1965-6 to the One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. To be benevolent may be interpreted from the Latin as literally meaning to "wish well", and it is the purpose and function of this Committee not only to wish the recipients of our aid well, but to do something concrete about their well-being and this, to the utmost of our ability, we have endeavoured to do.

The Committee on Benevolence met at our Grand Lodge Memorial Building in Hamilton on Friday evening and Saturday morning, June 10th and 11th. The surroundings in this beautiful and well-appointed edifice are most conducive to serious and concentrated effort and each application was carefully and generously considered in the light of the detailed information provided by our diligent Supervisor of Benevolence, R.Wor. Bro. George J. McQueen. There were 216 applications processed, of which 46 were new cases, a slight increase in number from last year. It was a pleasure to have with us an active member of the Committee, our Deputy Grand Master, R.Wor. Bro. D. J. Gunn, the past Chairman, and to have lunch on Saturday noon in the Scottish Rite Club with M.Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleven, P.G.M.

At the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge in July, 1965, grants authorized and approved were for:— $49,625.00
Less Cancellations and Refunds$ 3,696.07

NET $45,928.93

Interim Grants made during the year$ 4,175.00

Total Grants paid$50,103.93

This year, since the date of the end of the fiscal year was moved ahead one month to the 30th of April, the benevolent grants during May will be considered in the 1966-67 grants—these amounted to — $ 8,435.00

Net Grants (30th April) $41,668.93

There were also Emergency Grants made for brethren and their families in urgent situations for $369.24. (It is self-evident that with the Chairman resident in Hamilton, it facilitates meeting with the Supervisor of Benevolence to deal with Interim and Emergency Grants.) After due consideration, it is recommended that the sum of $55,000.00 be provided for benevolence in 1966-67.

It was felt that it might be interesting to the brethren to compare the statistics for the last three years with our present figures as outlined in the following table:—

Total Grants paid	$57,525.00	$56,390.00	$56,166.00	$50,103.93 $41,668.93 (as of 30 April— 11 months)
Emergency Grants	$ 401.22	$ 547.22	$ 255.95	$ 369.24
No. of applications	248	230	214	216
New applications	46	35	36	46

As has been pointed out in previous reports, the general decline in grants for Benevolence is largely due to accelerated effort on behalf of Government to help the less fortunate, i.e. increased size and scope of pensions and more low cost accommodation provided for our Senior Citizens. This year has been added O.M.S.I.P., (the Ontario Medical Services Insurance Plan), in which the premium is paid fully by the Ontario Government for those on various pensions, 50% for a single person with taxable income of $500.00 or less, 50% for a family of 2 with taxable income of $1,000.00 or less, and 60% for a family of 3 or more with taxable income of $1,300.00 or less, thus benefiting those on so-called "Near Relief".

We also have in action this year, The Masonic Foundation of Ontario under the distinguished Chairmanship of M.Wor. Bro. R. W. Treleven. This Foundation is doing most valuable work in providing bursaries (for Mason and Non-Mason alike) and is thus helping to relieve the Committee on Benevolence of some of its responsibilities in the Field of Education, i.e. providing funds for the children of brethren to continue their education, if they are worthy students and financial limitations are barring their progress.

However, even though the number of dollars granted for benevolence is decreasing year by year, let us not delude ourselves into thinking that the benevolent aid granted by Grand Lodge is any the less vital and important to the individual recipient. The case histories provided by the Supervisor of Benevolence are a revelation to the Committee members, with the details of ill-health, grief, and pure bad luck entailed, and it is heart-warming to feel that we are doing something to alleviate the problems involved with these less fortunate brethren and their families.

Benevolence does not just encompass financial aid alone. It also includes a kindly interest in the lives and activities of those involved, even an occasional visit from a brother or brethren to relieve the monotony which must creep into the lives of the elderly, particularly. Benevolence includes help and advice in how to make the most of Government assistance provided for such people, in obtaining employment for those members of the family able to work and even Vocational Guidance for the young. Benevolence means giving a blood donation to help restore someone to physical health. Benevolence, on the part of the Committee, includes striving to have the debts of some of our recipients reduced in amount—i.e. lawyers' fees, undertakers' charges and also doctors' bills (even though there are three Doctors on the Committee). Every lodge should have a Benevolent Committee (and most of them do), but every member of every lodge should have a part in Benevolence.

Although most applications for Benevolence are well filled out and represent considerable time and effort in completing them, it again becomes necessary to remind some Lodge Secretaries to be sure to include all pertinent details in the applications (even though the applicant may be reticent to reveal financial circumstances to them). Well-completed forms obviate the necessity of further correspondence requesting more information, and enable the Committee to come to a just and reasonable decision regarding the need for assistance.

Bequests to the Memorial Fund from the estate of our late Bro. John W. Stephenson of $3,000.00, and donations from the Senior Wardens' Association of Toronto District "1" of $26.48, and from Georgian D.D.G.M. Fund of $26.27 are gratefully acknowledged.

Too much praise cannot be accorded to our Supervisor of Benevolence, Rt. Wor. Bro. George J. McQueen, who exemplifies the highest principles of benevolent Masonry as he visits many of the brethren and their families, compiling detailed histories of their problems, financial and otherwise, and initiating volumes of correspondence with his most appreciated contacts in the various Masonic Districts. He is to be most highly commended for his diligence, patient understanding and limitless interest in our applicants for benevolence.

The Committee again recommends continuing membership in the International Relief Association. It is an honour to this Grand Jurisdiction, that our distinguished Past Grand Master, M.Wor. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, is now President of this organization.

May I say that your Committee Members, representing many different occupations and many Masonic districts, both urban and rural, constitute a conscientious, sympathetic and harmonious group with which it is a joy to work. I am sure that each of them would wish me to say that he deems it a pleasure and a privilege to participate in and implement the benevolent activities of Grand Lodge, which form such a vital and important function of our Great Fraternity.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

ERIC W. NANCEKIVELL,
Chairman.

REPORT OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. Geo. T. Evans, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Evans, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I beg to present the ninth annual report of the Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings.

In 1958 M.W. Bro. Harry L. Martyn, the then Grand Master, recommended that a committee be set up to formulate requirements and regulations to govern the erection of new Masonic Temple, or the remodelling of existing ones.

Since its inception, our Committee has examined plans for 139 lodges which have been built, are being built, or are to be altered or added to.

CONTEMPLATED WORK

For the purpose of informing incoming Masters and District Deputies, we think it would be worth while to re-state the purpose and procedure of this Committee.

Our particular aim is to provide for the safety, comfort and convenience of the brethren. We give advice and assistance in the planning of the lodge rooms and furnish detailed instructions regarding fire escapes, stairs, toilet rooms, furnace rooms, lighting, ventilating and other matters pertaining to the construction of the building.

We have prepared bulletins outlining the procedure to be followed in initiating and carrying through a building scheme and detailing the various building and electrical requirements. We also have diagram plans for the guidance of the lodge showing typical layouts of comparatively small buildings of various sizes. These bulletins and diagrams can be had, free of charge, on application to the Grand Secretary.

The Lodge Building Bulletins which we furnish are as follows:

L.B.2—dealing with the planning and construction of the building.

L.B.3—dealing with the Procedure to be followed by building committees, and outlining the various steps to be taken from the appointing of the initial committee on planning down through the securing of the property, financing, the submission of plans, the securing of tenders and final approval.

L.B.4—our most recent bulletin—deals with electrical work and is accompanied by a diagram plan showing all the necessary outlets for general lighting, altar lights, Master and Wardens lights, exit lights, and other special lights required in a properly equipped lodge room.

PURCHASE OF BUILDINGS

We would strongly urge that any lodge contemplating the purchase of a building for the purpose of having it remodelled for Masonic purposes, should first have sketch plans prepared of the building, including a cross-section showing ceiling heights, also a plot plan of the property accompanied by snapshots of all sides of the building. Send these to the Grand Secretary who will pass them on to our Advisory Committee on Lodge Buildings. We will check the plans and advise the lodge whether or not the building can be altered to comply with the requirements of Grand Lodge. Do this before committing the lodge to the purchase of the property. Some lodges have found themselves in difficulties by purchasing buildings before getting the opinion of our Committee.

FIRE SAFETY

We again urge District Deputies, Masters, lodge officers and members to give the matter of fire safety their close scrutiny. Many lodges have taken steps to provide against the hazards of fire but there are still far too many of our Temples which are not fire safe.

Some of the defects are: inside exit stairs of wood, escape ropes hanging from windows, stairs without handrails, furnace rooms lacking properly protected walls and ceilings, defective electric wiring, etc. Write to the Grand Secretary asking for the bulletin on Fire Regulations.

We congratulate the many lodges on their efforts to improve their Temples and wish them much pleasure and satisfaction in their endeavours.

We solicit inquiries from all lodges contemplating building and assure them of our constant desire to offer them every assistance. Needless to say, there is no charge for such services.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

GEO. T. EVANS,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL DEAD

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. J. Talman, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Talman, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Each year we, most fittingly, take time from the discussion of our current business and future plans to record our respects to, and appreciation of, those of our brethren who have gone, as Hamlet has it, to —

The undiscover'd country, from whose bourn
No traveller returns.

The loss is inevitable and nothing is more certain than the fact that each of us in our turn, whether it be sooner or later, will have our names added to the roll of those who have preceded us. As John Donne, the eminent English divine and poet, wrote more than three hundred years ago —

Never send to know for whom the bell tolls: It tolls for thee.

Our knowledge of the inevitability of death, however, does not mean that we cannot have regrets. We should be callous indeed if we lost our feelings of sympathy, or paid our respects in a perfunctory manner, owing to our inability to control the event.

Your Committee expresses the hope that this all too small gesture of respect and appreciation will always hold the place it now does in our deliberations as a Grand Lodge and in our own hearts as individuals.

Let us for a moment think of those brethren whom we have lost since our last Annual Communication as we record the names of the following past officers of this Grand Lodge who have passed to the Grand Lodge Above.

These Tablet Pages

are inscribed and fraternally dedicated

Our Departed Brethren

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PRINTING AND SUPPLIES

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. B. Sainsbury, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Sainsbury, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario:

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Printing and Supplies, composed of Rt. Wor. Bros. D. P. Low, J. A. Harris, B. J. Steck and the Chairman, begs leave to submit the report on expenditures coming under its jurisdiction for the eleven months ended April 30th, 1966, as follows:

Constitutions for resale	$ 3,394.92
M. M. Certificates	2,137.97
Proceedings and postage	4,727.40
Grand Lodge Bulletins (3 issues and postage)	4,519.55
Printed forms, circulars, records, office stationery and supplies	1,781.17
Syllabus for Masonic Education (2 issues)	254.23
Fraternal Reviews, (2,900)	1,136.31
Preliminary Reports (3,500)	1,323.46
	$19,275.01

With the change in the fiscal year-end to April 30th as authorized at the Grand Lodge Annual Communication in 1965, the period under review cannot be compared exactly with the preceding year although the expenditures noted usually represent bulk orders and form a fair basis for comparison. The quantity of M. M. Certificates purchased, as recorded above, is estimated to last five years. Increased demand for Constitutions for resale raised this item by $650, but other increases are moderate and mostly represent higher printing costs. The decrease of $1,550 in the amount expended for stationery and supplies is due in part to the eleven month fiscal period and to the non-recurring cost of rebinding old membership registers last year. The resulting net increase of $1,662 is considered reasonable under the circumstances.

Your Committee appreciates the kind co-operation of the various Chairmen in preparing and submitting their annual reports to meet an earlier deadline this year.

The Grand Secretary and his staff have, as usual, been ready to assist at all times and merit our cordial thanks.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

JOHN B. SAINSBURY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON GRIEVANCES AND APPEALS

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. M. C. Hooper, Chairman. On Motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Hooper, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Grievances and Appeals submits its report in the following parts:

1. DENTONIA LODGE, No. 651, versus BRO. WILLIAM THOMAS ORR, E.A.

The report of previous proceedings in this case appears in the Proceedings of 1965 at p. 218.

The accused was convicted in Magistrate's Court under the Criminal Code, Sec. 177-d, of unlawfully registering bets and was sentenced to a term in gaol and further fined $600.00 or a further consecutive term.

At a trial in Dentonia Lodge the brethren voted for acquittal without having received any evidence which could affect the conviction to which it appears that Bro. Orr had pleaded guilty. The accused brother did not attend the trial.

Your Committee was of the opinion that the brethren of Dentonia Lodge had misconstrued the Rule and that the public crime of which Bro. Orr had been convicted was an offence under Rule 1(p.) and recommended his suspension and eventual expulsion.

Grand Lodge adopting the ruling and recommendation of this Committee ordered immediate suspension and directed that Bro. Orr be notified to appear at this Annual Communication to show cause why he should not be expelled.

He has been so notified. He has not appeared.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that Bro. William Thomas Orr be expelled.

2. WILLIAMSBURG LODGE, No. 480, versus BRO. DOUGLAS H. DEEKS.

The facts of this case are reported in the Proceedings of Grand Lodge for the 1965 Annual Communication at p. 219.

Bro. Deeks, having made contemptuous and defiant remarks with respect to Masonry in open lodge, was suspended indefinitely by his Lodge. The case was reviewed by your Committee and, at the Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge in 1965 on its recommendation confirmed by the Board of General Purposes, Grand Lodge directed that Bro. Deeks be notified to appear at this Annual Communication to show cause why he should not be expelled.

He has been so notified. He has not appeared.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that Bro. Douglas H. Deeks be expelled.

3. PORT ARTHUR LODGE, No. 499, versus BRO. WILLIAM PAYNTER.

This case was considered by Grand Lodge at the Annual Communication of 1965 and is reported at p. 217 of the Proceedings.

Notwithstanding the conviction of Bro. Paynter in Magistrate's Court under the Criminal Code and his suspension by the Lodge your Committee, on receiving representations on his behalf, recommended that the case be permitted to stand until this Annual Communication for further consideration. The Lodge was so notified in the hope that the situation might be further clarified at this time. No further representations have been received and your Committee recommends that the indefinite suspension be continued for another year until the next Annual Communication and reviewed at that time.

4. ST. JOHN'S LODGE, No. 35, CAYUGA, versus EDWARD A. OATES.

A charge of unmasonic conduct under Rule 1(c) (g) (l) and (s) was laid in the Lodge against Bro. Edward A. Oates. The charges were all based on the one allegation that the accused brother had formed an adulterous association with the wife of the brother who laid the charge and had taken up residence with her in another community. The charges were accepted by the Lodge and, on notice to the accused, a trial was duly held in October, 1965. The accused wrote a letter to the Secretary of the Lodge in which he pleaded guilty to the charge under Rule 1(s). He did not attend the trial though duly notified thereof. In addition to the plea of the accused the Lodge heard the evidence of the complainant that the accused and the wife of the complainant had frankly admitted to him their previous adultery and their intention to take up residence together. The Lodge found the accused guilty under all four charges and ordered him to be suspended.

Your Committee concurs in the finding of guilt under Rule 1(s) — adultery — by the Lodge and considers it unnecessary to consider the charges as they relate to Rule 1(c) (g) and (l). It accordingly recommends that Bro. Edward A. Oates be notified to appear at the next Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled and that in the meantime his suspension be continued.

5. ST. MARK'S LODGE, No. 94, versus BRO. LAWRENCE G. SPEERS.

A charge was laid in St. Marks Lodge, No. 94, under Rule 1(p) against W. Bro. Lawrence Garnet Speers. W. Bro. Speers, after pleading guilty, had been convicted in Magistrate's Court in London, Ontario, on four charges of defrauding banks of sums in excess of $5,000.00 contrary to Section 323 of the Criminal Code, and was sentenced to concurrent terms of 12 months in jail on each charge.

The conviction took place in July, 1965. The charge was laid in the Lodge and read at the Regular meeting on November 9, 1965. On notice to the accused, which he acknowledged by letter, a trial was held in the Lodge on January 11, 1966, whereat W. Bro. Speers was found guilty and was suspended by the Lodge for a period of two years, effective January 12, 1966.

Your Committee has reviewed the facts of this case including reports in the press and letters written by the accused to his Lodge. The fact that the offence was committed against several banks in four different communities in each case by a studied series of transactions suggests to your Committee that the offences are serious and entirely inconsistent with the character of a Mason. The Committee agrees in the finding of guilt by the Lodge but finds the sentence of two years suspension inadequate and recommends that Bro. Speers be notified to appear at the next Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled and that in the meantime he stands suspended.

6. MIMOSA LODGE, No. 576, versus BRO. FREDERICK JAMES ESSON.

A charge of unmasonic conduct under Rule 1(s) was laid against Bro. Frederick James Esson and was presented to Mimosa Lodge on January 20, 1966. A trial was held in the Lodge on March 17, 1966, when the accused, though duly notified, did not attend. Documentary evidence was adduced showing that in an action in the Supreme Court of Ontario, heard in June, 1945, the marriage of Frederick James Esson with Audrey Ellen Esson had been dissolved by reason of the adultery of the said Frederick James Esson, and also that a marriage, said to have been solemnized between the said Frederick James Esson and one Mary Verdon Clow in Victoria, B.C. in May, 1944, had been the subject of a further decree nisi in the Supreme Court of Ontario on February 8, 1966. In the latter action the adultery of the said Frederick James Esson was also the basis of the judgment. The Lodge found the accused guilty of a Masonic offence as charged and suspended him indefinitely, Without making any additional inferences from the apparent discrepancies in the dates quoted, your Committee concurs in the finding of guilt by the Lodge and the suspension of Bro. Esson and recommends that Bro. Esson be notified to appear at the next Annual Communication of Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled, and that in the meantime his suspension be continued.

7. CONNAUGHT LODGE, No. 511, and BRO. DOUGLAS P. TAYLOR.

It was brought to the attention of the Grand Master that Bro. Douglas P. Taylor had pleaded guilty in Magistrate's Court in Fort William to a charge of indecent assault upon an eleven year old girl and that the presiding Magistrate had, with some reluctance, but in the interests of the Taylor family, imposed a two year suspended sentence. The Grand Master requested the Lodge to investigate the matter and a strong committee of Connaught Lodge made an investigation and confirmed the identity of the accused and the facts of the trial and conviction in a report to the Grand Master.

On receiving the report the Grand Master, under his prerogative as conferred by Sec. 53 of the Constitution of Grand Lodge, summarily suspended Bro. Taylor until this Annual Communication.

Your Committee has received the report of the Committee of Connaught Lodge and considers that, according to previous practice, it can properly accept the action of the Magistrate's Court as a sufficient finding of guilt of a Masonic offence under Rule 1(p) Respecting Trials. Your Committee also recognizes the competent action of the Grand Master in suspending Bro. Taylor until this Annual Communication and finds no need for trial by the Lodge or a Commission of Grand Lodge in these circumstances.

Your Committee recommends that Bro. Douglas P. Taylor be notified to attend at the next Annual Communication of Grand Lodge to show cause why he should not be expelled and that in the meantime suspension be continued.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

M. CLEEVE HOOPER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. K. Bailey, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Bailey, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. and A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee which was appointed in July, 1965 to undertake the task of providing leadership and guidance in the field of Masonic information, study and education is pleased to present its report to the One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

The custom of preparing and distributing a syllabus of instruction to provide stimulation and guidance for a study of the publication of Grand Lodge Bulletins namely History of Freemasonry in Canada, Manual for Masonic Instructors and Students. Proceedings of Grand Lodge and Book of Constitution has been continued. Two members of our Committee, R.W. Bro. L. J. Hewitt and R.W. Bro. A. G. Edmunds, were responsible for preparing the fall and winter issues. We are indebted to the Grand Secretary and his staff for printing and distribution.

It is frequently the case that brethren who have been requested to assume the posts of Lodge and District Chairmen are quite unfamiliar with the task assigned to them and are left to their own devices. In an endeavour to be of specific assistance, R.W. Bro. G. A. Revell, a former member of this Committee, was prevailed upon to prepare some suggestions to the questions which are uppermost in the minds of these brethren.

Where do I start?

Where do I get material?

How do I get others to help?

Those chairmen who were prepared to study this dissertation and to act on the many practical details undoubtedly have been extensively serviceable to their brethren and to Freemasonry during this past year.

Through the co-operation of R.W. Bro. D. W. McKerracher, D.D.G.M. of Toronto District "2", a booklet which he had prepared for circulation to the brethren in his District was made available to our Committee for distribution to all our Lodges. Actually the material in this booklet consists of excerpts from bulletins of the past five years. This publication drew much favourable commendation from the brethren due to the careful selection of the material and the multilithed format of the booklet.

The last bulletin was of an unusual nature. It was intended to encourage Masons to look about them and to discover that the lessons of Freemasonry are so often to be found in the fields of music, art and literature. We are indebted to the great musician, Brother Wolfgang Mozart, for a great many musical compositions on and about Freemasonry in his short lifetime of thirty-five years. His opera, "The Magic Flute", is an allegory on Freemasonry and, while treasured by all music lovers, it has an especial appeal and significance to the Mason. The words of a tribute paid to him at the memorial services in his Mother Lodge speak eloquently of his contribution to his fellow men.

"He was able by his talents to help his brethren".

There have been requests made to the Committee to reproduce this bulletin, amplified and illustrated by excerpts from the opera, on a tape recording for loan to the Lodges.

At the Grand Lodge Communication last July arrangements were made to take pictures in colour of people and events prior to the opening of Grand Lodge. Eighteen D.D.G.M's availed themselves of the opportunity to purchase sets of these slides for loan throughout their districts.

For the past several years Lodges in the Toronto Districts have been using a booklet "Suggestions to Lodge Officers". This publication has much information on the mechanics of the ritual for the Lodge Officers as well as some delineation of the respective duties of these officers. From the reception accorded this publication by the District Deputy Grand Masters and the Officers of their Lodges it would appear that it has been one of the fruitful efforts of this Committee. This Committee has filled requests from twenty District Deputy Grand Masters for 1,200 booklets.

The work of this Committee has been supplemented and reinforced through the group meetings of M.W. Bro. H. L. Martyn, Custodian of the Work, with the District Deputy Grand Masters, and through the Lodges of Instruction which he has conducted in several Districts. The Committee is most grateful to the District Supervisors who, with the co-operation of their District Deputy Grand Masters, have held District and/or regional meetings. Many novel and interesting programmes have been reported to this Committee. We propose to make them available to other Districts on request.

It is not to be expected that the material distributed by this Committee has been of equal interest and will be used by all the Lodges. However, reports indicate that there is general acceptance of the articles. It can only be through close co-operation between the Worshipful Masters and the Lodge Chairmen in their respective Lodges that a measure of success can be achieved in any programmes designed to provide Masonic enlightenment for the brethren. In turn there ought to be liaison or consultation within the District between the District Supervisors and Lodge Chairmen. Indeed, much could be gained by an extension of this consultation between Supervisors in neighbouring Districts.

The District Deputy Grand Masters have reported that with very few exceptions no provision is made for the instruction of the Wardens and/or Deacons leading to the administration of a Lodge. It has been said that organizations produce in proportion to the ability and effectiveness of their leaders. Certainly this is true of our Masonic Lodges. If, during the normal course of eight years of office culminating in two years as Warden, we do not provide our officers with every opportunity of becoming able in the management of the work and well-skilled in the ancient charges, regulations and landmarks, we cannot entirely hold them responsible for ineffective leadership. In turn officers have an obligation to make the necessary advancement in Masonic knowledge if they are to merit the privilege and responsibility of Worshipful Master.

In the Masonic Order, whether we realize it or not, we are engaged in Big Business. For instance, in the Province of Ontario, we have a major corporation, the Grand Lodge, guided and directed by a Grand Master, who is assisted by a minimum of 120 elected and/or appointed Grand Lodge Officers. This corporation has some 630 constituent bodies of approximately 130,00 workers, if we choose to use that term, grouped into 38 divisions, each presided over by a District Deputy Grand Master. In turn there are 630 executive officers supported by over 6,000 colleagues. There are few business organizations in Ontario, in fact in Canada, that have as many subsidiaries, employees and executive officers.

The fact remains that although our Grand Lodge is one of the largest users of administrative personnel, over 6,000 with a yearly infusion of 10 - 12 per cent of that number, we provide the least amount of training and instruction for our Leaders. If by some alchemy we could provide capsules of knowledge and experience for our officers as they progress from chair to chair by which they would acquire the necessary vitamins of initiative, enthusiasm, ingenuity, good judgement, memory and industry we could be well on the way of solving most of the administrative problems in our Lodges.

We urgently need Effective and Stout-hearted Leadership in our Lodges — leadership that will keep our Lodges in that high standard of ritual, that high standard of administrative level, that high standard of moral values where they rightly belong if we are to compete successfully for the interest, time and talents of our brethren.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

W. K. BAILEY, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. W. M. Gordon, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Gordon, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. and A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

As a humble Mason, it gives me a sense of distinction, as Chairman and on behalf of the Library Committee of Grand Lodge, to present to you this 34th Annual Report, and, as well at this time, to express to you our thanks for the opportunity of serving you and of sharing again in the dissemination of Masonic learning throughout the Grand Jurisdiction through another successful year in the operation of your Library.

Reports of the Library Committee, above others perhaps, of the Committees of Grand Lodge, have an inherent tendency over the years to become stereotyped in that the same approach and similar fields of Library activity are usually covered. It is, therefore, partly on this ground but, as well, to emphasize certain essential features of a library, Masonic or otherwise, that we depart this year from custom and in the substance of our Report. It was felt we would desire to point out the place of libraries in general in the grand scheme of things, particularly from the Masonic point of view.

In reviewing with the members of Grand Lodge the place of good books and the function of a well-stocked library, it is hardly necessary to remind you that reading good books in the time available to us in a busy life for such purpose is not something to be indulged in as a casual luxury. This is especially so in Masonry. It is a necessity for anyone who intends to give his Masonic life and work a touch of that quality that should characterize all Masons — that he should occasionally pay a thoughtful visit to the intellectual caboose — the Library — that forms a part of the Masonic train. Here, as he quietly peruses and digests the history and philosophy of Masonry, he will come again to realize that the most real wealth is not what we put into our piggy banks, but what we develop in our heads. The tomes you will find instruct us without anger, without threats and without harsh discipline. No sneers will be cast from a book at your ignorance, nor will any grumble be heard at your mistakes. Your Library Committee ask only that you spend some time in the company of greatness — the books we offer — so that you may absorb some of the attributes of greatness. We suggest to you that you do not read a book for the book's sake, but for your own. You may read because in this high-pressure life of ours, studded as it is with problems and emergencies, you find you need periods of relief afforded by the company of a good book in the cloistered recesses of your Library, and yet still recognize, too, that peace of mind does not mean numbness of mind.

You may read because opportunity of attending institutions of higher learning was not afforded you early in life and our Library, you find, gives you, in some measure at least, the chances to obtain that something you had earlier missed.

You may read because your daily task is routine — in the nature of an assembly line — and books give you a feeling of mental exhilaration — a feeling of depth of life.

You may read because, as a Mason, you desire to understand more thoroughly some of the great principles and precepts of our Order as set forth in the Charges and work of the Ritual, and you find that a study of the best thinking of Masonic students of the past may be of use in the present.

Whatever may be the dominant personal reason that impels your reading, you will discover, if you have not already done so, that good reading gives knowledge, creative power, satisfaction as well as relaxation. Good reading redeems your mind from the commonplace and will cultivate your mind by calling its faculties into fuller exercise.

"A classic" Mark Twain said, "is something that everybody wants to have read and nobody wants to read." The word "classic" applied to books simply means what has worn best down through the years. The consent of the ages has marked them out for all time. Reading the classics in Masonry or in any other subject is not to worship at the shrine of antiquity.

And to bring the Library closer to you has been the subject of a good deal of consideration by your Committee. The result is that it has been determined that commencing in the ensuing Grand Lodge year of 1966-1967 a representative of the Library Committee will be appointed in each of the Masonry Districts comprising the Grand Jurisdiction. This District Chairman will be in touch with the Lodges in his District as well as in touch with the Library, so that advice can be given without delay on the use of the facilities of the Library. In this way, too, a check can be kept on the books outstanding on the Library records.

The Librarian reports the records show that, during the year just drawing to a close, there have been some 608 visitors to the Library, of whom about one-third were from the seven Toronto Districts. There are some 157 books out on loan from the Library at the present time, 114 thereof in the Toronto District.

The Library Committee is grateful to the Rt. Wor. Bro. A. E. MacGregor for his untiring zeal and assiduous attention to the operation of the Library. His presence in the Library on 283 days in the last year is in itself an attendance record that demands from us all a deep and abiding debt of gratitude.

In closing this Report, may we say — the Library is for your use — and it is the hope of your Committee that, with the organized contact with the Masonic membership now in contemplation, becoming effective throughout the Grand Jurisdiction, even greater use of the Library facilities will be made, with greater benefits accruing therefrom to the fraternity in general.

To plagiarize the poet Wordsworth, let us “Come forth into the light of things — Let the Library be your teacher.”

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

WILLARD M. GORDON, Chairman.

REPORT OF BLOOD DONORS' COMMITTEE

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. G. E. Turner, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Turner, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my privilege once again to present the Report of the Blood Donors' Committee for the year 1965-1966.

Your Committee wishes to announce with sincerest regrets, the loss of one of the most loyal and faithful members in the death of W. Bro. Robert Currie of Frontenac District, who passed on to the Grand Lodge Above on March 23rd. He had laboured long and diligently on this Committee and will be greatly missed.

During the year, with the generous support of M.W. Bro. E. G. Dixon, Grand Secretary, a wallet sized blood donor card has been developed, which has been distributed to any donor who has given three or more donations and who expresses a desire to have a card. This project has received a commendable response by the members of our Grand Jurisdiction, and we most sincerely hope that every eligible donor will apply for a card from the Chairman of his district.

Again, this year, your Committee has received tremendous support from the Ontario Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society. We wish to extend our sincere thanks to them and do hope for continued support during the ensuing years. The various area directors have kindly kept our District Chairmen informed of the time and plan of clinics.

I wish, in passing, to mention one member of our Grand Jurisdiction in the person of Bro. Stanley Duke, a brother of Temple Lodge, No. 296, St. Catharines, who has given 150 donations. He was mentioned in the St. Catharine's Standard and also in our Bulletin. The congratulations and sincere thanks of this Committee is extended to Bro. Duke. Your Committee also wishes to congratulate W. Bro. Ed. Madgett of King Hiram Lodge, No. 566, Toronto District 1, who has made his 70th donation and Bro. John Dunbar of Tuscan Lodge, No. 195, London, who has donated 90 times. We sincerely thank them and wish them many years of good health.

There has been an increase in blood donors and the number this year stands at 9383 which is an increase of 1300 over last year. Following is a list of the districts with the number of donors reported from each district compared with last year.

Again this year, a great deal of interest and enthusiasm have been displayed by the District Deputy Grand Masters, each of whom promptly submitted the name and address of his District Blood Donor Chairman. My sincere thanks is extended to each one and I trust that he has enjoyed his year as the representative of our Grand Master.

We wish to note that fourteen of the Chairmen from last year again agreed to carry on their splendid work this year and we extend to them our appreciation for their zeal and fidelity. We do hope that as many Chairmen as possible will see fit to continue on next year. Many of the Chairmen have contributed very sound suggestions, which we will try to incorporate in our programme next year. There was an increase in donors in 23 districts, a decrease in 9 districts and no report was received from 4 districts.

Hamilton "A" District, under the Chairmanship of W.Bro. David Weaver, reported the largest number of donors, 712. Bro. Weaver is to be congratulated on carrying on the great work which for years was done by W.Bro. Fred Scott. Following close behind was Nipissing West District which, under the Chairmanship of W.Bro. W. J. C. Noble, gave 688 donations. The largest increases came from Toronto District 1, under W.Bro. Hartley Thompson, Toronto 2, under W.Bro. Edward Bruce, Hamilton "B" District, under W. Bro. John Hayworth and Toronto District 5, under W.Bro. W. F. Hill. The Committee wishes to thank these brethren for the great work they are doing in this jurisdiction and hopes they will continue to contribute their time and energy to this work. Niagara "A" District again reported a large number of donors under the leadership of W. Bro. C. R. Buss, who has served faithfully for the past six or more years. We wish to commend him for his years of faithful service.

I would like to take this opportunity of mentioning again those brethren, who for years have supported this great effort as Chairmen of their respective districts: W. Bro. George E. McCutcheon of Eastern District; W. Bro. W. J. M. Fuller of London District; W. Bro. C. R. Buss of Niagara "A" District; W. Bro. W. J. C. Noble of Nipissing West District; Rt.W. Bro. J. C. Krauter of North Huron District; Bro. J. C. Smith of Peterborough District; W. Bro. C. W. Barnett of Prince Edward District; Rt.W. Bro. Clare Reith of South Huron District; W. Bro. Edward Bruce of Toronto District 2; W. Bro. Herbert Claridge of Toronto Dist. 4; W. Bro. John Thistle of Toronto Dist. 7; Rt.W. Bro. Chas. H. Heels of Victoria District; and last but by no means least, W. Bro. J. L. Griffiths of Wilson District. These men have contributed greatly to any success which this programme may have enjoyed and we certainly owe them a great debt of gratitude.

I extend my personal thanks to all the Chairmen who have given so much of their time and effort to this great and glorious cause. I am sure they will derive some satisfaction from a job well done.

Finally, our appreciation is extended to the Grand Secretary and his staff for the support given us.

This year we have had an exceptional group of Chairmen, who have unselfishly given a great deal of their time to the functions of this Committee. They consistently urged all donors to report their donations and also those of their families. There appears to be some degree of apathy and reluctance among the brethren to co-operate in reporting to their lodge or District Chairmen. I can only once more urge all brethren to assist us by donating blood and promptly reporting the donations.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

GEORGE E. TURNER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF MASONRY

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. B. B. Foster, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Foster, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A. F. and A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my privilege, on behalf of the Committee, to present the Report on the Condition of Masonry in this Grand Jurisdiction at this One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

To be the representative of the M.W. the Grand Master requires leadership qualities, powers of observation, patience and dedication to duty as well as the ability to teach and to point out, in a most gentle manner, any necessary corrections or improvements. The enthusiasm with which all the D.D.G.M.'s were received would indicate that they were excellent representatives and that their efforts were appreciated by the membership. Such enthusiasm speaks volumes for the guidance we are receiving from all those charged with leadership in the Craft. In addition, all reports state, with appreciation, that the D.D.G.M.s have received excellent support rendered by the District Chaplains, Supervisors of Masonic Education, District Secretaries, and Chairmen of Blood Donors' Committees. We are fortunate indeed to have had such leadership. Another indication of dedication to duty is shown in the Report of the D.D.G.M. of Algoma, wherein he states he has travelled over 13,000 miles in making 27 visits during the past year. Surely this is a record for this jurisdiction.

Most reports, we are pleased to note, make appreciative reference to the work of the lodge secretary and treasurer. The keeping of accurate records will always prevent dissatisfaction among the members and be useful as a historical source. We are indeed fortunate that we have a group of dedicated Brethren who render such service to the several lodges.

Most districts are fortunate in having active Past Masters' and Wardens' Associations. Many projects are initiated and completed by the experienced member of these associations. The projects mentioned in the reports this year include interlodge visits, Ladies' Nights, Masonic Education, Divine Services, and receptions for the Grand Master. Such activity must strengthen the body of Masonry and keep it ready and able to continue its work.

Lodge dedications continue to be interesting occasions when we can honour the Masons who, by their vision, have contributed to the comfort of the members by constructing new buildings, and so have improved the public image of the Craft. While the number may seem to be small it is important to remember that it is a continuing advancement which speaks well for the virility of our Order. When we commend our Brethren who build new Temples we should not forget the contribution that R.W. Bro. George T. Evans has made in the planning of such work.

New lodges give expanded opportunity for service by our members. If it is true that greater educational progress can be made in small groups, new lodges should furnish this type of environment. To organize a new lodge requires vision, initiative and hard work. Perhaps those members of lodges with large memberships need more of the pioneering spirit of their forefathers to overcome their doubts and lead them upward to the broad plains of greater activity. It has been said, "It is only from the valley that the mountain seems high". We welcome the following to our midst and wish for them a most rewarding future:

Willowdale in Toronto.
Twin Lakes in Orillia.
Otisippi in Sarnia.

Our veteran members represent the link with our immediate past. They are the actors who performed on the Masonic stage which has led up to our present position. By using their experience and our combined energies, we should be able to keep in step with modern developments without losing sight of the landmarks which have kept our fraternity on a solid foundation over the years. It is, therefore, a continuing delight to read in the district reports that special nights are set aside for the presentation of pins and the delivery of appreciative addresses to our veteran members. The D.D.G.M. of Eastern District aptly describes these when he says, "Such occasions are fraught with nostalgia, reminiscence and gratitude for the contribution of the Brother being recognized".

The many years that our Grand Master has devoted to the cause of public service and the many offices of leadership which he has filled have enabled M.W. Bro. J. N. Allan to bring the office of Grand Master just a little closer to the average member. His success had made it possible for him to present his explanation of Masonic ideals in a very intimate way to his Brethren. It can be truly said that M.W. Bro. Allan is maintaining the wonderful level of quality in leadership which has been given to this Grand Lodge by his illustrious predecessors in office.

Each report describes with justifiable pride the work accomplished in Masonic Education in the several districts. It is pointed out that the leadership in this field has been effective, the programmes interesting and thought provoking, and that an increasing number of Masons are participating. This speaks well for the foundation laid in former years, but it also points out the outstanding guidance given by R.W. Bro. Bailey, Chairman of the Grand Lodge Committee. We congratulate him and all District Chairmen for the excellent work of the year.

Blood Donors' Committees continue to work closely with local Red Cross Units. Some districts maintain their level of effectiveness while others vary greatly in the numbers of donors reported. From a closer analysis of the reports, it seems logical to assume that the greatest successes are found where the supervising personnel are reappointed over a period of years. We congratulate R.W. Bro. George E. Turner, his Committee and all District Chairmen for their efforts in maintaining and increasing the interest of all Masons in this greatest of all personal charities.

Interlodge visitation is an excellent method of reviving and maintaining interest in our Craft. This fact is especially true in the case of interdistrict and international visits. These widen and deepen the experiences of all participants, and will, in many cases, encourage lodge interest by members who come to lodge infrequently. Your Committee commends all officers who plan and direct these visits.

It is most encouraging, again, to note that most lodges and most districts, where distances do not interfere, are holding Divine Services, with generally increased attendance. Here the true Mason certainly must derive inner personal satisfaction in the renewal of his declaration of a belief in a Supreme Being and His Beneficence, and must be proud to declare it to the world in his humble way. Your Committee is happy to report the good work done by R.W. Bro. S. E. Stevenson, the Grand Chaplain, during the past year. He has attended most of the dedications as well as being present at as many Divine Services as his circumstances have permitted.

It is a pleasure to note, once more, in the reports, the mention of the excellent work done by the Masonic Bureaux in our larger centres. The officials of these Bureaux often receive little recognition for their important work in operating a clearing house for applications to lodges working under concurrent jurisdictions. Your Committee also wishes to commend those who serve the Craft on Masonic Boards of Relief.

There have been two fires this past year which have destroyed the lodge premises, furniture, warrant and records. These are a reminder to all that irreplaceable warrants and records should be placed in fireproof areas after each lodge meeting. They also remind us that adequate insurance should be maintained on our buildings and contents if our lodges are not to suffer, and that lodge committees should annually review this insurance.

In conclusion, your Committee is happy to report that Masonry is progressing favourably in this Grand Jurisdiction. Finances are sound. New Temples are being built and renovations are being done on older ones. Lodge activity is being maintained or revived. The dignity and usefulness of our Order is being upheld. Your Committee is assured by the D.D.G.M.'s that the Condition of Masonry in this Grand Jurisdiction is excellent.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

B. B. FOSTER,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC RELATIONS

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. T. L. Wilson, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Wilson, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M., of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

During the past year I feel that much has been accomplished in our continuing effort to make the image of Freemasonry just a little brighter and more discernible to the non-Masons of this Grand Jurisdiction.

Through the good offices of the Grand Secretary, Most Worshipful Bro. E. G. Dixon, I have been kept advised, in advance, of the visitations of the Grand Master and have then imparted this information to the newspapers in the areas concerned and, since all dailies and some weeklies are members of the Canadian Press organization, whose wires reach from the Pacific to the Atlantic, we have been able to get much more coverage during the past year than ever before.

Again, I would like to go on record tendering our thanks to the Canadian Press of Canada which supplies news to radio, television and newspapers throughout Canada, for their co-operation in helping to keep our people informed regarding Masonic activities, particularly during the past year.

As an example of the co-operation which we have received from the press of this country, may I submit that a few weeks ago we released a story on our Foundation because there was "meat" in this story and, because it was news and not just "plugs," this story was carried in dailies all the way across this country.

I now submit that since there will be a report given at this Grand Communication on our Masonic Foundation, every member should make himself acquainted with it, and convey this information to those who, for one reason or another, are not aware of it.

The old belief that Masonry was something to speak of in a whisper is fast disappearing and to-day, with the alertness and help of the Masters of the various Lodges in the local field, the newspapers of the area are, I believe, now being advised more frequently about local "big nights" and other activities. This is something that was unheard of a few years ago.

It is the opinion of the Publicity Chairman, and I believe supported by the Grand Master and the members of the Grand East, that with the competition for men's time, in these busy days, if we are to keep our place in the sun we must realize more and more that there is an important job to be done in keeping the people informed—Public Relations. Naturally, all cures take time and what we are attempting to do will not happen suddenly, but I believe that by everlastingly keeping at it we will eventually achieve our goal—to again be in a position to show gains instead of losses in this Grand Jurisdiction.

This is where the individual Mason can play his part in helping public relations—no doubt many friends will, from time to time, ask questions about Masonry. I think we should speak up—what do we have to hide—only that part in Masonry which refers to the work and the obligations. Certainly, Masonry is a way of life.

I am sure that I am not alone in the belief that we can, without breaking any obligations, be proud to proclaim that Freemasonry is a band of men bound together in the bonds of brotherly love and affection that extend through the world; that Masonry is kindness in the home, honesty in business, courtesy in society, fairness in work, pity and concern for the unfortunate, resistance towards the wicked, help for the weak, trust in the strong, forgiveness for the penitent, love for one another, and above all, reverence and a love for God.

Ours is a great and grand fraternity. Let us be proud of it and let us let everyone else know that we are proud of it.

T. L. WILSON,
Chairman,
Public Relations Committee.

GRAND CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

This report was presented by R.W. Bro. S. E. Stevenson, Grand Chaplain, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Stevenson, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M., of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I beg to submit to you, as your Grand Chaplain, my report concerning a year which began in deep humility and has accelerated in great joy and personal enrichment. I have sought to perform, sincerely, the duties and privileges of the Grand Chaplain in the Consecration of new lodges and Dedication of new Temples. Also, it has been a great privilege to open the Light of Holy Writ to my brethren at a large number of local Lodge and District Divine Services. In these things I must first express my gratitude to you, Most Worshipful Sir, and to M.W. Bro. Dixon, Grand Secretary, for your consideration in regard to my convenience, and to former Grand Chaplains who kindly served when I was unable to be present. I treasure the warm friendships in Grand Lodge that this year has brought me. District Chaplains have proven very co-operative and delightful persons. The District Deputy Grand Masters and the Masters of lodges have most hospitably given me their friendship and a share in every event that I could accept. I thank these worthy men again.

It is the task of every experienced Mason to instruct his brethren. I interpret this to mean, beyond the ritualistic word and action, that, by his own integrity, by holding high, and to be clearly seen, the Masonic ideal of the God-fearing man, (upbuilt in strength to the full beauty of a Temple of the Living God), he enables his fellow Mason to know that "with God all things are possible." Therefore, if he builds well, alongside his brother, God will build even better, and the end result will be "Well done, good and faithful," for both him and his brother. We recognize that many worthy men are truly serving God who are not members of our Order. We must love them with understanding. I remind you of multitudes who are untaught in holy things and noble ways. No Mason should be content to leave this area of life untouched. To be a brother to all mankind, you are challenged to serve well the church. As you are God's men, so also the Church is God's accepted family, and its immediate task is to show to men how easy it is to come to God, while never making it an easy road to follow in His way.

"Where high the heavenly temple stands,
The house of God not made with hands,
A Great High Priest our nature wears,
The Guardian of mankind appears."

Respectfully I offer this report and my love to the brethren.

S. ERNEST STEVENSON,
Grand Chaplain.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AUDIT AND FINANCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. R. C. Berkinshaw, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. Berkinshaw, it was received and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Committee on Audit and Finance has reviewed the Grand Treasurer's Report, the Auditor's Report attached thereto covering his examination of the books and accounts of this Grand Lodge and the Report of the Grand Secretary, as submitted to this Annual Communication, and finds that the same fully and accurately record all details relative and pertaining to

(a) the financial position of this Grand Lodge as at April 30, 1966, and the results of its operations on a cash basis for the eleven months ended on that date—the end of this fiscal year; (See 1965 Proceedings p. 213)

(b) all items of Receipts and Disbursements in respect to the General Fund, the Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds;

(c) all transactions and changes in the Capital Account which have occurred during the above mentioned period;

(d) The securities in which Grand Lodge assets were invested as of the above mentioned date.

For your consideration, this Committee presents the following observations, conclusions and recommendations on certain subject matters covered by these reports and/or relevant to the financial affairs of this Grand Lodge.

The audited reports of Grand Lodge accounts reveal a net balance of all resources at $1,521,104.11. This figure includes total investments at par value, cash on hand and in the Bank, less an amount of $20,000.00, which is due to The Masonic Foundation. Compared with those presented a year ago, these figures represent an increase in assets of $62,593.62.

All securities in which Grand Lodge assets are presently invested fall within the category of Trustee investments, with the exception of $260,000.00 Series "A" and $40,000.00 Series "B" Debentures of Masonic Holdings due June 1, 1968, which were acquired under specific authority of this Grand Lodge to assist in the financing of Grand Lodge Memorial Building, in Hamilton, Ontario. (See 1956 Proceedings, pp. 184-6 and 1959 Proceedings, p. 208).

During the period under review an additional $20,000.00 of the Series "A" Debentures were redeemed and the present holdings of $300,000.00 reflect an accumulated reduction of $92,000.00 in the amount of this indebtedness since 1959, the date of the original issues.

All securities of this Grand Lodge, with few exceptions, are fully registered and are presently held in the custody of The Canada Permanent Trust Company, as verified by the said Trust Company's certificate.

Total receipts for Initiation Fees, Dues, Commutations, interest on investments, etc., amounted to $220,836.39. Disbursements from the General Fund amounted to $170,013.60, leaving an excess of Receipts over Disbursements of $50,822.79. However, it should be pointed out that in the month of May last, there was an excess of Expenditures over Receipts amounting to $13,703.98, so that had the fiscal year ended on May 31, as formerly, the surplus would have been for the smaller difference of $37,118.81.

The record indicates a strict control of all expenditures to keep them within the budget total, as approved by this Grand Lodge at its last Annual Communication.

Grants for benevolent purposes, less grants refunded, amounted to $41,718.93, which is some $13,000 under the estimates, as submitted by the Committee on Benevolence. However, in making this comparison, it should be pointed out that during the month of May, disbursements for this account amounted to $8,535.00, thus making a total of $50,253.93 for the twelve-month period ended May 31, last—about $5,000.00 less than estimated. In accordance with present practice, these grants were paid out of the Combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds, as augmented by appropriations and transfers from the General Fund, in the amounts of $28,000.00 for the period ending April 30, 1966, and $5,000.00 during the month of May last.

The number and nature of cases of need or distress of Masons and/or their dependents in this jurisdiction continue their downward trend, due mainly to the availability of social assistance from both the Federal and Provincial Governments, much of which is the result of legislation passed within the last ten years. A comprehensive summary of the social benefits which presently are available is to be found in the report of the Committee on Benevolence, submitted to this Grand Lodge in 1964. (See 1964 Proceedings, pp. 181-82).

This latter Committee now estimates that its requirements for benevolent grants for the current year will again amount to $55,000.00. It is recommended, therefore, that the Board of General Purposes, in accordance with Section 119 of the Constitution (as amended in 1963) should authorize an appropriation from the General Fund of $35,000.00 to be transferred in due course, as and when required, to the Combined Memorial and Semi-Centennial Funds to supplement the annual interest and income therefrom—estimated at $23,000.00, and thus make adequate provision for the requirements of this Grand Lodge for all the benevolent grants it may make during the ensuing year. (See Note 1 below).

This Committee gratefully acknowledges receipt of a bequest of $3,000.00 under the will of the late John W. Stephenson; also donations from the Senior Wardens' Association and Georgian District Deputy Grand Master Fund, which have been placed to the credit of the Memorial Fund.

As previously noted in this report, a balance of \$20,000.00 still remains in the General Fund of Grand Lodge, which is available for benevolent purposes only and has not yet been transferred to The Masonic Foundation of Ontario, in accordance with the authorization and direction of this Grand Lodge, issued at its Annual Communication in 1963. Grand Lodge has been paying to The Foundation, interest at the rate of $4\frac{1}{4}\%$ per annum (the average earned on Grand Lodge investments) on these funds. Nevertheless, since higher yields are presently available on Trustee investments and since this Committee is informed that the said Foundation is very much in need of additional revenue to meet the program of university bursaries which it initiated last year, we recommend that the balance referred to above be transferred to The Foundation at the earliest convenient date. We also suggest that, to be of further assistance in this respect, Grand Lodge favourably consider the appropriation of an additional \$10,000.00 from its General Fund for transfer to The Foundation during the current year—one-half of the same to be applied towards the Income and one-half towards the Capital Account of The Foundation. (See Note 2 below).

This Committee again suggests that the Directors of The Foundation should develop adequate ways and means of bringing to the attention of the Constituent Bodies and the individual membership of this jurisdiction the excellent opportunity which is now available for them to participate through gifts, donations and/or bequests to this Foundation (all of which would be exempt from income tax, estate taxes and succession duties) in an activity designed and dedicated to the task of broadening the scope of Masonic benevolence in this large jurisdiction.

Your Committee recommends that Grand Lodge give its formal approval to the eleven special donations made under the authority of the Grand Master and itemized in the audited statements as follows:

DONATIONS

Canadian Heart Fund	$ 500.00
Canadian Cancer Society	500.00

Particulars of the insurance coverage placed by Grand Lodge and presently in effect, as evidenced by the policies in the possession of the Grand Secretary, have been reviewed by this Committee and it is satisfied that all insurable Grand Lodge property, including the valuable contents of the Grand Lodge Library located in the Masonic Temple at 888 Yonge Street, Toronto, is now adequately covered against loss by fire and other hazards. We are pleased to report a continued favourable experience in respect to the Contingent Liability coverage.

In its review of all matters covered by this report, your Committee has received the fullest co-operation and assistance from the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer and the Auditor, Bro. A. W. Parish, F.C.A., of McDonald, Currie and Co., Hamilton, Ontario, and now formally recommends the adoption by

Grand Lodge, without amendment of the reports submitted by the above mentioned officers.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

FOREWORD

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my privilege to present the Report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence. This Report is really an analysis of the important and interesting events which have taken place in those Grand Lodges of other Jurisdictions with which our Grand Lodge is on friendly fraternal relations. The analysis has been made for us from a careful reading of the Proceedings of those Grand Lodges. This rather heavy task has been undertaken by R.W. Bro. J. J. Talman of London to whom we are greatly indebted.

I only propose to read a brief Foreword to the Report as it has been published in full and is before you in printed form. Your Committee strongly recommends that you read the entire Report. We know you will find it interesting and instructive.

You will notice that out of 67 Grand Lodges 53 report decreases in membership and only 14 report increases. An interesting observation is made on one cause of this in the Report of Connecticut. Note the percentage drop in membership is much higher in city lodges than in rural lodges. Read also the discussion on this subject in the Report of Victoria (Australia). Apparently, in Louisiana, there has been some problem created through the habit of smoking during Craft lodge meetings. Read the observations of the Grand Master dealing with that subject.

It is interesting to note that a number of Grand Lodges are supplementing their normal benevolent activities by the creation of Benevolent Foundations as we have done. Note particularly the Grand Lodge of Alberta in which the Proceedings, in this regard, so closely parallels our own. The granting of Bursaries to needy and deserving university students is a very rewarding undertaking. See also Montana, British Columbia, New Jersey and Oklahoma, whose Foundation now has a fund of over five million dollars and received a bequest during the year of another $400,000.

It is quite evident that several Grand Lodges are having problems arising out of dual or multiple memberships. See—Nova Scotia, North Carolina and Saskatchewan.

Colorado has a very interesting analysis of the number of ministers belonging in that Jurisdiction and the various denominations to which they belong. Read it.

And if you have not time to read all the Reports be sure, in any event, to read the one of the Mother Lodge—England. It is making plans to celebrate its 250th anniversary at an Especial Communication, June 27th, 1967. A representative will be invited from every Grand Lodge with which it is in amity.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted,

R. W. TRELEAVEN,
Chairman.

Fraternal Correspondence and Reviews

ALABAMA — 1965

145th Annual Communication — November 16-17.

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. T. D. Sharp
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. F. W. Vaughan

Lodges, 436. Membership, 75,008. Loss, 116.

Though the Annual Communication was held only in November the Proceedings arrived in our Grand Lodge office on January 12. The Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. G. L. Evatt, P.G.M., is to be congratulated on his efficiency. Manifestly, many pages must have been set after the Communication.

The Grand Master made fifteen rulings which all showed careful consideration and sound judgment. In one he declared that it would not be wise to permit the United Klans of America to rent a lodge room for their meetings. In another he gave the opinion that it would not be in conformity with the ancient landmarks to permit a lodge to place a Masonic emblem on a billboard with other civic club signs.

Among his recommendations, the Grand Master included one advocating the appointment of a lodge historian in every lodge to explore the possibility of placing suitable markers to commemorate historic places or events which might be of interest not only to the 75,000 Masons in the state but to visiting Masons. Alabama is a popular tourist state. Out of this recommendation grew another, the preparation of a suitable ceremony for the dedication of the proposed markers.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence recommended the withdrawal of recognition of the Grand Lodge of Indonesia as the war administration in East Java has dissolved all civic clubs, Masonic lodges, etc. This, as the Committee said, "is another example of unhappy world conditions." The problem did not arise in our jurisdiction as we do not recognize the Grand Lodge of Indonesia. Actually, only one or two Grand Lodges in the United States, besides Alabama, recognized the body.

60th Annual Communication — June 9-10

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. W. J. Collett
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. A. J. G. Lauder

Lodges, 180.

Membership, 19,178.

Loss, 135.

On the evening before the opening of Grand Lodge, the Grand Master invited all members attending, and particularly Master Masons, to be present at a gathering organized for the purpose of having discussion groups. Five hundred and fifty-six registered. The Grand Master addressed the meeting on the subject "Confusion in the Temple."

Two paragraphs enable us to appreciate the tenor of his remarks.

"One of the great criticisms that we face at the moment is that the Masonic Lodge never expresses itself on any of the great moral and social problems of the day. If somebody would just issue a 'statement' then we would know where Masons stood in relationship to these issues. It is a simple matter for someone to make a statement and for the majority to follow the statement and for a minority to disagree. This is not Freemasonry. It is incredibly more difficult for an individual to know thoroughly the basic principles of ethics and morality and then to have the personal responsibility of acting in a way that, in his best judgment, is the wisest for his country, his neighbour and himself. This is Freemasonry and it is very difficult. Where we have fallen down so disastrously is not in failing to make a public statement as a Lodge but in neglecting to supply the brethren with a solid basis in philosophy, ethics, science and theology upon which a personal decision may be made.

"What I have been trying to say is this—there is confusion in the temple. The confusion is there because we are failing to make a serious attempt to understand our basic philosophies and teachings. The confusion is being compounded because we are attempting to correct a deep seated illness by surface cures. Order will be restored only when we get down to the serious business of self analysis and sound learning. The means to order is truly Masonic programs for which there is no scarcity of material."

Following the address the members broke off into small groups for thirty minutes of discussion. All agreed the project had been imaginative and profitable.

The Higher Education Bursary Committee reported that they had awarded bursaries totalling $13,600 to twenty-nine students. The Committee works with the Awards Committee of the University of Alberta to eliminate the problems of duplication. Awards, however, are made at institutions of higher learning throughout the Province and not on the Edmonton campus only. The academic records of the recipients generally have been good. The need for this form of student aid is still great in Alberta. The Chairman, R.W. Bro. Sanders, concluded: "In my humble opinion the Higher Education Bursary has been one of the finest things that the Grand Lodge of Alberta has ever done and I don't mind spending a lot of time and effort in promoting it — it is well worth-while."

The reports of the twenty District Deputy Grand Masters reveal a great deal of activity. The Grand Master's Representative in the Northwest Territories reported on the Constitution and Consecration of Polaris Lodge, No. 186, at Fort Smith. He told of the joint installation of this Lodge and Yellowknife Lodge, No. 162. The occasion was a great success. He reminded those who read his report that "the only means of travel between Fort Smith and Yellowknife is by air and the trip takes approximately two hours."

ARIZONA — 1965

83rd Annual Communication — April 26-27

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. W. L. Fitch

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. R. J. Lopshire

Lodges, 61.

Membership, 13,378.

Gain, 233.

The Grand Master did not attempt to visit all of the lodges in the jurisdiction but explained the practical way in which visiting is done. The jurisdiction was divided into three parts in 1960. The Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Senior Warden and Grand Junior Warden visit one section. By the time each becomes Grand Master he has visited all the lodges and has become personally acquainted with the officers. One obvious drawback to the system is that lodges in one section are visited by the officer holding the same office in Grand Lodge each year. It might be possible for some lodges never to receive the Grand Master, during his year in the office.

The Building Survey Committee reported widespread building activity in the jurisdiction. Five lodges, a large number when the total on the roll is considered, built, improved or planned buildings. These developments were a continuation of similar activity during recent years in Arizona. The Committee rightly stated: "The building of a Masonic Temple always tends to have a beneficial effect on the entire community in which it is located, creating an interest in Masonry in those who are not members of the Fraternity and giving new and old members a common bond of pride of ownership and satisfaction of worthwhile accomplishment."

The Committee on Jurisprudence approved the action of the Grand Master in granting dispensations to four lodges to hold outdoor meetings, in all cases to confer the Third Degree.

BRITISH COLUMBIA — 1965

94th Annual Communication — June 17-18

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. J. H. McKergow

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. J. H. Nordan

Lodges, 167. Membership, 26,949. Loss, 106.

Since the Proceedings of a Grand Lodge are a record of the business of that Grand Lodge, such publications contain little of what might be called the domestic or local practices of constituent lodges. However, Rulings of Grand Masters and amendments to Constitutions, on occasions, do give us some detail not generally known outside the jurisdiction concerned.

The Rulings of the Grand Master of British Columbia for 1965 provide an interesting illustration of the point made above. Under "Rulings" the Grand Master informed his hearers that, in British Columbia, four Rituals are in use:

- (1) The Canadian Work (Old and New Rituals).
- (2) The "American" Ritual or the British Columbia Ancient Work.
- (3) The Emulation Ritual.
- (4) The Australian Ritual.

The multiplicity of Rituals can create problems, many of which would immediately occur to members of the Craft. Several specific Rulings, regarding fraternal visits between lodges with different forms of Work, seem to add up to the point that a degree conferred on a candidate must conform to the Work of his lodge. However, "Ritualistic teams" from any lodge, within or without the jurisdiction, can "exemplify or demonstrate their Degrees." Such visits are encouraged. The Grand Lodge confirmed these Rulings.

The report of the District Deputy Grand Master of Cariboo District, No. 4, lists places which conjure up visions of gold rush days in British Columbia. Barkerville perhaps stands out. Of this community the District Deputy wrote.

"Cariboo Lodge, No. 4, Barkerville. The members of this grand old Lodge practice real Freemasonry in spite of the fact that their Lodge has not always been blest with prosperity and good fortune. Its ritualistic work (American) different from other Lodges in the District, is of a high standard. I witnessed the conferral in a most efficient and impressive manner of the Master Mason Degree on two candidates."

The Lodge has a membership of 94, an increase of nine over the previous year.

The Committee on Masonic Bursary Fund distributed $7,500 among thirty-three students. As in previous years, the selection was not an easy task as there were many fine candidates. Every effort was made to make the awards in those cases where there was evidence of the greatest need, consistent with the student's probable future success.

The Special Committee, appointed to study the feasibility of establishing a Senior Freemasons' Home, tried conscientiously to study all aspects of this difficult problem. They found that such a Home "would have to be one which had provision to house an infirmity" and that a suitable building would be "very costly." Upkeep also would be high. Furthermore, they said, "owing to the complex nature of social welfare and government grants, we could not hope to receive any assistance from the government for the type of building and occupancy we would want."

The Committee suggested: "That where an elderly Brother Freemason is desirous of entering a Home, and is not able to meet the required financial obligations, then, in such a case, application for assistance should be made" in the regular way to the Grand Lodge Benevolent Fund. They believe that such assistance would fulfil the need in a practical and satisfactory manner.

The proposal to delete the extremely difficult so-called "alcohol clause" in the Book of Constitution, referred to in the 1963 Proceedings, which runs: "No candidate shall be initiated and no Mason shall be affiliated or permitted to retain his membership whose principal business is the manufacturing or sale of intoxicating liquors, or who controls such a business or acts as a salesman therefor" was defeated. A second proposal to amend the clause to read: "No candidate shall be initiated and no Mason shall be affiliated or permitted to retain his membership who uses intoxicating liquors to excess or intemperance" was also defeated.

The Grand Lecturer was curious as to the number of ministers who are members of the Craft in Colorado and, thinking that the information might be a matter of interest, gathered the figures. He found that the numbers and the church bodies they represented were as follows:

Methodist	32	United Brethren	1
Baptist	17	Congregational	2
Episcopal	11	Lutheran	1
Presbyterian	10	Friends	1
Christian	4	Salvation Army	1

One would hazard a guess that the ratio in our jurisdiction is higher. Have we more than 231 ministers on our rolls?

The Committee on Memorial Markers again inspected the various markers in the state. No list is given, but we are told: "The newest of the markers is the lodge room over Simpkins Store, which is located in South Park City, a ghost town in the town of Fairplay." The site, evidently a historic park, is open only from June 15 to October 15, but no fewer than 1,200 visitors signed the register. The lodge room and contents are in good repair and are kept clean and attractive.

Though by no means one of the largest jurisdictions, the Grand Lodge of Connecticut brings out a most attractive volume of Proceedings. The type is fresh and the printing is clean. The volume is a joy to handle. The record of dedications of new Temples suggests that the attitude of the Masons of the State toward their lodge halls maintains the same attitude. During recent years many new Temples have been dedicated and this year three were added to the list.

The Special Communication held in Guildford for the purpose of dedicating the Temple of St. Alban's Lodge, No. 38, deserves notice. The Grand Master delivered the ceremonial address and the benediction was pronounced by the Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Rabbi Abraham J. Feldman. "The Grand Master spoke briefly commending the spirit of Brotherhood in Guildford which had resulted in the Lodge's purchase of the vacated St. George's Roman Catholic Church and its conversion into a Masonic Temple." This circumstance finds a parallel in Bath, England, where the Masonic Temple in the heart of the city once served as a Roman Catholic Church and at another time as a theatre in which Mrs. Siddons acted.

The origin of St. Alban's Lodge is not without interest. It came into being under warrant from the Grand Lodge of England in 1771, with the name Guildford Lodge, No. 6. The first Master was Bilious Ward. (One could hope that there might be a printer's error in the given name.) On the outbreak of the Revolutionary War the Lodge stopped working. After the war, the newly-formed Connecticut Grand Lodge issued a new charter with the present name. The Lodge was dormant during the 1840's owing to the anti-Masonic agitation of the time.

The second Temple dedicated, for St. Peter's Lodge, No. 21, New Milford, also was formerly a church, this time All Saint's Episcopal Church. It had been used, for summer services only, until recently. St. Peter's Lodge received its warrant from the Grand Lodge of Connecticut in 1792 and thus had not been under the Grand Lodge of England as had St. Alban's.

The third Temple dedicated was that of Franklin Lodge, No. 56, Bristol. The Lodge is relatively, and only relatively, young, having been warranted in 1819. This Temple was built new.

The Grand Master in his address devoted a fair amount of time to discussing the origins of the loss in membership recorded during the year. His conclusions were most revealing. While the loss was only about 1.3 per cent over the state, the loss in the twenty lodges in the four largest cities was about 8 per cent. The non-city loss was only seven-tenths of one per cent. The conclusion is inescapable. Masonry evidently means more, in Connecticut at least, to those who live outside the larger cities. A hasty glance at the numbers on the rolls in the large cities and outside does not give the impression that the size of the lodge is the important factor.

The death rate in the city lodges was 13 per cent whereas in the remaining lodges of the state it was only 2 per cent. The explanation for the discrepancy evidently is the age of the lodges and their members. People, and especially younger ones, are moving to the suburbs.

Since some lodges in the larger cities did show gains, however, a study of the size of lodges in relation to their records might produce other interesting conclusions. This research is scarcely the duty of a reviewer although the task could readily be undertaken with the information supplied in the Proceedings.

Following the development of "Table Lodges" described in last year's review, the Grand Master reported that nearly every lodge in the state held a Table Lodge of its own or participated in a joint gathering with one or more other lodges.

Although this review has exceeded usual lengths, it must be added that the speaker at the Grand Lodge banquet was the Most Reverend Robert Francis Joyce, Roman Catholic Bishop of Burlington, Vermont. A graduate of the Grand Seminary, Montreal, and one-time American Army Chaplain, the Bishop gave an outstanding address.

The first number of the "Delaware Freemason" was mailed to each member in the jurisdiction. The publication had been planned for a year and is intended to serve as a means of communication between Grand Lodge and every member of the Craft.

The Grand Lodge Library, housed in the Grand Lodge suite of offices, has been "completely updated and the literature has been made more accessible."

The Grand Master reported that Masonry in Delaware appears to be in a healthy condition. He found in his travels through the State that both the interior and exterior of the lodge buildings were clean and attractive in appearance. Many have been painted recently and refurbished. Many secretaries of lodges reported a large increase in attendance. The Grand Master attributed the increase to the "foresight and planning" of the Masters of lodges.

Though one of the smallest jurisdictions in the United States, this Grand Lodge can be proud of the size of its scholarship programme. The Committee on Education administers the Gunning Bedford Scholarship. During the year, eight scholarships were granted, each amounting to $250, to assist students to attend university.

In 1964, at the Annual Communication, the Committee was asked to study the operation and justification of the plan, and to report on whether it should be continued or abandoned. If continued, they were asked to suggest what changes would make the plan more effective.

The Committee agreed that the scholarship plan had had a long and honorable history. Without it, many deserving young people would not have secured a university education. The Committee faced the problem of the much greater availability of scholarships today but still came to the conclusion that the maximum amount they granted, $500, "while of steadily lessening significance in the cost of education is still large enough to be the determining factor whether college can be attended or not for many young people."

They agreed that a repayment plan was not desirable or likely to be successful. At the same time they said that recipients might be informed that any monies would be accepted to extend the benefits to other young people. They recommended that the plan be continued and that the per capita assessment for it be raised from fifteen to twenty-five cents. Grand Lodge concurred.

Since the Annual Communication of this Grand Lodge is held in December (this year the 15th) it frequently is not possible to review the Proceedings until they are quite old. Over the years, whether early or late, we have said nothing about the Masonic Home. This has been in existence for more than sixty years. The endowment fund earns approximately $100,000 per year but the operating costs run about $450,000 per year. The Home can house 135 guests. Currently, there are 73 in the Infirmary. The operation of an institution, such as this, becomes more and more difficult.

The Grand Master expressed his appreciation to the Grand Lodge of Maryland and particularly the lodges immediately adjacent to the jurisdictional boundaries for their generosity in releasing jurisdiction over petitioners. The action was of material assistance in the efforts of the Grand Lodge to slow the tide in the loss of membership.

The new lodge hall of Potomac Lodge, No. 5, was dedicated. The Grand Master described the lodge room as beautiful. He added, "the officers and members of Potomac Lodge are commended for their diligence in assuring that 'a lodge in Georgetown' would continue."

Prior to the opening of the new Veterans Administration Hospital in Washington, the Grand Master, in collaboration with others, established a programme which calls for two lodges of the jurisdiction to provide six brethren on designated Sunday mornings to assist in getting all patients to chapel service who wish to attend. This escort service has proved to be most successful.

ENGLAND — 1965

Quarterly Communications — March 10, June 9,
September 8, December 8.

Annual Investiture — April 28

Grand Master — M.W. Bro. Rt. Hon. The Earl of Scarbrough.
K. G., &c. &c.

Grand Secretary — R.W. Bro. James W. Stubbs, P.G.W.

Returns published in the March Proceedings show that there are 7,163 lodges on the Register of Lodges, an increase of fifty-three in the year. The distribution is as follows: London, 1,671; Provincial, 4,735; and District and Abroad, 757.

The Grand Master is nominated annually by resolution. This year the mover was a New Zealander and the seconder was born in Canada. As the latter, W. Bro. J. Peterford said:

"I think this is possibly the first time for many years that neither the proposer nor the seconder of this Resolution has been born in England, but let me hasten to say that the proposer's birthplace being New Zealand and mine Canada it does give us an opportunity of underlining that loyalty and affection which is felt by Masons from so many Commonwealth countries towards the M.W. The Grand Master, bearing the Commonwealth also in mind as an area where he served in high political office during a number of crucial years."

The Grand Master was re-elected. After his election had been proclaimed he replied in less than two dozen words: "Brethren, I thank you for your salutation; and I will do my best to paddle this canoe for the ensuing year."

The first resolution dealt with at the March Quarterly Communication was the recognition of the Grand Lodge of Belgium. The Grand Registrar who moved the resolution gave something of the history of Freemasonry in Belgium.

"A number of Belgian Lodges have broken away from the Grand Orient of Belgium, which we had to break away from and fail to recognise nearly 100 years ago because they did away with the Volume of the Sacred Law and belief in a Supreme Being. A number of these Lodges have wished to return to the fold and have adopted those principles of Masonry which we believe to be absolutely fundamental, and in 1959 a new Grand Lodge of Belgium was consecrated under the aegis of the Netherlandic Constitution. They have applied to us, and to a number of other Grand Lodges, for recognition. The matter has been very carefully considered by our Board of General Purposes, and we are well satisfied now that this is another Grand Lodge that we can recognise. Scotland has already done so, and I believe Ireland has done the same — at any rate, we are expecting them to have done so this week."

Recognition was approved by Grand Lodge.

Prior to the formation of the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa, in 1961, the great majority of the lodges in South Africa, warranted under the Netherlands, English, Scottish and Irish Constitutions, worked in very close cooperation. There was much intervisitation and many members belonged to lodges working under two or more of the four Constitutions. The same happy state of affairs continues to exist between the lodges of the three Home Grand Lodges (England, Ireland and Scotland) and the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa. Evidence of the cordial relationships came from a request by the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa that that Grand Lodge be invited to become a party to that part of a Concordat, under which the three Home Grand Lodges operate, which provides that any member who may be suspended or expelled in one jurisdiction shall not, while so disqualified, be permitted to remain a member of or to visit or join any lodge under the jurisdiction of the others. The Grand Lodge of Southern Africa felt that it should become a party to the agreement and thus make the same conditions enforceable throughout the whole of recognized Masonry in South Africa.

The Board of General Purposes expressed their great appreciation of this spirit of cooperation and strongly recommended that Grand Lodge meet the wishes of the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa. All that was necessary was for the Grand Lodge of Southern Africa to sign the Concordat. The Grand Lodge of Ireland had already approved and the Grand Lodge of Scotland was expected to.

A complicated matter of recognition came up at the September Quarterly Communication. The Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland, apparently, recognizes the Grand Lodge of France. Consequently Alpina would not be able, even if it wished, to prevent the attendance of irregular French Masons at meetings of its Lodges. To protect the integrity of members of the English Constitution and to prevent the risk of their meeting in Lodge members of an irregular body the Board recommended to the Grand Lodge that it should formally forbid all members of the English Constitution to attend meetings of the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland or any of its constituent Lodges until such time as its relations with the Grand Lodge of France have been formally broken by a resolution of the Grand Lodge. At the same time the Board saw no reason why the reverse should follow, and hoped that Lodges of the English Constitution would continue to welcome in the future, as they have in the past, members in good standing of Lodges under the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland.

The same Communication dealt with the problem of The Universal League of Freemasons. The story was told in two paragraphs.

"The Universal League of Freemasons (sometimes referred to as the LIGA) was, according to its official publications, formed in 1905, but its activities did not attract much notice until the period between the two world wars, at which time it claimed that membership was restricted to Masons professing the same principles as those of the United Grand Lodge of England. Recently however there has been abundant evidence that many of the members owe allegiance to Grand Lodges which are not recognised by us. At any gathering of the Universal League to-day, therefore, an English Mason may be expected to come into contact with those who must be regarded as masonically irregular.

"The Board of General Purposes has always viewed with disapproval gatherings at which the regular and irregular mingle, and takes the view that the Craft should be given a clearly expressed warning against any contact with this organisation. It accordingly recommends the Grand Lodge to confirm the Board's opinion that the Universal League of Freemasons comes within the purview of Rule 176, and that membership of it or attendance at any of its functions is incompatible with regular Freemasonry."

While the contingency is not likely to arise very often, it may be interesting to know that the Board of General Purposes of the United Grand Lodge of England reminded "Brethren who have joined Lodges of the English Constitution from other Constitutions that they must wear English regalia in English Lodges, whether they are present as members or as visitors." Official representatives from other jurisdictions who may be "dual members" are exempt.

The upsetting effect of world problems on Masonry was revealed by the need of the Grand Lodge to erase the names of six lodges in Egypt and Sudan and six in Iraq from the Roll of the Grand Lodge. Since the lodges could not hold meetings, and there was little likelihood that they would be able to, nothing else could be done. Two lodges have transferred their warrants to England and are seeing what can be done to re-establish themselves there.

The most significant matter brought before Grand Lodge, during the year, was the Grand Master's announcement of plans to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the original Grand Lodge meeting which took place in London, on St. John's Day, 1717. In 1917 the bicentenary of this event occurred during the darkest days of the war and the celebration, of necessity, had to be on a very restricted scale. The hope is that 1967 will provide a much more propitious setting.

In brief, it is proposed to hold an Especial Grand Lodge on Tuesday, June 27, 1967, to which a representative from every Grand Lodge with which the Grand Lodge is in amity will be invited. In addition it is planned to set up a fund to support fellowships in surgery which will record their Masonic origin as a thank offering for the preservation of Freemasonry through two and one half centuries. A fund amounting to £1 per head of the membership is hoped for. More and more Grand Lodges are broadening the bases of their benevolence, without limiting their normal Masonic charities.

136th Annual Communication — April 27-29

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. H. D. Pelhank
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. C. A. Gleason

Lodges, 297. Membership, 72,641. Gain, 1,075.

The highlight of the year was the Dedicating of the new Grand Lodge Building in Jacksonville. The building was occupied, on schedule, by the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, on August 1. As the Grand Master stated in his address:

"The Masons of Florida can point with pride to this new structure which so well befits the dignity of the Craft, and which provides adequate and comfortable housing for our administrative staff as well as providing several much needed committee rooms. The North wing houses our Masonic Museum, while the Masonic Library is located on the second floor."

The Grand Lodge of Florida is to be congratulated on the completion of this building "constructed and paid for without the necessity of any outside financing."

The search for the burial places of Past Grand Masters continued. It was successful in the case of M.W. Bro. Henry Gee (1837). Arrangements for suitable marking are under way. The grave of M.W. Bro. S. D. Stephens (1852, 1869) was not found.

The list of dispensations granted includes three of a type which, from time to time, have been denied in other jurisdictions: one permitted a lodge to sponsor a youth baseball team and have the lodge name, number and emblem on the uniform; another allowed a lodge to erect and maintain a suitable sign, indicating the location of the lodge hall, adjacent to a highway; a third permitted the addition of a sign on a billboard which displayed signs of civic, church and fraternal organizations.

Annual General Plenary Assembly — December 11

Grand Master — M.W. Bro. E. Van Hecke

We have not had an opportunity to tell anything of the Proceedings of the French National Grand Lodge before this year. We have now received the official organ, The Orient of Neuilly, which gives a summary of the Proceedings in English.

In his address the Grand Master told of the 1963 Grand Lodge meeting when "we celebrated the fiftieth Anniversary of that unparalleled act of courage, when a handful of Brethren, heedless of sarcasms, reconstituted Regular Freemasonry in France."

Extracts from the Grand Secretary's Report showed that the strength of the Grand Lodge is now over 5,000 members. Initiations totalled 380. Since the beginning of 1965 twenty-nine new lodges have been constituted. These lodges, in the main, are composed of members who came from the Grand Lodge of France.

From the all too brief information in the publication, it can be seen that, if it were not for the difference of language, any one of us would feel quite at home at a meeting of the Grand Lodge or in one of the constituent lodges.

GEORGIA — 1964

Grand Master, 1963-64 — M.W. Bro. O. E. Dixon

Lodges, 482. Membership, 98,003. Loss, 816.

The Grand Lodge met thirteen times in emergent communications, to lay cornerstones. Nine were for new Temples, clear evidence of Masonic activity in Georgia, two were for educational buildings, one for a Baptist Church and one for the new archives building of the State of Georgia, Atlanta. Since archive buildings are not common this last occasion must have been well-nigh unique.

The list of distinguished guests from other jurisdictions has a poignant note for us. The first name recorded is M.W. Bro. C. M. Pitts.

The Grand Master gave two rulings on problems which are seldom encountered. The first involved a ballot on a petition by an individual with a fairly uncommon name. The petition was rejected. There was another individual in the community with the same given and surname, though not having a second given name, who did not possess the necessary qualifications for membership. Some members believed that the rejection was due to mistaken identity. For the sake of peace and harmony, the Grand Master set the ballot aside and ordered a new one; the Proceedings do not record the result of the second ballot.

The second problem involved a member who, for religious reasons, decided to withdraw his membership and cited several scriptural passages which, according to his belief, forbade his holding membership in the Fraternity. The lodge decided to give him a demit. The Grand Master, however, ruled that a demit could not be issued under these circumstances and directed that the member be suspended, at his request, on account of religious beliefs.

In 1903 the Grand Lodge established a childrens' home, at first entirely supported by voluntary contributions from the Masons of the State. Later an assessment was levied on each lodge. Today the assessment is one dollar twelve and a half cents per capita. The home can accommodate thirty-six juniors (5 to 11 years), forty intermediates (12 to 15), and forty seniors (16 and above). The total in residence, during the year, was eighty-two, seventeen of whom were of Masonic and sixty-five non-Masonic connection. Seven Masonic Home Children were pursuing studies in college and vocational courses beyond the high school level.

The Educational and Historical Commission discussed the publication of a brochure on historical markers erected by the Commission under the auspices of the Grand Lodge. They decided to go on with the project and printed 100,000. These will be distributed widely in various ways. The programme of the Commission is large as readers of these reviews have gathered in the past.

Reviews of other years have told something of the Masonic Home of Georgia. One of the activities is the Higher Education Fund which enabled the Home to send seven of the residents to college. Lodges and individual Masons have been most generous in this regard. In addition, the Home was able to build a swimming pool at a cost of over $16,000. New dwellings for staff are planned. Children from the Home spend three weeks at a summer camp. The account of the farm and dairy herd suggests that the children do not lack for fresh milk.

The Masonic Home Print Shop prints and mails the Masonic Messenger. New postal regulations will require the changing of all address stencils. Since the mailing list contains almost 100,000 names, the task will be large and expensive.

The Home asked Grand Lodge for a special appropriation to cover the extra cost, no small amount being $5,000.

The "Foreign Correspondent," W. Bro. L. H. Williams, says kind things about our Fraternal Reviews suggesting that they "convey to the brethren, if read by them, a fine warm picture of Masonry around the world." He puts his finger on one problem which bothers reviewers. Are the reviews read by enough brethren to justify the expense? His remarks are doubly warming as W. Bro. Williams is no mean reviewer himself. He takes a strong stand for dignity in the lodge and good leadership.

In 1870 the first Grand Master of Idaho, M.W. Bro. G. H. Coe, was presented with a jewel made from Idaho gold nuggets placer mined in Idaho City, Idaho Territory. The craftsman who designed the jewel was Bro. D. B. Kimmel. As the Grand Master said "Beautiful enameling and engraving plus the turquoise gem reflect the pride, reverence and skill that characterized the work of these early Masons, erecting a solid cornerstone for the future building of Freemasonry in Idaho." The information and remarks were prompted by the fact that two granddaughters of the first Grand Master presented the jewel to the Grand Lodge.

The Grand Historian, M.W. Bro. J. C. Herndon, gave an all too brief history of the beginnings of Freemasonry in America. He told how the Grand Lodge of Idaho was formed in 1867 by three lodges warranted by the Grand Lodge of Oregon and one warranted by the Grand Lodge of Washington. Incidentally, he gave what might be called a genealogy of Freemasonry in America as the line led to Idaho. He also told something of the place inns and taverns played in providing meeting places for early lodges both in England and America and explained why.

"We are all aware, of course, that in the early days of Freemasonry in England and later in America, lodges met in Inns and Taverns. These were usually the most substantial edifices in the towns and were often built with a large room expressly designed for meetings of societies, groups and lodges.

"A writer of the 17th century has stated: 'Taverns are a busy man's recreation, the idle man's business, the melancholy man's sanctuary and the stranger's welcome.'

"Eminent men met in taverns to discuss problems of science, religion, government, and philosophy.

"Macauley said: 'The tavern coffee house was the Londoner's home and those who wished to find a gentleman asked not where he lived, but whether he frequented the "Grecian" or the "Rainbow" tavern.'

"... famous taverns formed the meeting places for the first lodges in America. Thus the first meetings of the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire were held in the 'Earl of Halifax' tavern in Portsmouth. In 1738 a lodge 'was holden' at the 'Harp & Crown' in Charleston, S.C., as reported in the South Carolina Gazette. In 1739 a lodge met at 'Montgomery Arms Tavern' according to the New York Gazette. Lodge, No. 18, Dover, Delaware, was opened 'at the sign of General Washington' tavern; the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts met both at the 'Bunch of Grapes' and 'Royal Exchange' taverns.

"Probably the most famous in America annals, however, is the 'Green Dragon Tavern' in Boston. Inside was the famous 'Long Room' in which met St. Andrews Lodge. This tavern has been called the cradle of the Revolution because noted revolutionary figures gathered there and the great event, the 'Boston Tea Party' was there planned. This was in part, at least, a lodge idea. Masons undoubtedly helped conceive and execute the plan.

"The Green Dragon tavern long room actually later came to be called Freemasons Hall. St. Andrews Lodge met there regularly from 1752, or thereabouts, until 1818. It was likewise the place where the Massachusetts Grand Lodge was organized in 1769 on St. Johns Day of winter."

In The Grand Jurisdiction the "Standard Work" is taught by an energetic group of five outstanding Masons, thoroughly familiar with the work and its practices. They conduct six schools of instruction during the year to enlighten the officers and members of lodges and to improve their proficiency. They also conduct examinations "for commissions as Grand Lecturers." The District Deputies total 115.

For various reasons and particularly because of changing conditions in many areas, fourteen lodges merged to form seven. One of them had been chartered in 1858. As the Grand Master said, one cannot avoid a sense of sadness when a charter is lifted or surrendered. "A much better solution of resolving a lodge difficulty, when it becomes apparent that the lodge can no longer carry on . . . is the merger with a stronger and better equipped lodge, so that all members affected can continue to enjoy the beauties and benefits of Masonic fellowship."

The Committee on Grand Master's Report expressed some high principles of their own. This particular report usually stands out in the Proceedings of Illinois. In part they said:

"All the teachings and precepts of our great fraternity contribute to the building of character and a person of character is one who decries cruelty, despises softness, and frowns on those who climb on the shoulders of others.

"He recognizes the dignity of duty, fairness, sympathy, and all the other things which make a decent society possible. Having good taste, which is the instinctive and instant preferring of one material object to another, without obvious reason, he finds the essential to making the most of life.

"To live a full and complete life one needs to score heavily on interests, consideration for the other fellow, and above all humility. A person who ignores these requisites leads a very monotonous and thin life and so is subject to the evil of boredom and disregard for his fellow creatures.

"The beautiful lessons of Masonry, if but followed, will give out a respected character and an opportunity to be of service to mankind."

Grand Festival — March 5

Grand Master, 1962-69 — M.W. Bro. Bhogilal C. Shah

The Grand Master has been issuing a monthly letter to members of the Board of General Purposes, Regional Grand Lodges and secretaries of daughter (we should say constituent) lodges. Many have suggested that the Grand Master should print a more official type of publication and he has agreed to see what can be done.

The Grand Lodge of India had a good year. A most significant event was the publication of a ritual for the Grand Lodge of India in an effort to secure uniformity of work in the constituent lodges. Taking the English ritual as a base, the compilers "grafted some features of Scottish and Irish working at suitable places. The new ritual may well be said to be distinctly Indian."

The term of the Grand Master, who was first installed on April 28, 1962, was due to terminate in January 1966, was re-elected for another term. The Constitution specifies three years.

The Grand Master gave a brief but comprehensive account of the development of the Grand Lodge in three years. Fraternal recognition has been extended by 102 Grand Lodges, twenty-four new lodges have been warranted and the net gain in membership has been 900. The financial position of Grand Lodge is sound and satisfactory.

In the course of one address, the Grand Master told his hearers that, though it was not generally known, the late Pandit Motilal Nehru, father of India's first prime minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, was a member of the Craft, a Past Master of Lodge Unity, No. 29, G.L.I., Allahabad, and a Past District Deputy Grand Deacon of the District Grand Lodge of Bengal.

The Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. D. L. Smith, P.G.M., writes the fraternal reviews. As was said in our 1963 reviews he covers practically all Proceedings printed in English, under subject headings, in a thoroughgoing way. In addition he takes pity on other reviewers by printing a Summary of Proceedings at the first of his own volume. Somehow it does not seem to be sporting to take advantage of the comprehensive digest.

The Grand Lecturer reported that most lodges are continuing to improve their buildings. In many of the lodges this work is done by the members themselves. This effort not only constitutes a financial saving but "probably equally important is the feeling of accomplishment that is attained by the working members of these lodges." In addition many new Temples are being built or extensively renovated. The report of the Supervisory Board shows that lodges involved in such efforts total fourteen.

The Report of the Committee on Foreign Fraternal Relations gave a brief but complete outline of Masonic developments in France. The Grand Lodge of Indiana, as does Canada, recognizes only the Grand Lodge Nationale of France, "composed of 68 Lodges with approximately 4,300 members and organized in 1913." The Grand Lodge of France, a second body, seems to have put an end, for some time at least, any chance of union with the Grand Lodge Nationale by recognizing the third body, the Grand Orient of France, which, as we are all aware, is not recognized by regular Grand Lodges. Indeed twenty lodges of the Grand Lodge of France are unhappy with the compact and have formed yet a fourth group which they call a "Federation of Traditional Lodges." This group has been accepted on a two-year provisional basis as a district of the Grand Lodge Nationale.

The report says further:

"An interesting addition to our knowledge of the National Grand Lodge of France has come to light. This body with which we are in fraternal accord has not only 57 Lodges within France but also seven in Iran, three in Spain and one in Morocco. We learn that 36 of their Lodges do their work in English, 25 exclusively in French, and the other seven alternate between French and English or French and Persian. A splinter group broke away from the National Grand Lodge about a year or so ago consisting of about 100 men. They still meet but are considered clandestine."

The Sesquicentennial Commission has been hard at work under the chairmanship of the Grand Secretary. The range of the activities of the Commission can be gathered, in part, from the following few brief paragraphs.

"We have continued to explore the subject of a great and far-reaching benevolent program for the good of all humanity that may be established in the name of Craft Freemasonry. The time table for this phase of our observance calls for launching the benevolent program at the annual meeting in 1968.

"Research to locate the burial places of our distinguished Masonic leaders of yesterday is proceeding on schedule.

"The first two historical markers to be installed at significant sites as a part of our preparation for the Jubilee Year have been unveiled: at Croydon on August 31, 1964 and at Vincennes on October 31, 1964. Two more markers are scheduled for installation and unveiling in the autumn of 1965. They will be placed at Madison and at Charlestown.

"The work of compiling and writing the history of the Grand Lodge is proceeding on schedule. This project will move forward during the coming summer.

"An order has been placed with Wedgwood, in England, for our commemorative plate featuring the birthplace of the Grand Lodge at Madison. A sample plate has been received and approved. We are assured of delivery well in advance of the beginning of the Jubilee Year.

"Many projects designed to call attention to Freemasonry's Sesquicentennial are under way. These include a special Grand Lodge letterhead for the Jubilee Year; purchase in quantity of Jubilee Year seals which Lodges may use to attach to their own letterheads; use of a Jubilee Year line on the Grand Lodge postage meter; design for a souvenir dues card for the year 1968, and design for a Sesquicentennial commemorative cachet for stamp collectors. The possibility of producing sets of slides or film strips for showing in Lodges also is being explored.

"Preparations for the 16 events to constitute our Masonic Heritage Program are all moving on schedule. The Jubilee Year will open officially on the Feast of St. John the Baptist (June 24), 1967, and continue through the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge May 21-22, 1968."

The Annual Communication was held in Burlington where Masonry in Iowa began in 1840. Special dispensation for that pioneer meeting was given by the Grand Lodge of Missouri. Iowa Territory had been established only in 1838. The Governor and his secretary were Masons and they with ten others secured a charter from Missouri, warranting Des Moines Lodge, No 1, first recorded on the Grand Register of Missouri as Burlington Lodge, No. 41. Subsequently, three more lodges were warranted by Missouri. The four then operating in the Territory of Iowa decided to form an independent Grand Lodge in Iowa. This was done on January 2, 1844.

The Grand Master gave his opinion that the greatest need in Iowa today is more new lodges in the suburbs of the larger cities. The population shift in the State is reducing the size of rural lodges, necessitating consolidations. The Grand Master also stated that "one of the highlights" of his year as Grand Master was attendance at our Annual Communication. He declared his determination to visit again some time in the future. He would be most welcome.

The list of dispensations granted shows that five lodges moved to new Temples.

The Committee on Lodges Chartered and under Dispensation included in their report a list of the ten Masons in the jurisdiction with the longest Masonic record. One was raised in 1888 and two in 1889. The shortest Masonic career of the ten was seventy-three years.

After writing the Fraternal Reviews for Iowa for eight years M.W. Bro. R. R. Douglass, P.G.M., was forced to give up the task owing to his responsibilities as a member of the Board of Trustees and the Jurisprudence Committee. Since his efforts stood out, as this reviewer has more than once recorded, his fellow reviewers cannot but express their regrets. Fortunately, a worthy successor was found in R.W. Bro. E. A. Hamilton, P.J.G.W. He produced a solid eighty pages of detailed analysis of some seventy-five proceedings. Since each page contains three or four hundred words more than our reviews the extent of his work readily becomes apparent.

The members of one of the lodges in the Grand Jurisdiction asked if they could present M.W. Bro. Douglass with a certificate of honorary membership. Unfortunately, the 1959 Book of Decisions states: "Honorary lodge membership is not provided for in the Code and is illegal." Furthermore, dual memberships are forbidden in Iowa. Thus Bro. Douglass was deprived of fitting recognition. At the same time the proposal did show the esteem in which he is held.

IRELAND — 1965

Annual Report of the St. John's Day Meeting and the Report of the Grand Secretary

Grand Master — M.W. Bro. The Rt. Hon. The Earl of Donoughmore

The Annual Report of the Grand Lodge is largely given over to reports from the Provincial Grand Masters. Since there are twenty, covering from Antrim to Eastern India, with such places as New Zealand, Southern Africa, Rhodesia and Natal between, there is a great deal of detail presented. The Provincial Grand Master of Antrim presented his first report, regretfully he had to admit. His predecessor had died in his ninetieth year after sixteen years in the office. An active Grand Lodge officer "of tremendous ability" of such a ripe old age deserves to be remembered. He was R.W. Bro. Major Rupert Stanley.

In Armagh a new lodge was formed and most of the lodges in the province took steps to improve their buildings. In Down there are 210 lodges. The Provincial Grand Master gave his opinion that, since some are very large, they could, with advantage, establish additional lodges in their areas. Meath saw much fruitful progress. Several of the Provincial Grand Lodges reported an increase in membership. Unfortunately, all reported the loss of stalwart members. Any reader of these reports is left with an impression of enthusiastic activity and progress. Eastern India, perhaps, is the province having the greatest difficulty.

The Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary represented the Grand Master at the centenary celebrations of De Burgh Adams Lodge, No. 446, New Plymouth, New Zealand. The Grand Lodge of Ireland had a very large part to play in the introduction of Freemasonry to New Zealand.

Grand Master, elect — M. W. Bro. Jacob Segal

We have not reviewed the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Israel since 1962. Since reviewers in other jurisdictions seem also to have omitted this Grand Lodge we can only assume that the information has not been received in a form which can be read by most reviewers. The publication now received is "Haboneh Hanofshi" which means "The Freemason", volume XXXII, No. 4. Starting at the back and coming forward are thirty-two pages in Hebrew characters. Starting at the front (following our custom) are twelve pages in English.

The Report of the Grand Secretary is to us the most significant section of the publication. He tells that, during the year, the Grand Lodge held not only the Installation of the Grand Master and the Annual Communication but also three Quarterly Communications. A Special Communication was held on March 31 to inaugurate Jacob Caspi Lodge, No. 56, in Haifa.

The Grand Secretary, R.W. Bro. J. B. Ner, reported:

"In his addresses to the Brethren at the Communications of Grand Lodge, the Grand Master spoke of the problem of the scientists who were working in Egypt and the danger threatening our country as a result; he mourned the death of our great and outstanding Brother Winston Churchill; he spoke of the steps to erect the 'Lesser Masonic Temple' on Mount Zion; the libellous article on Freemasonry which was published in the Egyptian Military Journal and the forwarding of copies to our Grand Representatives abroad and to Grand Lodges throughout the world; also of the prospects in erecting a 'Temple of Peace' in Jerusalem, with the assistance of Grand Lodges in other countries."

The Grand Master Elect, who assumed office in January, 1966, is a Judge.

The coincidence of having successive Grand Masters with the same surname, was not commented on by any speaker at the Annual Communication.

The Grand Master told of his high regard for the District Deputy Grand Masters who had served with him. The number was reduced from seventy-nine to sixty-three the year before. From his remarks it would appear that they are appointed by the Grand Master.

The Report of Committee on Foreign Relations told of four "novel occasions" which they doubted would ever occur again in the Jurisdiction. The Grand Master conducted an open air Grand Lodge on the Santa Fe Trail on the site of a battle between those using the trail and a body of Indians.

"The scene was an effective one, and while there were no covered wagons drawn up in a circle for protection from the Indians, as was the case on July 18, 1864, when the battle occurred, there were pedestals of water barrels, a rustic Altar surrounded with burning tapers made of hedge posts and wrapped with gunny sacks steeped in kerosene. The tapers were approximately 10 feet high and burned with a bright glow that illuminated the whole area.

"In the background there was a covered wagon with the loud speaker equipment and near by a large kettle had been arranged for the coffee drinkers to dip out the warming liquid in old fashioned tin cups."

The purpose of the meeting was to commemorate "under a full moon" many distinguished Masons who used the old trail and the communities along the trail as well as many thousands of Masons who had lived near the trail and dedicated their lives to Masonry and their fellow men. Two hundred Masons were present.

The Grand Master held a Special Communication on a moving train, the Santa Fe Chief, to pay recognition and respect to an unnamed conductor who had befriended him thirty years before.

The third "novel occasion" was the opening of a Special Communication at the 624 foot level of a salt mine. The purpose was to honour Masons in the mining industry.

"The chamber or tunnel, mined out of pure rock salt, was well lighted approximately 12 feet high, 40 feet wide and some 3,000 feet long. Only the first 150 feet of the lead was used for lodge purposes. Empty powder boxes or crates were arranged for seats, the altar was a large cube of pure rock salt and the most interesting part of the furniture was the lesser lights which displayed three miner's lamps mounted on three stacked miner's picks on which hung a miner's cap."

Finally, a meeting of Grand Lodge was held in a petroleum warehouse "to pay tribute to the many Masons in the petroleum industry who have been active in Masonry."

The same Committee reported on a matter which did not appear to have been mentioned by the Grand Master. The brief paragraph tells the whole story:

"It is pleasing to know that our Grand Master refused a request to establish a Lodge in England, for in that country there are many regular lodges and we can see no good reason for the establishment of a military or travelling lodge in a country like England, which has the oldest Grand Lodge in the world and probably one of the most substantial. We do not believe that our Grand Lodge could afford such an innovation."

KENTUCKY — 1964

Grand Master, 1963-64 — M.W. Bro. J. E. Dawson
Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. J. C. McClanahan

Lodges, 470. Membership, 100,000. Loss, 97.

The Grand Master found, as his predecessors in the jurisdiction did before him and many other Grand Masters have also discovered, that the District Deputy Grand Masters, thirty-seven in number, who served with him, were capable, efficient and helpful.

The Grand Lodge suffered a grievous loss through the death of M.W. Bro. A. E. Orton, Grand Secretary. He was born in Kentucky in 1875. He served as Master of Al. E. Orton Lodge, No. 628, three times, was Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, 1923-24, and was elected Grand Secretary in 1935. He served until his death on October 17, 1964, three days before Grand Lodge was opened.

M.W. Bro. Orton's report, which was completed before his death, showed no change in the total number of lodges. Actually, the 470 figure reflected the consolidation of four lodges into two and the instituting of two new lodges. Consequently, there has been a strengthening in the jurisdiction. The net loss of 97 was well below the 200 in 1963 and 358 in 1962. It does seem incredible, however, that all the changes in membership totals should have brought the total membership to exactly 100,000.

One entry for "free members" shows that 50-year members, totalling 1,165, evidently do not pay dues.

The Committee on College Scholarships reported that ten students from the Masonic Home had received scholarships which totalled over $6,000.00.

W. Bro. Rogers reported on Fraternal Relations and reviewed the Proceedings of sixty-eight Grand Lodges. He wrote: "Our reviews of the Annual Proceedings of sixty-eight Grand Lodges indicate that Freemasonry continues to exert its beneficent influence throughout all nations of the free world. Our only regret is to have to report that nations dominated by Communism and dictatorial heads of government, still continue to outlaw our fraternity within the confines of their domains."

He clearly has forgiven us for omitting Kentucky from our Reviews in 1962. In writing of our Grand Jurisdiction he says: "This commentator feels very close to this Grand Lodge by reason of cherished friendship with Brothers Treleaven, Dixon, Hearn, Martyn, Pitts and many others. The life-long rewards of this fellowship cannot be recorded in space available." This reviewer, in turn, thanks Bro. Rogers for his description of "splendid comments" applied to our Reviews.

Perhaps something over thirty Proceedings of Grand Lodges contain Reviews and all reflect careful reading by the reviewers. Those of Bro. Rogers, as we have said twice before, stand out. This reviewer has often thought that reviewers should form a fraternity of their own and pool their efforts. If each member dealt with two or three volumes the year's work could be done.

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. J. C. McClanahan

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. Thomas Burchett, Jr.

Membership, 100,235.

Gain, 235.

The Grand Secretary's Report is the highlight of the Proceedings. He said, and justifiably, "It is always a pleasure to report that progress has been made in this Grand Jurisdiction and it is in a prosperous condition as far as membership and finances are concerned. We had a gain of 235 members this year in comparison to a loss during the years 1962, 1963 and 1964." Actually in 1961 the gain was only nine, consequently the increase was significant. The losses, however, have also been declining. The low year was 1962.

The Grand Secretary attributed the forward movement to the fine programmes provided by the Grand Masters. He concluded "We must continue to provide the type of leadership that will give to the Craft a challenging programme to further the cause of Masonry in the Commonwealth." Unfortunately, the Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. James W. Elam, felt that he could not continue in his office on account of his health.

The Masonic Widows and Orphans' Home of Kentucky will be one hundred years old on January 15, 1967. At the Home they are preparing a roster of widows and orphans who have lived there during the century. It will be most interesting to know "how many young people have lived there and what manner of citizens they turned out to be." This is the oldest known chartered Masonic Home in the world. The Superintendent added that "its policies and services have not changed much since its charter was granted." During the twelve months reported on, 224 widows and 64 children lived in the Home.

In addition, the Grand Lodge maintains The Old Masons' Home of Kentucky at Shelbyville. During the year there were 151 residents. The average age is just over eighty. Twelve residents are over ninety. The oldest is ninety-eight. With an age group, such as this, the infirmary, inevitably, needs to be enlarged.

The Committee on College Scholarships reported that thirteen students from the Masonic Home had received scholarships to attend college. The amount budgeted for scholarships for 1965-66 was $9,500.

Since the subordinate lodges of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky do not have uniform work and the "ritualistic work is becoming varied and altered in many sections of the State, a Committee on Uniform Ritual proposed that the Grand Master appoint a committee "with instruction to study and decide upon some uniformity in the ritualistic work, and a practical manner of promulgating the same to the Craft in the subordinate lodges."

LOUISIANA—1965

154th Annual Communication — February 1-2

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. W. A. Downs

Gain, 78.

The review of the Proceedings of Louisiana for 1964 reported that the Grand Master had recommended the appointment of a committee to study the problem of the laying of cornerstones created by modern architecture and building materials. A committee was appointed and reported their conclusions. They felt that it is entirely proper to set slabs, plaques or markers with Masonic ceremonies when the traditional cornerstone it not feasible. But they added, the ceremony should be specifically outlined for the occasion instead of undertaking to adapt the present cornerstone ritual. They recommended that the Committee on Work, with such assistance as they might require, be directed to prepare a suitable ritual.

The Grand Master asked the Committee on Masonic Education and Two Grand Lecturers to prepare a Masonic Education Programme for the Grand Lodge session. The report of their efforts covers twenty-one pages of the Proceedings. While all topics covered would be of interest to any Mason the remarks of Bro. Sharp, Grand Lecturer on Masonic manners, were particularly opposite. As he said, most laws governing lodge procedure are to be found in the Louisiana handbook and other places, but Masonic etiquette is not controlled by any strict written code of laws and no penalty is assessed the offender, "Decorum and individual behaviour are dictated by custom, tradition and good common sense, and are essential to the proper practice of our ceremonies and to the best relationships between individual members."

Published proceedings, being a record of the actions of a Grand Lodge naturally tell little of the customs of the constituent lodges. The Grand Lecturer's remarks, however, give an insight into two customs not known in our jurisdiction. The first dealt with the wearing of a hat by the Master of a lodge. The speaker said that this is the exclusive privilege of the Master of the lodge.

"Wearing of a hat by the Worshipful Master is his exclusive privilege. It is indicative of his peculiar position and authority in the Lodge, similar to that of a king over his subjects. Wearing of the hat other than as prescribed during certain ceremonies is the Master's privilege and may be removed at will, though to frequent 'snatching' of the hat tends to minimize its importance as a symbol of power. It is entirely proper for him to remain covered and seated while participating in discussions. We might add that the hat should be one of which neither Master nor Lodge need be ashamed."

The second dealt with smoking in the lodge room.

"The adoption of rules regulating smoking is the prerogative of the individual Lodge or other body, yet it might be in order to make certain observations in this very important area of our relations. The smoker should always be considerate of the non-smoker and mindful of the fact that the privilege could be lost if abused. Some Lodges have restricted smoking to specified areas of the Lodge room and to designated times, and some have banned the habit entirely during the conferring of degrees. These rules seem fair to all concerned unless, of course, the members are willing to prohibit smoking altogether. Regardless of the latitude permitted, the officers should refrain from smoking during degree work. It is discourteous and possibly offensive to the candidate for an officer to instruct him while devoting a generous amount of his time and attention to a cigarette or cigar."

The French expression, appropriate enough in view of the early history of Louisiana, "autre temps, autre moeurs,"— manners change with the times—might be rendered “autre loges, autre moeurs.”

A final paragraph, although not greatly in need of saying in our jurisdiction, might well be kept in mind when a Master or chairman of a meeting is telephoning or writing to a prospective speaker.

“Many Worshipful Masters have been negligent in extending courtesies and giving due attention to guest speakers, not because they wish to be, but because of insufficient experience and planning. An efficient Master will be careful to furnish a speaker all pertinent facts pertaining to a program: type, such as Past Masters’ night, rededication, public education, presentation of certificates, etc.; some understanding as to subject, and time to be allotted him; whether he will be the principal speaker; and whether it will be an open or closed meeting. This latter information is most important. On many occasions the speaker has arrived prepared to speak in a tiled Lodge only to discover that the ladies would be present, and thus be compelled to alter his speech or perhaps use an entirely different subject. He should be told whether refreshments will be light or a full meal, and the time of serving. A proper introduction of the speaker should be made, and the principal address should be the last number on the program. No further discussions or talks by the brethren should be permitted, as they would be anti-climatic and discourteous to the principal speaker.”

The Grand Lecturer might have added that a speaker should be told when he is expected to arrive and what is customarily worn by those taking part on the occasion being planned.

146th Annual Communication — May 4-5

Grand Master, 1962-64 — M.W. Bro. R. M. Rideout

Grand Master, 1964-66 — M.W. Bro. W. H. Campbell

Lodges, 209.

Membership, 46,845.

Loss, 344.

The largest lodge in the jurisdiction is Hiram, No. 180, with 1,206 members and Naskeag, No. 171, is the smallest with 46. Thirty-three lodges have fewer than 100 members.

The Committee on Condition of the Fraternity was not disturbed by the net loss in membership pointing out that in the years 1961, 1962 and 1963 there was an average of 100 fewer Master Masons raised each year than in the preceding year. In 1964 and 1965 the figures were only 20 and 21 respectively. They noted a great variation in one district where there had been a net gain over ten years though five lodges showed losses and ten showed gains. The explanation was "a shift in population and a trend of fewer petitioners to the urban lodges." They concluded: "These changing patterns of city population are a problem of our city lodges of which we should take note." Eighteen lodges had no outstanding dues for two years. In general, however, the total of dues outstanding was a matter of some concern.

The final paragraph of the Committee's report, though saying things which have been said before in other ways and in other jurisdictions, is a clear and sound statement on "Quality."

"Despite the foregoing comments, it is the opinion of this committee that the condition of the fraternity as a whole is sound. But to maintain it as a sound and healthy fraternity we must ever be mindful of quality in every particular. Quality in the petitioners must be required, and never let the standard be lowered to maintain numbers. Quality in the officers appointed and elected must be demanded. Quality in the administration of the affairs of a lodge and particularly in financial matters must be the guide. Quality of the highest degree in the exemplification of the work should be the constant goal. And all of these can be assured if quality of support of the Past Masters is maintained at a high level."

M.W. Bro. Pollard, once again compiled an impressive body of reviews for his Report of Correspondence. With this report he completed twenty years as chairman of the committee. He began by telling of M.W. Bro. Josiah H. Drummond, who, in 1865, began writing reviews and continued the service for thirty-seven years. The principles this great Masonic authority inaugurated are still followed by his successors.

This year, Bro. Pollard had some remarks to make on Fraternal Correspondence and those who write reviews. The paragraph is given here in full but not necessarily with complete endorsement. Not all reviewers are of his undeniable competence.

"We are a firm believer in the value and importance of these reports, both as a record of current happenings throughout the Masonic world and as a forum for the serious discussion of important Masonic questions. The writers of these reports are, of necessity, the best informed Masons of their time. By their study of the Proceedings of sister Grand Lodges, year after year, by their extensive correspondence, and by their constant exchange of opinions among themselves, these reviewers have acquired a practical knowledge of present-day Freemasonry which could have been obtained in no other way, and which enables them to speak with authority on the Masonic issues which they discuss. Some of our ablest Masonic scholars have always engaged in this work, and their writings have done much to influence and to unify Masonic thinking throughout the world. We have learned much from our Colleagues of the Round Table, both past and present, and we are proud to be counted as one of their distinguished fellowship."

Once again, the Grand Lodge Officers laid cornerstones for non-Masonic buildings. The custom is well established in the Province. This year the cornerstones included those for a collegiate and an Anglican church.

Planning is progressing for a Masonic Memorial Temple which "has now passed from the stage of an optimistic dream to an assured reality." Architect's plans were to be prepared by autumn. So far the site chosen is that of the present Temple. However, the Committee is open minded if another site appears to be more suitable.

The report presented to Grand Lodge told something of the thoughts of the planners.

"It has been suggested that the Memorial Temple should emphasize a Manitoba motif. Manitoba materials should be used in the construction and finishing of the temple whenever these are practical. Manitoba craftsmen should be engaged to design and supply the interior furnishings. The architects are enthusiastic about this idea and have provided sketches of their conception of the lounge areas which we can all see in the registration hall adjoining this meeting room.

"With regard to the planning of the interior, the space reserved for the use of Grand Lodge has been fairly well established. The constituent lodges have stated their requirements and these will be provided. The Scottish Rite bodies have indicated they may need additional facilities which they will pay for and that these details will be settled this fall. And thus it is that the various parts are being brought together to culminate in a Memorial Temple in which we may take proper pride and from which we shall find abiding satisfaction."

The Grand Historian told of the career of John Palmer Bourke, a Freemason, who arrived at the Red River in 1819. He had been in the area before that date as an agent of the Earl of Selkirk. This earliest Mason in the present Manitoba died in 1851 leaving five sons and three daughters. Six of his direct descendants, three named Bourke and three named Chapman, were present at the Annual Communication.

In 1964 the Grand Lodge stopped printing reviews at the back of the Proceedings for reasons of economy. A brief summary was printed instead. The same practice was followed this year.

The Grand Master pointed out, as he had done before, that the lodges in the City of Baltimore were not flourishing, whereas he could point to some lodge in a county nearby where a small group had grown to a strong, influential and sound lodge. Part of the explanation is the shift of population from Baltimore City. Another explanation, not brought out by the Grand Master, may rest with the size of the lodges. The thirty-seven Baltimore lodges have a total membership of over 22,000, for an average of almost exactly 600 members per lodge. The six largest have memberships of 1,332, 1,307, 1,213, 829, 823 and 785 respectively. The ninety-one county lodges have a total of something over 25,000 members, or an average of about 280. Of recent years many Grand Masters, in various jurisdictions, have spoken in favour of smaller lodges. On the other hand the net loss in membership actually was not great, being more than accounted for by 193 suspensions n.p.d. and 129 demitted.

The newly-installed Grand Master announced that he was setting up a speakers' bureau. The purpose is to make speakers available to lodges on request. He did ask that the bureau be given plenty of notice and that special efforts be made to have a good attendance.

The name of Roscoe Pound stands out among the teachers of law. His twenty years as Dean of the Harvard Law School and subsequent eleven years as a teacher there are well-known. Less well-known is his preeminence as a Masonic leader and scholar. His death on July 1, 1964, in his 94th year, was reported in the Proceedings in a four page obituary. At the time of his death he was the Senior Deputy Grand Master of Massachusetts. He was a member of lodges in Nebraska, where he was elected Worshipful Master, Illinois and Massachusetts. "It is significant that as soon as Brother Pound changed his residence he immediately changed his Masonic affiliations." In 1922 he played an active role in the founding of The Harvard Lodge at Harvard University, of which he became a charter member.

"While not a regular attendant at Lodge Meetings, during his latter years he participated many times in special events, notably the 40th Anniversary of The Harvard Lodge in 1962. No one who was present will ever forget the occasion in December 1962 when at the age of 92 he participated in the Installation of our Present Grand Master by taking his place as our Senior Past Deputy Grand Master in the formal procession.

"He served the Grand Lodge of Nebraska as Grand Orator from 1906 to 1908, and in 1949 was elected Honorary Past Grand Master of Masons in Nebraska. In Massachusetts he first achieved Masonic prominence as a result of a series of Masonic lectures at the Acacia Fraternity at Harvard, which were attended by Most Worshipful Melvin M. Johnson."

He was appointed Deputy Grand Master of Massachusetts in 1915. The career of Roscoe Pound makes us realize that Masonry possesses rich qualities if they can capture and hold the interest of such a distinguished scholar.

In keeping with the programme of renovation and re-decoration of the Temple in Boston, during the summer, Gothic Hall which occupies most of the seventh floor of the building, was completely redecorated. This was a most expensive undertaking owing to the elaborate decorations and the difficulty and extent of the hand labour involved in maintaining the atmosphere of a mediaeval setting. Nevertheless, it was felt that this section should be brought up to the same standards of beauty and usefulness as the other parts of the building.

The Grand Lodge Library was 150 years old in 1964. The Proceedings contain an eight page history of the library which now contains at least 50,000 volumes. With few exceptions the collections include complete sets of the Proceedings "of all the Grand Lodges and Collateral bodies in the United States and Canada."

MEXICO (YORK)—1965

103rd Annual Communication — March 13

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. R. E. Dobson

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. A. G. Wygard

Lodges, 9.

Membership, 586.

Loss, 4.

The Grand Master elected to office for the year 1965-66 served in the Canadian Army during World War II and after. He went to Mexico City in 1950, to manage a family business concern. He was initiated in Mexico.

The Grand Master, 1964-65, in his address, pointed out the perversity of some circumstances. "We are completing a year where perfect peace and harmony have prevailed and are grateful to the G.A.O.T.U. for this blessing, but the elimination of controversial subjects and problems has definitely created a kind of dormant situation that is quite alarming. So many things seem to work in reverse."

The Grand Chaplain told something of the work being done in Mexico, including one interesting sidelight.

"It was my privilege to make an Official visit to Guadalajara No. 5 on the occasion of its Installation of Officers in January. This was a thrilling event. This is, in my opinion, the fastest growing and most progressive Lodge in the Jurisdiction. Some eighty persons attended the open Installation Program, about one half were Master Masons. A fine spirit is apparent among the brethren, and an appreciation for the Spiritual values of Masonry was evidenced."

MICHIGAN — 1965

139th Annual Communication — May 25-26

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. C. F. Dorr

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. P. H. Williams

Lodges, 540.

Membership, 168,003.

The roll of Lodges in order of number shows that eight active lodges in the jurisdiction were warranted in 1864, eighteen in 1865, seventeen in 1866 and no fewer than twenty-six in 1867. This record indicates that there must have been a great increase in population after the Civil War. Masonic activity and interest must have been great a century ago and lodge centennials consequently are scarcely news in Michigan today.

During the year three Temples were destroyed, one by fire and two by tornado. One of the last two was new. The Grand Master pointed out that these losses should cause each lodge to re-examine its insurance policies.

The Committee which deals with the history of the jurisdiction devoted their report to an account of the first five Grand Chaplains of the Grand Lodge of Michigan. In spite of the fact that the first served in 1826 the Committee was able to find a great deal of information on all of them. There were some gaps in the table of officers. The explanation is to be found in the biography of the second Grand Chaplain. "When the Grand Lodge of Michigan F. & A.M., resumed labors after the Morgan Episode (1826-1841), Rev. Silsby was elected as Grand Chaplain June 2, 1841." One fact which emerges from the biographies is the way clergy moved from place to place in those days.

The most significant amendment to the Constitution, proposed by the Board of General Purposes, provided for state-wide concurrent jurisdiction. The amendment was carried and the Grand Master congratulated the members of Grand Lodge for putting the good of Michigan Masonry before individual interest.

MINNESOTA—1965

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. P. M. Alstad

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. F. E. Edey

Lodges, 287.

Membership, 67,973.

Loss, 853.

Though plagued by illness, the Grand Master accomplished a great deal. The recommendations in his address made a point which has not been noticed before by this reviewer. In Minnesota, and in many other jurisdictions, the Grand Master makes recommendations in his address. Frequently no action is taken and the idea, put forward in all sincerity, by a leader in the Craft, is buried in the Proceedings. M.W. Bro. Alstad recommended that a committee be appointed to review the recommendations of his predecessors back to 1948. The old recommendations, which, in the view of the committee, have merit, could be brought out again. The Proceedings for 1966 will doubtless tell us whether yet another apparently valuable recommendation has once again been buried.

The Grand Master urged the continuance of the Minnesota Mason. This publication has a circulation of over 65,000. The budget for the year was $16,000 and the editors kept within that figure by $20.95. The Grand Master's wish was supported and the Committee on Appropriations earmarked $15,000 for the publication. The same committee also appropriated $1,500 for four essay scholarships.

MISSISSIPPI—1965

147th Annual Communication — February 9-10

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. Q. C. Young
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. R. M. Anderson

Lodges, 313. Membership, 50,487. Loss, 147.

During the year two lodges were consecrated, dedicated and constituted: Fellowship Lodge, No. 630, Biloxi, and John P. Byrd Lodge, No. 629, Pearl.

The Grand Lodge, on the recommendation of the Fraternal Correspondent, recognized the Grand Lodge of Turkey. The Fraternal Correspondent provided an informative note:

"It requires the presence of the Three Great Lights of Masonry in the Lodge while at work, chief among them the Three Sacred Books of the Divine Law; namely, the Old Testament, the Bible, and the Koran. Membership is made up solely of men, admitted without discrimination as to Jews, Christians or Moslems, the Lodge record bearing no mention about the Brethren's creed or nationality. It abides by all the Ancient Landmarks, traditions, customs, and usages of the Craft, as set forth in the Masonic Constitution of the Grand Lodge of England in 1723."

The Fraternal Correspondent also put forward an original proposal regarding Grand Representatives:

"Let me suggest that consideration be given to taking steps to make Grand Representatives of Grand Lodges—particularly those of other nations—more important and meaningful, such as is done in the Grand Lodge of Victoria, requiring all Grand Representatives to actually communicate with their Grand Lodge and make a report to our Grand Lodge on matters of interest published in the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge represented. A formal roll-calling, with Grand Representatives standing before the Grand Master to be welcomed, looks nice; but would be much more significant if each had submitted a written report on events in his represented Grand Lodge. Such reports could be condensed by the Fraternal Correspondent, and included for publication each year."

In view of the already full agenda at the Annual Communication of our own Grand Lodge, the proposal would not appear to be feasible. But he certainly suggests a painless way to secure a large body of reviews.

MISSOURI — 1965

144th Annual Communication — September 28-29

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. G. F. Morrison

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. A. B. Vanlandingham

Lodges, 590.

Membership, 118,486.

Loss, 997.

Grand Masters have much to do and their path is not made easier by some of the problems they are asked to rule on. Under "Decisions" the Grand Master of Missouri was asked "to approve the raising of funds for a new lodge hall by selling chances on a beef" that was to be donated by a member of the lodge. The Grand Master declared raffles or games of chance were not condoned.

One problem came up which must be almost unique in the annals of Freemasonry in America. The Grand Master's ruling was worth noting.

"A petitioner who is a member of the Moslem faith requested the lodge to replace the Holy Bible with the Koran.

"Decision. The lodge was advised that it is permissible for the Koran to be placed on the altar alongside the Holy Bible, so that his hand can rest upon both books; however, the Koran cannot be placed upon the Holy Bible, nor replace same. The Missouri ritual and language must be adhered to in its entirety without exception."

In Missouri the Grand Lodge lays many cornerstones not only for Masonic buildings but also schools and colleges. On two occasions, with some months between, at the same place, the Grand Orator was the Governor of the State of Missouri. Although the Governor had changed each was a member of the Craft. One humorous situation encountered by the Grand Master arose when he was telephoned just before a stone was to be laid and was told it was not ready and would he please lay a papier-maché model in its place. He refused. In due time the proper stone was laid.

The Missouri Lodge of Research, with the help of the Sesquicentennial Committee, will publish a history of the Grand Lodge to coincide with the anniversary celebration.

During the year administrative problems arose in connection with three cemeteries owned by lodges. The problems were not difficult but the number involved suggests that it may not be uncommon in Missouri for lodges to own and administer cemeteries.

MONTANA—1965

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. M. E. Sanford

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. E. A. Neath

Lodges, 141.

Membership, 24,634.

Loss, 232.

The year saw two observations revived. Many years ago the feasts of St. John the Evangelist and St. John the Baptist were celebrated by the Masons of Montana. Fifty-four lodges held meetings on December 27 and fifty-six were prevented by cold, wind and snow. June 6 also saw celebrations but returns were not available in time for reporting to the Annual Communication. The Grand Master officially authorized "the use of the Table Lodge ceremony, and such ceremony to be conducted in the Lodge dining room." The ritual for the ceremony was provided by the Grand Secretary's office.

The list of dispensations records that Century Lodge, No. 100, Milk River, Alberta, visited Shelby Lodge, No. 143, Shelby, and exemplified a second degree on their own candidate. Subsequently, Shelby Lodge "journeyed" to Milk River with their charter to meet with Century Lodge "to exemplify the third degree ritual on their own candidate . . . using the approved Montana ritual."

The Grand Secretary's Report shows that the largest Lodge in the jurisdiction has 899 members while the smallest has 24. The average membership is 174.7.

All Grand Lodge charity and relief activities are channelled through the Montana Masonic Foundation which was organized in 1960. The Foundation has been granted full income tax exemption by the Federal Revenue Service and the State of Montana. This means that all contributions made to the Foundation are fully income tax exempt. Since all disbursements from various funds administered by the body are apparently made to those with some Masonic connection or affiliation, it would seem that United States income tax laws operate differently from Canadian. The name of one of the funds gives a hint of the early history of the State: the Vigilante Memorial Fund.

NEBRASKA — 1965

108th Annual Communication — June 8-9

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. H. A. Spencer

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. L. V. Sylvester

Lodges, 271.

Membership, 44,897.

Loss, 273.

During the year a tornado levelled the Town of Primrose. The Masonic Temple, a two-storey building, was carried away leaving a vacant lot. The members determined to rebuild and received much encouragement from Grand Lodge and constituent lodges.

The Grand Master expressed his disapproval of some of the lodge halls in the jurisdiction. "Some are in buildings that are a disgrace to the organization." As many other Grand Masters have pointed out he said: "If our Temples are shabby and neglected, what happens to our status in the public eye? Can we blame our neighbors for believing the worst about an organization which does not move its members to take sufficient pride in their surroundings to remedy the situation which exists? I do know that if the members have a desire to better their situation, it can be done."

In the same vein, he found that many of the halls are on second or third floors, reached by steep stairs. He told of one lodge which installed a conveyance, which remedied the situation, for $800.

Speaking of the state of the Craft, the Grand Master gave his views on the best size for a lodge. In the jurisdiction the smallest lodge has 24 members, the largest over 1,700. "The former is too small, the latter too large": He continued:

"I sincerely believe that if the resident membership of any lodge is more than twice as large as its facilities can accommodate, that lodge is too large to serve the purposes of its members. An active lodge of 200 is much better for its members than a lodge of 1,000 with facilities for 200. Why am I concerned? My experience this year, with one exception, has convinced me that the poorest proportional attendance is in our larger lodges. They are rusting out because they are more interested in building bank accounts than a fraternal structure. It is time, brethren, that we did some serious soul searching on this phobia of bigness. It stands to reason that four smaller but active lodges do much more for us than one big lodge, a majority of whose members are dying on the vine of Masonry."

The Grand Master, a highly-trained attorney, member of the Bar of Nebraska for thirty-six years and sometime professor of law, presented a clear and well-reasoned address which, as he said, "may have sounded brutally frank". He intended it to be so. He concluded:

"I am not one to be disturbed when interest in Masonry seems to be waning or there is a decline in membership, if we do our part to make certain that those who become Masons understand the nature of the fraternity. We have had periods of decline in the past. We have had periods when Masonry seemed to be vanishing entirely. Because there has never been anything wrong with Masonry except the human element, it always, although very slowly at times, has come back and in each instance it has become even stronger than before. I am convinced that as in the past, the trend of Masonry is ever onward and upward. If, however, we are to cope with a temporary period of decline, it is necessary that we put the human element in order."

NEVADA — 1964

100th Annual Communication — November 9-10

Grand Master, 1963-64 — M.W. Bro. F. N. Fisher
Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. H. G. McCullogh

Lodges, 34. Membership, 6,890. Gain, 169.

The Grand Master, as is generally the case in Nevada, found the Craft healthy. The difficulties of some of the smaller, remote lodges are being resolved by interested Masons through plural membership. This jurisdiction, by permitting plural memberships, shows one of the values which can accrue from the custom. Furthermore, one lodge, with a membership of only 253 members, took some of its degree work to two smaller lodges, thereby giving them active working calendars. It would be interesting to know how widely such an arrangement would be permitted. Incidentally, the lodge concerned raised forty-four Master Masons during the year. This surprising relationship of new members to the total memberships can probably be explained by the fact that the lodge concerned, Daylite, No. 44, was chartered only in 1961, and evidently is located in a greatly expanding community.

The centennial of the Grand Lodge was scheduled to be celebrated early in the new year. The Grand Master reminded his hearers that previous legislation decreed that each lodge was required to have a history prepared and available for use on that date.

The Committee on Preservation of Records reported that all the Proceedings had been put on film up to 1962 in that year. The Grand Secretary's records were being processed in the same way.

NEW BRUNSWICK — 1965

98th Annual Communication — May 27

Grand Master, 1963-65 — M.W. Bro. H. D. Hopkins

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. P. E. Roy

Lodges, 48. Membership, 8,576. Loss, 112.

The roll of Grand Officers shows that the Grand Master is designated M.W.; the Deputy Grand Master, Senior Grand Warden, Junior Grand Warden, Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary are designated R.W.; but the Grand Chaplain and D.D.G.Ms are called V.W. The other officers have no special designation beyond Worshipful.

In 1963 the Grand Lodge made a start toward the setting up of a programme for awarding scholarships to the children of Masons. The committee, named for the purpose, awarded four scholarships of $500. each. These awards are tenable at university.

The Ritual Committee reported that the Grand Master had requested them "to consider something additional in the Entered Apprentice Degree to help strengthen it by having possibly all members present, assisting in part."

The Committee also recommended "the slight changing of the wording in the obligations of the three degrees to make the penalty clauses more effective. The words to be added will be 'Ever bearing in mind the ancient and traditional penalty of' and eliminating the words BMUNLAPTT."

The roll of D.D.G.Ms shows that these officers (there have been seven districts since 1938) often serve more than one year. Four terms seem to be the highest figure attained with any great frequency although one example of five years does show.

NEW HAMPSHIRE—1965

106th Semi-Annual Communication — November 21, 1964
176th Annual Communication — May 15

Grand Master, 1963-65 — M.W. Bro. G. B. Ward
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. H. E. Kimball

Lodges, 82. Membership, 17,153. Loss, 110.

A Special Communication of the Grand Lodge was opened "at the Cathedral of the Pines, Rindge," on Sunday June 28, 1964, to attend a special St. John's Day Service to celebrate the 175th anniversary of the founding of the Grand Lodge. Before the service the Grand Master and other Grand Lodge Officers unveiled and consecrated a bronze Masonic plaque to commemorate the occasion.

Following the ceremony the fifteenth annual St. John's Day Service was held with M.W. Bro. T. S. Roy as preacher for the occasion. Later in the day the Grand Lodge Officers dedicated a new Masonic Temple for Charity Lodge, No. 18, East Jaffrey.

Another Special Communication was held in the Masonic Temple, Portsmouth, once more to commemorate the founding of the Grand Lodge, in 1789. At the same time Anniversary Lodge of Research, No. 175, was consecrated and dedicated.

A table at the back of the Proceedings records the regulations of the Grand Jurisdictions of the United States and Canada regarding dual and plural membership within and outside the jurisdiction concerned. As is generally known, all Canadian jurisdictions, except Saskatchewan, permit plural membership without any restrictions. Saskatchewan permits dual and plural membership, within the jurisdiction, for life members only. Only fourteen Grand Lodges in the United States permit unlimited, and one restricted, freedom to affiliate within and without the States: Arizona, California, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Virginia, Wisconsin, and by dispensation only, South Carolina. Of course many more, indeed all but twelve, permit one membership outside the jurisdiction. Thirty-two do not permit plural membership under any circumstances.

NEW JERSEY — 1965

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. R. J. Behrens
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. W. W. Smith

Lodges, 292. Membership, 102,337. Loss, 1,329.

All lodges were represented at the Annual Communication. During the year the jurisdiction lost two Past Grand Masters, M.W. Bros. C. B. Folley and H. W. Earl. By coincidence, the former had been Grand Master during the 150th anniversary year in 1936 and the latter during the 175th anniversary year in 1961. Consequently, both their terms were replete with commemorative activities.

No fewer than six lodges celebrated their hundredth anniversaries, one its hundred and fiftieth and one, Brearley Lodge, No. 2, its hundred and seventy-fifth.

In 1964 a resolution was proposed and referred to a committee that the "Grand Lodge institute a Scholarship Fund to be supported by a 10 cent per capita assessment" to be used "for scholarship awards to boys and girls, regardless of race, creed, or color, to an accredited college or university of their choice." The resolution was approved and the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws will carry on from there. More and more Grand Jurisdictions are supporting bursary and scholarship programmes.

The Grand Lodge also approved an amendment to the Constitution by adding the words "except as authorized by the Grand Lodge." to the "19th General Regulation" which runs: "The use of any book, document or paper, written or printed, or in cipher, purporting to be the secret ritual of Freemasonry, is absolutely prohibited."

The Special Committee on Retirement Homes, established in 1964, requested that the Committee be reappointed. They thought further study was necessary as "there has been publicity concerning the establishment and operation of retirement homes, some of which publicity has not been entirely favorable." The proposal was approved.

NEW MEXICO — 1965

88th Annual Communication — March 22-23

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. G. O. Thorne

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. F. W. Blocksom

Lodges, 65. Membership, 15,417. Gain, 4.

As was shown under New Hampshire, New Mexico permits plural memberships. This freedom precipitated two scarcely to be expected problems for the Grand Master to rule on. In one, he set aside the election and installation of a secretary in a lodge who had also been installed as chaplain in another. In the other, the violation involved a Junior Deacon who already was secretary in another lodge.

The Grand Master called for a general observance of "a Feast of the Holy Saints John on an optional basis." The response was most heartening. Many lodges reported participation. A recommendation that "this noble old tradition" be adopted by the Grand Lodge was approved by the Committee on Jurisprudence.

The Committee on Revolving Student Loan Fund reported that since the inception of the Fund (the date was not given), 444 loans have been made for a total of $95,000. Of this amount $82,000 has been repaid.

The Special Committee on History and Grand Lodge Centennial submitted a lengthy report. The purpose of the Committee, instigated by the Grand Master, was to investigate the possibilities of creating an office of Grand Historian, compiling a formal history of Masonry in New Mexico and setting up a committee to plan for the Grand Lodge Centennial in 1977. The Committee evidently did a great deal of work. Regarding the office of Grand Historian, after sketching the various customs of appointment or election followed in other jurisdictions, they recommended that the office be created and that it be filled by annual appointment, but presumably to be held for a period of more than one year, possibly three or four. They also recommended that a start should begin on collecting material for a history, that a committee to plan the centennial be set up in 1974 and that a start be made immediately on collecting funds for the celebration. They are forward-looking in New Mexico.

NEW SOUTH WALES — 1965

Grand Master, 1962-66 — M.W. Bro. E. L. Beers

At the March Quarterly Communication the Grand Master told something of the Hunter Valley Masonic Private Hospital, at Shortland, Newcastle. This project is somewhat different from the usual type of hospital projects supported by Grand Jurisdictions. The Grand Master explained:

"The Hospital is neither a Convalescent nor a Nursing Home, nor is it an Aged Persons or Terminal Home. It is a Private Hospital, and the only persons qualified for admission are those classified by the Hon. Medical Director as acute, and then only those patients sent to the Hospital direct from Doctors.

"Provision has been made for physiotherapy and occupational therapy, with particular emphasis on geriatric assessment and rehabilitation, and the Hospital is exceptionally well appointed and equipped.

"Admission to the Hospital will not be restricted to those with Masonic affiliations. The intention is to admit all those persons, male or female, and irrespective of religion, who can best benefit from the excellent facilities provided.

"The Hospital is another example of Masonic charity in the true sense of the term, the capital cost of the land and building (some £57,000) have been provided from the funds of the Freemasons' Benevolent Institution of N.S.W., a fund to which all Masons in the state contribute; and the Masters' and Wardens' Association, Newcastle, raised from Newcastle Masons in the short period of five months the £13,000 necessary to furnish and equip the Hospital."

The wide range of Masonic charity in New South Wales is revealed in an announcement by the Grand Master that he had decided to hold "a Combined Fete" for the major Masonic Charities: The Freemasons Benevolent Institution, the Frank Whiddon Masonic Homes and the Masonic School Welfare Fund.

The change of the currency of Australia to dollars, effective February 14, 1966, raised the question as to whether all lodge bylaws should be amended. This was a contingency which might not occur to a person not resident of Australia. Actually there was no problem. The Currency Act covered the matter. All reference to the old currency can be taken as referring to the equivalent in the new.

NEW ZEALAND — 1964

75th Annual Communication — November 25

Grand Master, 1962-64 — M.W. Bro. F. Prideaux

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. J. S. Hawker

Lodges, 427.

Membership, 46,940.

Loss, 197.

As a reviewer goes through the various Proceedings he cannot fail to be struck by the variations in the design and decoration of the Grand Lodge regalia illustrated in the photographs of various Grand Lodge officers. The photographs of the officers of this jurisdiction show that the Masonic regalia of New Zealand is almost identical to our own. The officers also invariably wear full evening dress.

Eight lodges planned new buildings or additions and improvements to existing buildings. Two lodges, Southern Cross Lodge, No. 9, and Lodge United Service, No. 10, celebrated one hundred years of service during the year.

The report of the Library and Museum recorded the acquisition of a microfilm copy of the minutes of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of England, 1765-1893, and of Grand Lodge of Antients, 1774-1812. These documents will provide invaluable information for Masonic scholars in New Zealand. At the same time their acquisition suggests that there must be much active interest in Masonic research in the jurisdiction.

The Board of General Purposes devoted much time to the form of the Masonic Funeral Service and to the instructions to lodges with the view of overcoming difficulties and uncertainties, particularly where the responsibility was placed suddenly upon a new Master. They recommended the retention of The Ritual of a Lodge of Sorrow but abridged the Burial Service. The Board was of the opinion that the Service should be given orally, not read, and by one member only. The proposals, with one amendment, changing the form of the Benediction, were approved.

The Board, having learned that there were great variations in the presentation of the Working Tools at installations and the regulations that the form prescribed by the ritual was being ignored, recommended the repeal of the rulings in the matter. The proposal was referred back to the Board.

The net loss in membership shown above was the first recorded in over thirty years. Resignations almost equalled initiations. The President of the Board was at a loss to explain why more men are not attracted to the Craft. In his opinion the average length of membership of those who resigned was about ten years.

The newly-installed Grand Master, M.W. Bro. J. S. Hawker, gave a challenging address. He said in part:

"We have ample evidence in the reports of the Presidents of the Board of General Purposes and the Board of Benevolence of a successful administration of our affairs, gauged from a financial and materialistic viewpoint. I feel, in that respect, that we have good reason to congratulate ourselves for being successful in our Masonic effort.

"I venture, however, to assert that this view is erroneous, as true success can only be measured by the individual strength of our 'Brotherhood', and by the extent to which the community generally is benefiting from the manner in which we as Masons are exemplifying in our daily lives the principles inculcated by our institution. Taking this as a criterion, can we truthfully say that success has in the past crowned our work? I am afraid not. Every Masonic Lodge should, by the very character of its members, exercise a powerful influence for good in the community in which it exists, and our principles should, by the conduct of its members, be found permeating the civic and domestic life of its people.

"Do we not, however, find that coldness and indifference take the place of an active exemplification of Masonic truths and principles? This conduct on our part nullifies the aims and weakens the force of our institution.

"This fault lies on our own shoulders, as the majority of us are neglecting to put into practice in our daily avocations those principles clearly inculcated in our Lodges. Today we are living in a society which seems to have a complete disregard for the fundamental principle of our Order. We are faced with a situation wherein the physical and purely material things of life are more important than truth, character and love. Honesty and integrity are being pushed into the background; even good manners and courtesy are hard to find.

"I suggest that as Freemasons we should endeavour to practise first of all the small, simple, basic but good things of life, such as kindness, good manners, courtesy and friendliness. Make these attributes a part of our very being and character, so that we practise them every day of our lives, then the more difficult virtues, which we are bound to observe, will somehow come to us much easier.

"Our conduct would then make a more favourable impression upon the outside world, and would be the means of attracting to our banners the best of the community. Rest assured, brethren, if we are to get the best out of Freemasonry we must give of our best to its cause."

NORTH CAROLINA — 1965

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. G. D. Humphrey

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. S. A. Hennis, Jr.

Lodges, 370.

Membership, 64,520.

Gain, 557.

The Grand Master did not mince matters in his address. Speaking on the state of the Craft he said:

"During the past five or ten years several Masons have beset their brethren in this, as well as other Grand Jurisdictions with the many supposed ills of our Craft, and have proposed changes that should be made if we expect better attendance at our lodge meetings, and a better reputation among the profane, or should I say non-Masons. We have been told that we must catch up with twentieth century methods, even though these methods may be contrary to the Ancient Usages and Established Customs of the Fraternity. In short they have been trying to tell us what is wrong with Freemasonry. Brethren, there is nothing wrong with Freemasonry, though there are many things wrong with some, yes all too many, Freemasons."

The Special Committee on Dual and Plural Membership referred to in these Reviews, last year, came out strongly for the retention of the rule against dual membership. The argument of the Committee was that a Mason can enjoy all his rights and privileges wherever he may be located. Sentimental attachment to a mother lodge implies a secondary attachment to another lodge. The Committee also made something of the problems which might arise for secretaries if records had to be checked in other jurisdictions. Furthermore, in their view, the number of "sojourners" who might wish to affiliate was small. The Grand Lodge of North Carolina is sovereign, Masonically speaking, in that State and certainly it is not for us to say what might or might not be feasible in that jurisdiction. Suffice it to say that, as far as our own jurisdiction is concerned, dual and even plural memberships do not seem to be a problem. In spite of the unqualified opposition to the proposal by the Committee, the matter was deferred until the 1966 Annual Communication.

NORTH DAKOTA — 1965

76th Annual Communication — June 14-16

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. J. A. Sakariassen

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. A. P. Underdahl

Lodges, 118.

Membership, 12,980.

Loss, 295.

The Annual Communication opened at 8 p.m. Following the reception of visitors, as is customary, the proceedings began with an address by the Grand Historian. His remarks did not take the place of an address by the Grand Orator which frequently comes early in meetings of American Grand Lodges. His address on the Origin and Purpose of Masonry followed. While not arguing that speculative Masonry developed from the triad of China, which flourished as far back as 1100 B.C., the speaker did suggest that "the activities of the Triad and the Grand Lodge of England were much the same and their part in the society in which they worked were quite similar." This novel presentation was something not seen before by this reviewer in perhaps three hundred volumes of Proceedings read over the years. It does seem that the Grand Historian was on firmer ground when he concluded,

"It would seem that Modern Masonry being closely parallel and contemporary in its own teachings with the development of society must therefore be based upon and made up of those principles of human relationship which seek for the best in human society. This would indicate that it is very reasonable to assume that the future of Masonry should be as bright and inspirational as has been the past. Certainly society has not reached the ultimate in progress. There are many hurdles to surmount before it can be stated that there is no possibility of improvement. Masonic teachings, therefore, have not lost their usefulness. The world as a whole has more hungry people than are well fed. More people live in poverty and squalor than live in clean comfortable conditions. Too many are illiterate and ignorance abounds in many places. Bigotry and double dealing are common. Brotherly love, charity and knowledge are still the basis for much further progress in human society."

The Grand Orator gave his sixth annual address. He spoke in much the same vein as his predecessor. One sentence shows the tenor of his remarks: "I think the time has come when every Masonic Lodge and every Grand Lodge must restate in one form or another, and time and time again, the fundamental teachings of Freemasonry." The evening session closed after the appointment of some committees. The following day Grand Lodge opened promptly at 8.30 a.m.

The changes proposed in the Constitution included a reference to the North Dakota Masonic Foundation. One of the clauses stated:

"It shall have the North Dakota Masonic Foundation take title and control of the following parcels of real property: Lookout Point, Fort Buford Masonic Historical Site, Grave Site of Lt. Beaver, Lewis and Clark Historical Marker, Masonic Island and Pembina Masonic Park belonging to the Grand Lodge of North Dakota."

Whether or not the Foundation supports non-Masonic activities is not apparent in the Proceedings.

NOVA SCOTIA — 1965

100th Annual Communication — June 25-26

Grand Master, 1963-64 — M.W. Bro. R. C. Levy

Grand Master, 1964-66 — M.W. Bro. R. S. Longley

Lodges, 118.

Membership, 13,733.

Loss, 238.

M.W. Bro. Longley was re-elected Grand Master at the One Hundredth Annual Communication. Grand Masters in Nova Scotia may or may not succeed themselves. The roll of principal Grand Lodge Officers, since 1866, shows that one Grand Master served six consecutive years and subsequently another four. M.W. Bro. R. V. Harris, well-known to many in our jurisdiction, held the office for three years.

The Annual Communication opened with Divine Service at St. Matthew's United Church, Halifax. The Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Rev. Charles Shaver, preached. He appropriately took his text from the First Epistle to the Corinthians: "According to the commission of God given to me, like a skilled masterbuilder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it. Let each man take care how he build upon it." After speaking of the importance of foundations in buildings, he showed that all of us are given foundations in the form of our heritage: religious, cultural, political and so on. "Moses was skilled in all the knowledge of the Egyptians, Paul was 'an Hebrew of the Hebrews,' Mahammed knew something of Elkasite Christianity." We have other foundations laid by parents, teachers, politicians, and scientists. We tend to cling to the superstructure when perhaps the foundation would bear a better or more significant building.

The Grand Master drew attention to the need to preserve lodge records and to keep the history of all lodges up-to-date.

Dual memberships, which are discussed now and then in jurisdictions in the United States, came into the Proceedings when two neighbouring lodges, with a large number of dual members, requested that Grand Lodge dues of these dual members be remitted in one of the lodges. The Advisory Board stated that as they felt that "dual membership is really somewhat of a luxury for which dual members should be prepared to pay" they recommended no change in the method of assessment.

The same Board drew attention to the fact that bingo games and lotteries are contrary to the law and to the previous Ruling of Grand Masters and directed that letters of reprimand be sent to certain lodges. The request of a lodge to enter a float in a Dominion Day parade was refused by the Board as not in accord with Masonic practice.

OHIO — 1965

156th Annual Communication — October 15-16

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. E. L. Ott
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. G. F. DeSilver

Lodges, 676. Membership, 273,919. Loss, 2,166.

The Rulings of the Grand Master revealed on the one hand the almost unimaginable variety of questions which can arise in a year to plague (which seems to be the apposite word) Grand Masters and, on the other, the high standards set by the Grand Master of Ohio. Some of his rulings were:

"That he could not approve (supported by the Jurisprudence Committee) a Masonic Bowling League to charge an additional 25-cent fee for each game bowled, to be used for prizes with a portion of the funds going to the Ohio Masonic Home.

"That a Lodge could not hold a dinner and program commemorating its centennial on Sunday in order to hold the same on the actual date of the issuance of the Charter.

"That the minutes of a Lodge could not be altered to change the date of an occurrence without clear and convincing evidence of a mistake.

"That a Lodge should not circulate a publication of another Jurisdiction covering a controversial subject, unless such publication, and its contents, be approved by the Grand Lodge or appropriate committee.

"That an outside religious meeting, with a minister conducting the service, could be held on Sunday.

"That the sponsorship by a Lodge of a golf tournament, at which cash prizes be awarded, would be illegal.

"That it would be in poor taste for a Lodge to hold, as entertainment, a program scheduled as 'Harness Horse Night' with ticket to a local race track given to all present."

At the 1964 Annual Communication a proposal to provide state-wide concurrent jurisdiction was defeated by a small margin. The legislation was introduced again. Despite the strong support of the Jurisprudence Committee the proposal was defeated again as it did not receive the necessary two-thirds majority. Since the ballot was 1,080 to 610, when 1,127, to 563 would have carried, it would seem that the consensus, to use a popular word of these times, supports the idea.

The Scholarship Foundation of the Grand Lodge reported assets of over $7,000. Membership in the Foundation is open to any Mason who contributes $100 or more. Income from the funds of the Foundation is to be used "to make loans or grants to worthy students, teachers and researchers and to encourage learning."

In addition to the Foundation, the Grand Lodge continued the scholarship plan, described in these Reviews for 1964. Twenty-six scholarships were awarded "to deserving young people in twenty-six accredited colleges, universities, and theological seminaries in Ohio." Selection of recipients is left entirely to the scholarship boards of the educational institutions.

The Committee on History is continuing to compile and collate material for a two-volume supplement to the three-volume history of Freemasonry in Ohio which brings the history to 1914. The Committee is also trying to locate the burial places of all Past Grand Masters.

OKLAHOMA — 1965

57th Annual Communication — February 9-11

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. Carson Scott

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. A. R. Erhart

Lodges, 378.

Membership, 82,563.

Loss, 966.

The Grand Lodge more than thirty years ago established the Masonic Charity Foundation which is a holding company to administer all endowments and bequests received by the Grand Lodge. At the moment the Foundation's funds stand at well over five million dollars. A bequest of $400,000. was received during the year.

Much of the income is devoted to the operation of homes for the aged and children. The Grand Master is of the opinion that the Grand Lodge has "one of the best equipped facilities of its kind in the northwest and, perhaps in the entire country."

In spite of the decline in total membership, there is widespread activity in the jurisdiction. The Grand Lodge Trustees approved nine requests for permission to build, remodel or improve lodge premises. As is usual in the jurisdiction many cornerstones were laid for both Masonic and non-Masonic buildings. The Library and Museum are growing.

Unfortunately, two Past Grand Masters were lost. Both had served long and well. M.W. Bro. Ernest C. Morris was Grand Lecturer at the time of his death. M.W. Bro. H. S. Johnston was a pioneer settler in Oklahoma and was, at one time, Governor of the State. Since he was born in 1867 he was nearing the century mark.

OREGON — 1965

115th Annual Communication — June 16-18

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. E. T. Newbry
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. J. J. Murchison

Lodges, 192. Membership, 42,121. Loss, 603.

The jurisdiction is divided into thirty-one districts with a D.D.G.M. over each. In view of the size of the Grand Lodge the number might be considered high. However, the District Deputies serve for more than one year. For example, this year, of the total of thirty-nine only nineteen were new.

Two meetings attended by the Grand Master were at Malheur Cave and Crater Lake. These are Annual Communications at which degrees are exemplified. The surroundings, according to the Grand Master, are unique. The list of dispensations also shows authorization for an "Open Air Meeting" at Alpine Meadows, Mount Hood.

The Grand Orator spoke on the subject "Is Masonry an Anachronism?" Since the Oration has been an important feature of the Annual Communications in Oregon for many years, the speaker read some of the efforts of his predecessors. He admitted that he found many of the speeches "a bit dry". He also was forced to admit that some of the reports "were as boring as some of the inserts in the Congressional Record." His refreshingly-honest appraisal did not detract from the solid quality of the points he made. For one thing, "if we are to be men of the future, we must be students of the past and critics of the present." His conclusion was that Masonry is not an anachronism but the principles for which the Order stands must be related to the present. "The Moral doctrines depend upon and spring out of its character as a social institution. Freemasonry is, in its most prominent sense, that which most readily and forcibly attracts the attention of the uninitiated, a fraternity, an association of men bound together by a peculiar tie; and therefore, it is essential, to its own existence, to inculcate its teachings of kindness and man's duty to his neighbour."

During the year the Grand Lodge lost two Past Grand Masters: M.W. Bros. E. B. Beaty (1928-29) and G. T. Cochran (1923-24). The former, for many years, had prepared the reports for the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

PENNSYLVANIA — 1964

Annual Communication — December 28 and Quarterly Communications, March, June, September and December.

Grand Master, 1963-64 — R.W. Bro. W. L. McKinley

Grand Master, 1964-65 — R.W. Bro. E. F. Herold

Lodges, 609.

Membership, 253,712.

Loss, 901.

The Grand Master referred to the net loss of 901 members actually a considerable reduction compared with the previous year. The loss was largely to be explained by a heavy death rate. On the brighter side, initiations totalled 5,801. He added: "I am sure that in a few years our death rate will decrease. As you probably know, our number of initiates, during the depression years, was very low. Consequently, our death rate will be low in a few years." He cautioned his hearers against stress on numbers, saying: "Our strength lies in the fact that we make Masons who have a full realization of the ideals that are taught by our Ancient Institution."

During the year four new lodges were constituted while one surrendered its charter. The great need is for new lodges in suburban areas. Three new Masonic halls were dedicated.

The Committee on Masonic Culture prepared a booklet "Facing the East" to assist Senior Wardens in their planning for their year as Master.

The roll of lodges arranged alphabetically reveals the fact that twelve are without names. Nor are these all long-established lodges. No. 2 is the earliest and No. 432 the latest. One of the most popular names is Union. Seven lodges bear this name. Eureka and Washington appear five times.

PHILIPPINES — 1964

The newly-elected Grand Master has been Minister of the Central Methodist Church, Manila, since 1947 when he went to the Philippines. He was born in Minnesota and educated in the United States. For a time he served as a minister in Kuala Lumpur, Malaya. In addition to his ministerial duties he is vice-chairman of the Union Theological Seminary.

For five years the Grand Lodge has been working on plans to construct a suitable headquarters building. Our reviews of 1962 told something of the size of the project. The plan became impracticable owing to "the large amount involved." The Grand Master set up a new committee to plan for a less ambitious undertaking.

In addition to the four lodges warranted during the year six are under dispensation.

An activity which surely must be unique in Masonic bodies is a "service store." The full account runs: "Our Service Store has proved to be beneficial not only to Provincial and Manila Lodges but also to individual members. Orders can be placed by telephone and the prices are lower than those obtaining elsewhere."

Another activity recommended by the Board of General Purposes was the creation of a Legal Aid Clinic. The Grand Master set one up.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND — 1964

89th Annual Communication — June 27

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. P. R. Bagnall

The Grand Lodge met twice in Special Communications to dedicate the new lodge rooms of Mizpah Lodge, No. 17, and to dedicate Airisle Lodge, No. 20, and install its officers.

The brethren of Mizpah Lodge, which meets in Eldon, acquired a church which they converted into a Masonic Temple.

In addition to the advances revealed by the foregoing events, the jurisdiction was able to show a net gain in membership, in spite of the large number removed by death and suspensions. The Grand Master summed up by saying: "Freemasonry in this jurisdiction is in a healthy condition. Peace and Harmony prevail."

Thanks to the early receipt of the Proceedings for 1965 we are able to include a more up-to-date review than usual. Indeed, last year we had no review at all. Incidentally, the discrepancy in the statistics, shown above, if one compares the figures for two years, arises from an adjustment of one made by the Grand Secretary.

The Grand Lecturer assured the Grand Master that after seeing various lodges putting on the degrees, regardless of what ritual they were using, the work was most commendable. It is difficult to believe that there might be more than one form of work in a grand jurisdiction of this size.

The Scholarship Committee presented its first annual report. Five scholarships, of a value of $250.00 each, were granted.

The Grand Master attended the hundredth anniversary banquet of Royal Albert Lodge, No. 25, Montreal, celebrating the Festival of St. John the Evangelist. The Lodge has always observed this festival. The Grand Master added further unique items of interest regarding the Lodge.

"The Grand Lodge of the State of New York made the Masonic Ritual Music of R.W. Bro. Jean Sibelius available to Royal Albert Lodge as a gift in recognition of their One Hundredth Anniversary. On this occasion several selections from this music were enjoyed by the Brethren. These were rendered by the Royal Albert Choir under the capable leadership of R.W. Bro. Robert Painter. To the best of my knowledge, Royal Albert Lodge is the only Lodge in Quebec Jurisdiction with an organized choir. It is of interest to know that all of their degrees are choral, and that this choir has been functioning (with changes in personnel, of course) since the inception of this Lodge one hundred years ago."

To commemorate the centenary, the Lodge established a scholarship, in perpetuity, at Sir George Williams University.

The Permanent Committee reported that the Masonic Foundation of Quebec, mentioned in these reviews last year, had been granted a provincial charter and could operate under its provisional directors, awaiting the adoption of bylaws and regulations and the election of regular directors.

The Committee on Rites and Ceremonies spent a great deal of time during the year on the question of a uniform method of balloting.

QUEENSLAND — 1965

The Grand Master is hopeful that the Grand Lodges of Australia will broaden the support of public charities. After thanking the brethren for re-electing him, he immediately came to the point saying:

"I sincerely hope during this year that my suggestion for Masons, as Masons openly supporting public charities as well as our own may be given the official blessing of this Grand Lodge. The Board of General Purposes is communicating with our Sister Grand Lodges in Australia and I hope it will not be long before the matter is formally brought before Grand Lodge for consideration. We can be proud of the job we are doing at present, but I feel we can do more, and in openly supporting other charities our stocks should rise in the eyes of those of the public who know nothing of our Order, and make our institution more attractive to the right types of men to join our ranks."

The Grand Lodge lost a Past Grand Master in the person of M.W. Bro. A. E. Roberts. The Grand Master in speaking of the "tireless and energetic worker" said "I doubt if any one, in the history of Queensland Freemasonry, has given such intense service to the Craft, over so long a period of time." He was a grand officer for over fifty years and, indeed, lived long enough to see the golden jubilees of lodges at the consecration of which he had taken a part as a grand officer.

Nominations for the Grand Lodge officers were made at the March and the election was held at the June Quarterly Communication. The nominee of the Board of General Purposes, R.W. Bro. J. A. R. Thompson, P.D.G.M., was elected.

A major proposal brought before the Annual Communication was to eliminate all jurisdictional lines and to establish concurrent jurisdiction throughout the State. Though it received a majority, the motion lost as the Constitution required a two-thirds vote for adoption.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported that, in the past, the Grand Lodge of Ireland had refrained from appointing or accepting representation between the two Grand Lodges because Rhode Island recognized the Grand Lodge of France. Since the latter had withdrawn this recognition, steps were being taken to institute representation with the Grand Lodge of Ireland. The Committee also warned of the appearance of an irregular so-called Grand Lodge in Venezuela.

This seems to have been the year for discussion of dual and plural memberships. As was noted above, under New Hampshire, Saskatchewan alone of Canadian jurisdictions does not allow unlimited affiliations within and without the jurisdiction. But even here the question is alive and was submitted to eleven area meetings with arguments for and against. Those who attended the meetings voted against plural membership. Nevertheless, an amendment to the Constitution, proposing the change, was presented to Grand Lodge where the motion was again defeated.

"At a time when a world famous broadcasting company exposes our rites to the viewing public, when enemies have renewed attacks upon the Craft and when membership continues to decline it is comforting to know that there are bright spots.

"Ministers of the Gospel continue to become Masons. Many of them publicly praise the principles of the Craft and declare that there is no theological foundation for animosity between the Church and the Craft. A great many of our new members are young men who take Masonry seriously. Several of our lodges maintain an attendance of 60 percent of resident memberships which vary from 30 to 40. When you ask these lodges how they do it they say: '1. We have good fellowship. 2. We pick our members carefully. 3. We pick our officers carefully. 4. We keep our Past Masters and other members busy. 5. We always have a good time over sandwiches and coffee when Lodge has been closed.' None of these activities is beyond the reach of practically every lodge in this jurisdiction and they constitute a real challenge for the Worshipful Masters and officers of our lodges. As the officers go — so go the lodges."

The Committee on Condition of Masonry presented a lengthy report which reflected a great deal of effort on the part of the members. Non-resident membership they found now equals 37 percent of the total Grand Jurisdiction membership. Thirty-seven lodges reported that non-resident members exceeded resident, four reported that both groups were equal and, in fourteen cases, the difference between non-resident and resident members was less than four. These figures suggest that there must be a substantial movement of the population of Saskatchewan. Also, one can hardly avoid wondering if dual or plural memberships were allowed, would some of those Masons, who move within the Province, affiliate in their new communities and thus become resident members.

The special Committee on the Freemasonry and Youth Endowment Fund reported to the Board of General Purposes. The report was held over for a year during which time the Committee on Jurisprudence will be asked for an opinion whether the interest on the Freemasonry and Youth Endowment Fund or any part of it can be used for scholarships.

SCOTLAND — 1965

M.W. Grand Master Mason — Lord Bruce

R.W. Grand Secretary — Dr. Alexander F. Buchan

Lodges within Scotland, 635

Overseas, 383

Readers of these reviews, during recent years, know that it is the practice of the Grand Master Mason and the Grand Secretary to visit, annually, some part of the vast jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Scotland. The year under review was given over to a visit to Central and South Africa, Mauritius, Iran and Turkey. The tour, which lasted from February 19 to May 1, 1965, must have been a most rewarding, and, at the same time, exhausting experience. As the Grand Master Mason said:

“Grand Secretary and I left Edinburgh for Entebbe on Friday, 19th February, and we set out from Istanbul for home on Saturday, 1st May. During that period I saw the Brethren of thirty-two Lodges working Degrees and on five occasions carried out the Lodge Installation myself. In addition, I was conducted over quite a large number of Lodge rooms and had the opportunity of discussing informally with the Brethren the work of their Lodges. I attended five meetings of District Grand Lodges, Scottish and English, and one Grand Lodge. It was inevitable that there would be many banquets, lunches and other informal gatherings where we had to do justice to local delicacies and Grand Secretary estimates that these numbered about one hundred, so you can well imagine the disastrous effect. (Only on three occasions did we go to bed the same day as we rose.) However, by sheer will power, a determined wife, and an ascetic form of life, I am back to my normal self again. I gather that Grand Secretary is daily embarrassed by being told how well he looks and how much weight he has put on. During our tour we were honoured to be granted audiences by four Heads of States, and on six of the Sundays we attended Church Services with our masonic friends."

In Rhodesia, the Grand Master Mason found that, when travelling by car, "seventy miles an hour is a reasonable average." In Rhodesia, the Grand Master Mason took the opportunity, as he did elsewhere, "of advocating the deletion of the ancient penalties from the obligation" and also of encouraging the lodges to adhere to Scottish customs.

Some of the meetings in outlying places were quite small but none the less enthusiastic. In Johannesburg, however, the gathering was so large that no Temple was large enough and the meeting was held in the City Hall. As the Grand Master Mason said "From my seat in the East, on the platform, it was nearly a day's journey to the altar. There must have been over twelve hundred Freemasons, including deputations from the District Grand Lodges under the English, Irish, Netherlandic and South African Constitutions. Brethren had travelled hundreds of miles to be present and it was most encouraging to see the response when the District Grand Secretary called the roll of the eighty-two Lodges in the District. A series of microphones had been installed and the acoustics were remarkably good considering the difficult conditions."

In Pretoria District five lodges work in Afrikaans. It was arranged that these lodges would combine to work a second degree in that language. A translation of the usual "Standard" ritual was used and "it was surprising how relatively easy it was to understand the whole ceremony. It was an inspiring occasion crowned with a wonderful harmony." Most of the meetings seem to have ended with good singing.

The tour ended with visits to Mauritius, Iran and Turkey. The Grand Master Mason found the Ceremony of Consecration of the Grand Lodge of Turkey a moving experience. He reported:

"I was received with great dignity and cordiality in Grand Lodge. After the Grand Master, Brother Dr. Tok, had extended a welcome to me and my deputation, a history of Freemasonry in Turkey was read and translated into English by Brother Ekemen. I was greatly assisted at the Ceremony by Brother Sime who acted as Director of Ceremonies while Grand Secretary officiated at the organ. Although many of the Turkish Brethren had a knowledge of English, the prayers were offered in Turkish by Brother Dr. Egeran. Our Ceremony of scattering oil, wine and corn was unknown to them but I felt that they were all joining with me in the Ceremony. To mark the occasion, I was presented with a beautiful plaque of silver and gold, which is now in our Museum. I can say, unhesitatingly, that I have seldom been so moved at such an occasion. There was a sense of purpose which will go far to strengthen this Grand Lodge."

The somewhat extended account of the visitations outside Scotland must not lead to the impression that the Grand Master Mason did not visit a great deal in Scotland. As he said:

"I believe that this year has seen great difficulties and much has been spoken of Freemasonry which was new and came from outside the Craft. It seemed a good thing that there should be the opportunity for Grand Lodge to visit as many Lodges at home as possible to ensure that no one was in doubt or difficulty over this last most difficult year. I believe that the spirit of Freemasonry that we have discovered has in fact been enhanced during this past year and you may all rest assured that there is vigour and strength throughout the length and breadth of Scotland."

The speaker evidently had in mind reference to Masonry in a Church of Scotland General Assembly report.

The Masonic Memorial Village, referred to in our Reviews for 1964, was opened. As the Grand Master said "This worthy project has opened the eyes of many brethren to the wider field of Masonic responsibilities."

The Grand Master promulgated rules which permitted relaxation in the form of dress to be worn in lodge from December to March inclusive. Now members are permitted to wear "a long sleeved white soft shirt without arm-bands and with sleeves fastened at the wrist, attached white turned-down collar, self-supporting black trousers with black cummerbund, black bow-tie, black socks and black shoes; further that if such optional attire be worn into Lodge meetings and the necessity arises, through cooler conditions, to wear a coat at the ensuing Festive Board then a dinner jacket or a dark coat of conventional design for dignified occasions must be worn at such Festive Board. Under no circumstances will 'casual' coats be permitted to be worn, as, for example, 'sports' jackets.' "

The Grand Master also suggested to the Board of General Purposes that they set up a permanent "Committee of Inquiry into the state of the Craft."

In concluding his Address the Grand Master emphasized the weighty responsibility of proposers and seconders of candidates and of the committees of enquiry to ensure, humanly speaking, that no person be admitted as a member of a lodge who does not possess the requisite qualifications, including high moral character and good standing in the community.

He asked: "Is it too strong to say that Freemasonry is on trial in the community? Is it proper to feel that the community should expect much from us? Or are we entitled to be a very closed group of men who are in the community without being of it, without influencing it?"

SOUTH CAROLINA — 1965

Grand Master, 1964-66 — M.W. Bro. J. W. Frampton

Lodges, 310.

Membership, 60,597.

Gain, 921.

A glance back through the Reviews for five years shows that the gain shown this year was the largest by far in that period. The Grand Master believed that "this increase is largely due to the high regard in which our Fraternity is held in our communities and state." But he added "We must not rest upon our laurels."

Three lodges were under dispensation, three Temples were dedicated and three cornerstones were laid during the year.

Following the example of his predecessors, the Grand Master wrote personal letters to every Mason who was raised to the third degree.

"Deeming it to be in the best interest of Masonry in South Carolina," three special dispensations for dual memberships were issued. The brethren concerned were members of lodges in Sasebo, Japan, Topeka, Kansas, and Ulm, Germany. In addition, a lodge U.D. was permitted to affiliate eight brethren, already members in the jurisdiction.

The Proceedings included the entire exchange of correspondence between the Grand Master and the editor of the Saturday Evening Post concerning an article which "was an insinuation of a connection between Freemasonry in our Grand Jurisdiction and the Ku Klux Klan." The Grand Master made the truth quite clear: "There is very definitely no connection between the Masonic Fraternity in South Carolina, or anywhere else throughout the world so far as we know, with the Ku Klux Klan." All Masons will know this fact. It is to be deplored, however, that less than honest reporting by an internationally-distributed journal should make such a declaration necessary. As the Committee on Distribution of Work and Grand Master's Address wrote:

"Freemasons are always greatly concerned when occasionally some magazine or periodical will print an unkind article about our fraternity. We have come to expect it from the hierarchy of certain churches and atheistic groups, but when a magazine with a national circulation which has enjoyed a good reputation for many years takes the time and energy to disseminate anti-masonic propaganda it shows, to say the least, an utter lack of understanding of what Masonry is and what Masons are attempting to do. . . . The article is an affront to Indiantown Lodge and to Masons everywhere. The Grand Master handled this unfortunate situation in a diplomatic manner and we heartily approve his action."

The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Voigt, according to his biographical sketch, is a graduate of Huron College. This is not the well-known institution in London, Ontario, but a College in Huron, South Dakota, where the Grand Master began his career in banking. In February, 1965, he was elected Chairman of the Grand Masters' Conference in North America.

There are thirty-three lodges in this jurisdiction with a membership of fifty or fewer. The average for the group is forty. When non-resident members are not counted, membership averages about twenty-seven per lodge. The Grand Master expressed concern over the situation created by the movement of population from rural to suburban centres. Consolidation has assisted in some cases. At the same time, many small lodges are doing excellent work. As the Grand Master said: "They are a real asset in the building of character and providing not only Masonic fellowship but in providing leadership in their respective communities."

The Grand Historian, in a brief report, told something of the origins of Masonry in the present South Dakota.

"Masonic History has its beginning in South Dakota possibly in the Eighteenth Century, with the setting of foot on Dakota soil by a member of the Craft who established the Hudson Bay Company waystation near Elk Point as early as 1750, but was certainly established when Meriwether Lewis of the Lewis and Clark Expedition made his historical journey up the 'Big Muddy' in August 1804. Meriwether Lewis was a member of Door-to-Virtue Lodge of Virginia."

The Grand Lodge was formally organized at Vermillion in July, 1875. The site is suitably marked.

The retiring Grand Master reported that "of the seventy-seven lodges on the register, including four new ones", he had, in his three-year term, "visited seventy-six for installations." He visited twenty-seven twice and two thrice. He believed that the slow but steady increase in the number of lodges was putting a great physical strain on the Grand Master, "And yet" he added "Tasmania is still too small to adopt the practice, general in other states, of each lodge carrying out its own installation. Of course, the lodge is entitled to do this, but the need to do the installations has created a tradition of zeal and efficiency in the three Grand Lodge teams in the South, North and North-West which would, inevitably, be weakened, if they were reduced to the status of onlookers. Further, the visit of the Grand Master, or his representative, and the Grand Lodge team to do the work, provides a valuable means of intimate contact with the subordinate lodges which would be lost to some extent, if Grand Lodge came in the role of visitors." We can only express the hope that the fine liaison between the lodges and the Grand Lodge can be maintained.

The Board of General Purposes, at the suggestion of the Grand Master, held a conference on January 23 to discuss problems confronting the Craft in Tasmania. The questions posed were:

"Is Masonry losing its appeal?";

"Can it stand up to the competition of other organisations?";

"What changes should be made in our ancient system to meet the needs of modern times?";

"Is our 'public relations' adequate?";

"What are the reasons for lack of candidates and poor attendances at lodge meetings?";

The Masonic Hall in Launceston was packed with over 200 brethren from all parts of the jurisdiction. There was full, frank and heart-searching discussion and self-criticism. The proceedings were fully recorded and the Board of General Purposes planned to appoint a special committee to analyse and assess the points raised. The report, when it appears, should provide profitable reading outside the bounds of Tasmania.

Not wishing to anticipate the findings of the committee, the Grand Master did make one or two observations.

"First of all, the very large attendance on a Saturday afternoon on a lovely summer's day is evident that freemasons in Tasmania hold the Craft very dear.

"Next, it was evident that all were convinced there was nothing wrong with freemasonry itself, and so the causes of weakness must be looked for in the methods of working it in the lodges, or in the individual members themselves.

"Further, it was generally agreed that better 'public relations', or, to use a word current nowadays, a better 'image' of freemasonry must be presented to the outside world.

"Again, there was expressed very definitely, the opinion that masonry was adequate for all conditions and circumstances and no changes in our ancient principles or tenets were necessary.

"This latter was both interesting and comforting. There have been tremendous changes in the world in which we live. It is, in very many respects, a new world—a technological, a nuclear age. So marvellous and rapid are the new discoveries, and so revolutionary their impact, that it is being asserted that 'History begins tomorrow'. Surely this must have a bearing on freemasonry. I would answer No! not on masonry but on men, who may also be masons. Masonry is a system of ethics and moral philosophy based on religion and therefore its principles are not affected by scientific progress. Masonry is, in effect, a body of men who not only go through certain ritual exercises in their lodges, but, more important still, live out these principles in their daily lives and occupations."

The Minutes of the Half-yearly Communication cover only fifteen pages but they give a great deal of concentrated information. The Grand Master, in his first address, covered several points of interest. He spoke first concerning the membership total and the distribution of members.

"As will be seen from the statistics which follow, the decrease in initiations and total membership which was mentioned by M. Wor. Bro. Barnett at this time last year, has to some extent been arrested. Taking into account initiations and affiliations, and allowing for clearances, exclusions and deceased brethren, the six months period has resulted in a decrease in total membership of two. While this is not spectacular, it must be considered in the light of the relatively static position of the population of Tasmania. Unfortunately, the distribution of initiations and affiliations is far from even. The newer lodges seem to be attracting many more applications than some of the older lodges. This is a matter for some concern because in these older lodges the average age of members must be increasing steadily and this may be a further deterrent to applications from younger men. It may be a suggestion to rapidly growing lodges to limit the number of applications they will accept in any one year to provide adequate time for advancement and masonic education. 'Farming out' candidates will only aggravate the problem. Some such limitations may channel worthwhile, enthusiastic applicants towards other lodges which seriously need an infusion of younger blood."

The Grand Master also reported on an Australian Masonic Conference held in Brisbane. Delegates from all the Australian States and New Zealand were present. He was one of the representatives from Tasmania. Two items he thought should be mentioned.

"The first is the proposal to eliminate or modify the ancient penalties. After considerable discussion, it was decided by 17 votes to 8 to recommend a permissive alteration to the ritual along the lines adopted recently by the Grand Lodge of England. Neglecting consequential changes, the proposal is to allow lodges, if they so desire, to substitute for the words 'under no less a penalty' the phrase 'ever remembering the ancient penalty.' "

The Grand Master said that he had voted against the motion "not so much from disagreement with the principle but that I felt that this was an encouragement of ritual variations within the one jurisdiction. In travelling around this State, I have noticed that there are quite a few differences in procedure and one or two minor differences in ritual from lodge to lodge, particularly in the wording of the penalties and the instruction in the signs. In some cases these have become traditional in individual lodges or districts, which are loth to affect any change. I feel that a high degree of uniformity is one of the important cementing factors of our universal brotherhood and that any tendency to introduce or perpetuate variations should be strongly discouraged. One difference, not of a ritualistic nature, which has been freely discussed is the rather excessive use of the National Anthem. In my opinion, its use could well be restricted to the occasion of the Loyal Toast, I realize that this suggestion will not be popular with service lodges, particularly if the ceremony of introducing the Colour is included in the proceedings, but, after all, if the Colour was the Australian flag, I hardly think that Brethren would consider singing 'Waltzing Matilda.' "

The second topic of interest at the Brisbane Conference of which the Grand Master spoke "came from Masons who are resident in the Australian Capital Territory at Canberra. It was pointed out that many Australia-wide organizations were building, or planning to build, national headquarters in the Federal capital. Canberra brethren asked the Conference to consider recommending to individual Grand Lodges that Masons throughout Australia should bear the cost of a Temple which would reflect the importance of Freemasonry. The cost of such a suitable structure was estimated to be a quarter of a million pounds. The request was refused."

The Grand Master gave his views on the proposal, saying "after further thought on the matter I am not sure that the decision was a wise one. Those who have seen the Temple in Great Queen Street in London and the Masonic Headquarters in other parts of the world would realize the value of a National edifice befitting the standing and importance of Freemasonry. At the present time there are well over three hundred thousand members of the Craft in Australia. Very few of these would begrudge a single donation of £1 to such a worthwhile project, but the longer the decision is deferred the greater will be the cost. However the opportunity has been lost for the time being."

The proposal certainly seems to have been an imaginative one. Should Canadian Masons begin talking along similar lines?

TENNESSEE — 1965

151st Annual Communication — March 24-25

Grand Master, 1964-65 — M.W. Bro. R. F. Worthy
Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. F. C. Yearwood

Lodges, 390. Membership, 92,132. Gain, 600.

All but three of the lodges on the roll were represented at the Annual Communication. Seventeen Past Grand Masters also were present. The meetings of Grand Lodge are evidently taken seriously in Tennessee.

The Grand Master noted that thirty-nine lodges raised their dues and twelve increased their fees. "Some Lodges now have their finances in excellent condition but a good many still do not charge enough dues to promote an adequate program." Masonry evidently is in a healthy condition as the Grand Master reported. The record of gains shown above bears him out. He ended his comments on a high note: "I believe that Masonry in this jurisdiction will continue to grow and prosper if we, as individuals, accept our duties and responsibilities in the work and live according to the principles and teachings of our great Fraternity."

The Board of Custodians reported on its "original task of improvement in the ritualistic field and helping to create and maintain a better interpretation of the ritual in all three degrees." They believe that the majority of the members of all lodges wish "to attain near perfection."

The Special Committee for Advancement of Freemasonry in Tennessee held many meetings. They learned that the chief concern of everyone they consulted was "What can be done to make and keep Masons interested and active in the Craft?" The first project undertaken was a guide or handbook for Masters and Wardens entitled "The Master's Trestleboard." This they distributed throughout the State.

The Committee also visited lodges in the district chosen for their pilot plan. Much was accomplished by these visits and it was noted that the efforts were appreciated.

"In one case, a Lodge came from almost a standstill to one of the most active in the District. They cleaned up their Lodge Hall, repainted it, refurnished it, hung a fine electric sign outside their building, and even had an open-house where they invited all the people of the community to come and inspect their facilities. They started Ritual School for their members and in six months time were able to confer a creditable degree; whereas, before that time it was rather difficult for them to even open their Lodge."

The Committee came to the conclusion that "Only by improving the minds of the brethren, the physical plants of the Lodge, and the thoughts of the public towards Masonry can we claim our rightful place in the world, and at the same time create in others a desire to be one of us."

The Report of Committee on Fraternal Correspondence, under the able chairmanship of M.W. Bro. W. P. Douglas, again produced a comprehensive and interesting report. Bro. Douglas stands out as one of the most competent reviewers of the Masonic scene. This year he made a plea for "Brotherliness" which may be lost sight of in the striving for perfection in ritual. He devoted a full page to our Proceedings.

129th Annual Communication — December 2-3

Grand Master, 1964 — M.W. Bro. J. R. Collard

Grand Master, 1965 — M.W. Bro. J. C. Hinsley

Loss, 310.

The end paper of this most attractively printed and handsomely bound volume lists one hundred and thirty-two District Deputy Grand Masters. Another page records the names of twenty-five active Past Grand Masters. Twenty-two were present at the Communication.

During the year, five "special representations" of the Grand Lodge were held to constitute new lodges. Twenty-six more were called for the purpose of dedicating lodge buildings. When the twenty-four meetings for "levelling cornerstones" are added to the foregoing, a full year is revealed. The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Collard, was present on all but four of the fifty-five occasions.

The Grand Master expressed concern over the "constantly increasing pressure from all of the various organizations and groups which predicate membership on Masonic membership . . . to engage in various fund-raising activities, most of which are designed to raise such funds from non-Masons and from persons who are not members of such organizations." Furthermore, many of these campaigns, he believed, are not conducted in a way "consistent with the dignity of the Masonic Fraternity," and might well reflect in an unworthy manner on our Fraternity. He, therefore, recommended that it should be declared a Masonic offence for all Masons holding membership in any Texas lodge to participate in any such fund-raising activity. The recommendation was approved by the Committee on Purposes and Policies but referred to the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence for examination and action at the next Communication.

The Grand Master also recommended that the aprons of the District Deputy Grand Masters carry the name of the district each represented and his year of service. This recommendation was approved.

UTAH — 1965

The Grand Master visited all the constituent lodges in the jurisdiction. He found that Masonry was in "a satisfactory condition of financial health." Attendance at lodge meetings appears to average twenty per cent in smaller lodges and less in larger ones.

One of the recommendations of the Grand Master was that all appointive Grand Lodge Officers, past, present and future, be designated "Very Worshipful" (V.W.). It does seem surprising that this practice, so well-known in our jurisdiction, should not be the custom in Utah. The Committee on Jurisprudence declared that the proposal required an amendment to the Constitution, which, in turn, required an affirmative vote of two thirds of the lodges. The Committee concluded: "While we recognize and applaud the generous purpose of our Grand Master to add to the dignity of our appointive officers by this slight change in the title of the office held, and appreciate to the utmost the fine service these appointive officers so freely give to the cause of Masonry, we must confess to some doubt as to whether or not the possible advantage to be gained justifies the time and effort involved in effecting an amendment to our Constitution. Your Committee has, therefore, decided to recommend against the approval of the proposed change, although we do so with some reluctance since we dislike disagreeing with any of our Grand Master's proposals."

Grand Lodge supported the Committee and the recommendation was dropped.

Since 1928 there has been a requirement in Utah that both dues and fees charged by lodges with concurrent jurisdiction be uniform. There was a proposal to amend the regulation. The Committee on Jurisprudence did not concur and explained their position well. "Your Committee feels quite positively that this requirement of uniformity in fees and dues where Lodges have concurrent jurisdiction is of great benefit to the Craft in maintaining peace and harmony between the Lodges so situated as well as among their members. To allow financial advantage to enter into the choice of the particular Lodge to which an applicant may seek to be admitted is to some extent at least putting Masonry on the bargain counter. This we think is a consideration which should never be allowed to intrude itself either into the mind of the applicant or of the Lodge member or members to whom he may apply for advice in the making of this choice, and uniformity in these matters of dues and fees is the surest way of guarding against this evil."

Grand Lodge supported the committee.

At its Communication in 1964 the Grand Lodge resolved to request recognition by the Grand Lodge of Ireland. The Grand Lodge of Ireland acceded. Grand Representatives will be exchanged shortly.

For twelve years or more the condition of the sixty-eight year old Temple building, which houses the Grand Lodge office quarters and several other bodies, as well as stores and offices, has necessitated substantial renovation. This year saw many great improvements. A new elevator was installed, new copper, water piping was also installed and much of the steam line was replaced. A large part of the fabric of the building was also restored. Repair troubles are over for a considerable time.

The Masonic War Service Fund, administered by the Grand Lodge appears to be a general purpose fund from which loans are made for worthwhile purposes. During the year, under review, some funds were lent to college seniors and juniors. The record of return on loans has been excellent. The assets now stand at almost fifty thousand dollars.

VICTORIA (AUSTRALIA)—1964

Quarterly Communications,
March, June, September, December

Acting Grand Master —
R.W. Bro. The Hon. Mr. Justice Gillard

Grand Secretary — R.W. Bro. C. W. Davis

Lodges, 820. Membership, 114,707. Loss, 2,249.

Last year's review began with an account of the installation of M.W. Bro. Eric Hughes as Grand Master and ended with his re-election for another term. The Quarterly Communication of March 18 once more saw the installation of M.W. Bro. Eric Hughes. Once again his address was memorable. This year, the seventy-fifth anniversary of Grand Lodge, he spoke on "Taking the long view." He presented some striking statistics. "In 1911 there was a total of eligible males over 20 years of age of 385,525, and our membership was 11,727, or one Freemason to every 33 eligible males. At the present time, the eligible male population, that is persons over 20 years of age, is approximately 914,000. Our membership today is 113,000, or one Freemason to every eight eligible males."

He continued with a full account of the activities of the Grand Lodge.

"Our subsidiaries are showing great progress. Our Freemasons' Homes are housing today 300 people, and have a waiting list which will ultimately make it necessary to add additional beds and provide further accommodation and hospitalization.

"Our Freemasons' Hospital has now 112 beds and is always filled to capacity with Freemasons and non-Freemasons, and as such makes a great impact on people outside the Craft, and it is now recognised as one of the major surgical private hospitals in Melbourne. The Board of Management hopes in the reasonably near future to provide accommodation for long-term medical cases.

"As in any virile organisation expansion is measured by building, and we find that last year we consecrated two new temples, and this year we have already arranged for consecrating five new temples. I suppose that the greatest feather in our caps at the present time is that this Grand Lodge has had the support of the members, and the green light has been given to commence building of the new Temple in East Melbourne at the beginning of 1966. These expanding activities give me much faith in the future.

"Last year, 12 months ago, I strongly suggested that there should be a greater understanding between all free churches and Freemasonry, and this, I feel, has been achieved. I am certain we have brought many Freemasons back to their churches, and we have implanted in the members of the church who are non-Freemasons a more favourable impression of what this great Craft is doing and can do as a great moral force in the community. In fact, we have achieved more than the Ecumenical Council has achieved so far."

The Grand Master closed: "May I conclude by praying that God give me strength and courage to see the right and do the right in the year ahead."

On October 19, before the December Quarterly Communication, when under normal circumstances, the Grand Master would have been re-elected, he died.

He had occupied the Grand Master's throne at the September communication but did not speak at length on this occasion but delegated the Grand Chaplain, V.W. Bro. Rev. F. J. Angus, to deliver "an oration covering the rich history of Victorian Freemasonry from its inauguration 75 years ago." He did say however:

"If any Brethren are pessimistic about the growth of this Grand Lodge, I would remind them that 75 years ago when Grand Lodge was commenced in this very hall there were 7,000 members. If you go back 25 years to the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary there were then approximately 52,000 members. Today, we have a total of 117,000 members. What a wonderful and effective power we are in this land and we all glory in that thought."

The Grand Chaplain covered briefly and clearly the history of the Grand Lodge. He closed by laying down three conclusions. These are valid in any jurisdiction and on any occasion when the past is in view.

"As one runs down the list of names of those who have been active Grand Lodge Officers, and as one conjures up the picture of the cavalcade of those within the Lodges throughout the jurisdiction, one cannot but be impressed by the tremendous variety and strength of gifts of character and personality that have been channelled into the service of Freemasonry and into the community at large over the 75 years.

"The second thing that seems to be appropriate to the occasion is to acknowledge the influence for good that has been transmitted through generations and has affected individuals and the community. We would acknowledge that among those worthy influences that have wrought their good work in us, helping to make us the kind of men we are, have been the examples of worthy Freemasons.

"The third thing that may be thought appropriate to this occasion is the call to face the challenge that confronts us in the present and future. We should prepare ourselves to the task of the future with greater fidelity and greater devotion. On occasions like this we may be too prone to glorify the past and focus our attention on the achievements of other men. I wish to lay emphasis on this important truth that we Freemasons are history makers, moulders of society and by our influence we help to shape other lives."

The Committee on Masonic Information, Research and Publications, first set up seven years ago, is convinced that the move was a good one. Once again the Grand Master and Grand Secretary gave the members full support. Ten area conferences on Masonic Education were held with attendance higher than that of the previous year. The Grand Master and other Grand Lodge officers attended most of these meetings. The Chairman reported:

"We experimented this year with three types of programs. First, those in which there was a total participation by the local brethren. Second, those done in part by local brethren with the remainder by the panel of Grand Officers and Committeemen. Third, those which were conducted by the Grand Officers and Committeemen without local participation. We are convinced that the second type has been the better."

Sensing a slight misunderstanding on the part of some clergy the Committee produced a leaflet entitled "The Church and Freemasonry." This has been widely accepted.

The Masonic Herald, the official organ of Grand Lodge, has improved, the Committee believes, saying:

"We believe that it serves a great need in Virginia Masonry, if for no other reason than that it announces the fact that a member of the household is a Mason in more than 70,000 homes in Virginia and across the United States. It also reminds the average brother that he is a Mason and that the Craft is aware of his membership in it."

The Committee on Fraternal Relations presented a speaker's bureau as they wished. The problem which they could not solve was finding the names of likely speakers in spite of the fact that there are "countless Masons who have the ability to entertain and instruct within a given area and who would be willing to give their time to do so."

The Committee on Fraternal Relations presented a comparatively brief report. But they included one paragraph with which we must agree when they wrote:

"In this magnificent century Freemasonry is probably the only world-wide influence which is committed to the task of making brotherhood a universal reality. Our churches approach the goal but, alas, there are differences of doctrine and dogma which interpose and prevent the ideal from becoming a reality. We should remember that our task is to bring about brotherhood among men without seeming to subjugate him in the process. Let us, therefore, highly resolve to be our brother's brother and not his keeper."

The Grand Secretary was disturbed by the number of suspensions for n.p.d. Actually these were the lowest figures in five years. Withdrawals also were lower than usual. Deaths, unfortunately, reached the highest figure in the history of the Grand Lodge.

Lodges in this jurisdiction which reach the age of one hundred years receive a plaque from the Grand Lodge to commemorate the occasion. Three lodges received plaques this year. Portsmouth — Naval Lodge, No. 100, reached its 150th anniversary during the year. Evidently ninety-nine lodges (actually one hundred as there are two No. 2) are more than one hundred and fifty years old.

Lodges, 284. Membership, 66,558. Loss, 754.

Among the "Permissions granted" were several to lodges in Alaska to meet in places other than their own lodge buildings which had been declared unsafe owing to earthquake damage. The same list of Permissions records twenty-nine for Lodges to attend Divine Services. One Permission surely must be unique. The entry in its entirety runs: "Permission granted Olympia Lodge, No. 1, to establish a Pet Cemetery in the City of Tumwater." The Grand Master added: "Since there was no request for financial assistance I approved the request."

When the present Masonic Home was first occupied in 1927 the ages of resident members ran between 60 and 70. During the succeeding years the ages of resident members have increased to the point where very few are received under the age of 80. A number have been admitted who have attained the age of 96. In several cases members have lived beyond the century mark. The effect has been to make the infirmary entirely inadequate. A proposal to construct an infirmary at a cost of $375,000, or thereabouts, was referred to the Committee on Finance. The Committee approved the proposal. The experience of this Grand Jurisdiction is the same as that of all Grand Jurisdictions which support homes for the elderly, more and more care is required as the average of residents goes up.

The Grand Orator, apparently in all seriousness, proposed sweeping changes in the Work. Included in the oration were such sentences as: "Let us begin at once a thorough, systematic and continuous modernization of our standard work." "The job of editing the ritual and writing new lectures is too important to be delegated to amateurs who would be able to work on it only part-time. It should be turned over to professionals, skilled in the communication of ideas and adult education who would work at it full time." There were many other similar remarks.

The Oration was well answered by the Chairman on Fraternal Correspondence, M.W. Bro. F. Winkels, who in his report wrote in part,

"It is high time that we cease to be victims of the cynicism of the day and determine to firmly support and tenaciously cling to the principles and ideals that have blessed and sustained us in the past and will prove to be our certain and unfailing guide-posts into the future.

"Freemasonry neither desires, nor requires, any innovations nor modernization. Its symbols teach the same imperishable truths today as they did in the dim ages of the past. Need we ask more? The same twenty-six letters of our alphabet are as competent to portray and record the most complex technological achievements of the day as they are to frame the first simple words of a child. Shakespeare added no new letters to the alphabet, Handel added no new stops to the organ, nor did Beethoven invent a new instrument; each found ample material at hand for the full play of their talents and abilities.

"No, it is not our duty to change Freemasonry, rather it is our sacred trust to make the best, and constant, use of the priceless heritage which has been handed down to us, pure and unsullied, through the ages and by our individual example and good deeds fully merit the distinguished title of Master Mason which we so fondly cherish and proudly bear."

This reviewer wholeheartedly supports his colleague and congratulates him on the timing of his remarks which must have been prepared before the Oration was delivered.

The Grand Lodge celebrated the Centennial of its formation with a Special Communication on May 8. The founding date was May 10, 1865. A Centennial Committee published "a small volume entitled 'A Century of Freemasonry', copies of which were given to the distinguished guests and each of the chartered lodges." In addition a bronze memorial tablet was struck.

"As a contribution to the Craft throughout the Masonic World exact reproductions were made of the famous Record Book of the lodge at Fredericksburg, Virginia, recording the initiation, passing and raising of George Washington as a Freemason, and were delivered for deposit in the archives of the Grand Lodges of England, Virginia, Ohio, the Grand Lodge of West Virginia, and in the libraries of the Quatuor Coronati Lodge, No. 2076 and the American Lodge of Research, so that this priceless Masonic historical record would be dispersed at widely separated centres and thus be protected from destruction and preserved for all posterity."

The Grand Master, at the Annual Communication, suggested that "some of the brethren" would express concern over the information that the lodges of the jurisdiction had initiated 1155 candidates and rejected 521, roughly speaking one third of all applicants. He gave his own opinion that there was no cause for alarm but, on the contrary, he welcomed the evidence that the lodges were "not greedily grasping for candidates." His prescription for improvement was to do more than we are doing with the members we now have.

The question of a permanent site for the Grand Lodge office is still a matter of discussion. A committee has been studying the matter since 1960. The Grand Master suggested that the first problem to be solved is "Do the brethren desire a permanent home for the Grand Lodge" before a site is discussed.

During the year, three lodges asked if a lodge may meet on the ground floor of a building. The written constitution says nothing of such a rule but, for many years, "veteran Craftsmen whose knowledge of the laws, customs and usages none would question" have said that lodges must meet on the second floor, unless they have a dispensation from the Grand Master. The Jurisprudence Committee believed that the tradition was not mandatory. To protect all concerned, however, the Grand Master granted dispensation to a lodge which had built a ground floor lodge room. He did ask, however, that Grand Lodge rule on the matter once and for all.

The Grand Master also recommended that a committee be set up to reorganize the district structure by setting up more and smaller districts. He suggests districts consisting of from five to eight lodges.

It is interesting to see that most of the older lodges in the jurisdiction have names beginning with "The." Later lodges invariably do not have this designation. The Book of Constitution permits the dropping of the word and during the year eight lodges secured permission to change.

At the April Communication the Grand Master referred to a film on Freemasonry shown on television in the United Kingdom. His comments might be remembered if any of us were to be confronted by a similar episode.

"From time immemorial every generation has had its group of curiosity seekers and those for whom the activities of others present an irresistible attraction. Throughout its history Freemasonry has had its share of attention from these people, and in an almost regular cycle has had to submit to attentions varying in degree from alleged exposures of its secrets to vicious verbal attacks. Each time it has held aloof and resisted all attempts to descend to market place debate or argument, and each time the affair has been a nine day's wonder. The libraries of the world all contain books which purport to expose Freemasonry, and they all continue to collect dust for the want of readers. This latest episode will take its place with all those which have gone before, though one must admit that while, heretofore, only those extraordinarily keen would make an effort to procure and read a book, a television screen projects the programme, wanted or not, right into the family living room. . .

"The report in our own press produced not even a ripple on the surface of life in W.A., but many brethren are anxious lest they suddenly find the programme on view here. The question is 'What should we do if faced with this situation?'. The answer is quite simple — 'nothing'. Preserve that excellent Masonic virtue, silence. If you offer no comment and avoid argument you will not have to deny or refrain from denying, you will not have to answer or refute any question or statement. It is only when engaged in discussion or argument you may be placed in a position where you cannot deny a statement, and yet failure to do so is tantamount to acquiescence. Complete silence leaves the questioner with his questions unanswered and with no indication of how near or how far he was from the truth."

The Wisconsin Masonic Foundation was organized in the 1920's. The assets have now risen to over $170,000. The body contributes to the Masonic Home and to grants to needy and deserving students studying the fundamental principles of American constitutional development.

The one year experiment in state-wide concurrent jurisdiction appears to have been a success and the Grand Master urged its continuation. As he said, "The Lodges which feared state-wide concurrent jurisdiction have in many cases benefited. This is particularly true of small lodges located near or in the suburban areas of larger cities." The Grand Lodge agreed to continue the trial period for another year.

The Committee on Temple Plans and Financing has completed and printed information giving sketches of completed Temples, costs and methods of financing. During the year six new Temples and one extensively remodelled were dedicated. In two cases church buildings were purchased and converted to Masonic purposes.

A proposal put forward in 1962 that the age for acceptance of applicants be fixed at not less than eighteen years was not supported by the special committee set up to report on the matter. One member, however, did recommend that the age be reduced to twenty. The Grand Lodge supported the majority recommendation and the age for petitioning for degrees remains at twenty-one.

Grand Master, 1965-66 — M.W. Bro. A. C. Harding

Lodges, 55. Membership, 12,894. Loss, 41.

The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. A. C. Harding, was elected to the State Senate in 1950 and re-elected in 1954 and 1958. In 1961 he was president of that body.

Frequently the laying of cornerstones for non-Masonic buildings is still seen in Wyoming. During the year under review Special Communications were convened to lay cornerstones for an elementary school, a "new Acacia Fraternity house" and two high schools, the new administration building of the State Training School, and a school of the Wyoming Industrial Institute. Masonry must have wide acceptance, especially in educational circles, in the State.

The Grand Lodge also was convened at Cheyenne in a Special Communication to observe the 75th anniversary of Wyoming statehood and the important part Masons and Masonry played in the formation of the State. At the dinner, W. Bro. J. J. Humphrey told of how Freemasonry began in the Territory of Wyoming which antedated the State. The story he told amply bore out his opinion that Masons have contributed to the development of Wyoming throughout its history.

The Senior Grand Steward, R.W. Bro. Clifford P. Hansen, was introduced and addressed Grand Lodge. Such an innovation might well seem surprising. The explanation is that he is also the Governor of the State.

Special Dispensations were granted to hold the 7th Annual Heart Mountain Masonic Rendezvous at Heart Mountain, to hold "a tiled outdoor meeting . . . in a low vale," and to hold the 16th Annual Outdoor Masonic Meeting at a ranch. No fewer than twelve dispensations were granted to lodges to attend church, wearing regalia, and to observe the Festival of St. John the Evangelist, December 27. The Grand Jurisdiction is one of the smaller ones in the United States but the Proceedings show that it would be difficult to find a more active one.

The Roots and Origins of English Freemasonry and its development in North America

Wor. Bro. Sir Edwin Leather, Past Grand Deacon of the United Grand Lodge of England

M.W. BRO. TRELEAVEN: M.W. Sirs, Distinguished Guests and Brethren: It is no small honour to be asked to introduce our distinguished guest tonight. He got off to a good start—he was born in Hamilton, Ontario. (Laughter). Thank you. A son of Harold H. Leather, M.B.E., and Mrs. Leather; he attended Trinity College School, Port Hope, Ontario, and the Royal Military College in Kingston; married to Sheila Greenlees of Hamilton; has two charming daughters; served in the Canadian Army from 1939 to 1945 and, as he told me tonight, he has always been fascinated by British History and he remained in England when the War was over. He entered politics; became a member of The House of Commons in England, 1950 to 1964, as a Conservative—I personally forgive him for that. (Laughter). He is, as all good Masons should be, an active churchman and a lay-reader in the Church of England. He was initiated—first let me say he has a very distinguished Masonic record. He was initiated in the famous Lodge you heard about today, Canada Lodge, No. 3527, in London in 1942 and became its Worshipful Master in 1952. He affiliated with Annuntio Lodge, No. 5539, in London in 1951, and with Jubilee Masters' Lodge, No. 2712, in 1954, and became Worshipful Master of that Lodge in 1961; was Senior Grand Deacon of The United Grand Lodge of England in 1960. As a Royal Arch Mason he was exalted in Canada Chapter, No. 3527, in 1950; Most Excellent Z, in 1957 and 1958; Principal Grand Sojourner in 1960; and, as of today he is an Honorary Past Grand Registrar of the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Now, brethren, those are the things I'm supposed to say. I want to add a personal word. It has been my privilege during the day to be rather intimately associated with Sir Edwin, and what a delight it has been—a delightful personality, a charming gentleman, and believe me, I count it an honour to give you R.W. Bro. Sir Edwin Hartley Cameron Leather, our guest speaker. (Applause).

SIR EDWIN HARTLEY CAMERON LEATHER: M.W. Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Treleaven and Brethren all: If you will excuse me, I'm going straight home and take some trumpet lessons—or perhaps I should teach my wife to play the trumpet, I don't know which. (Laughter).

Thank you for a most magnificent and delightful evening. Thank you, M.W. Bro. Treleaven, for your very kind greetings, the nice things you said, and the fact that it was all accurate. (Laughter). I cannot tell you, brethren, how profoundly moved and happy I have been today to achieve Grand Rights in the Grand Lodge of Canada in Ontario. This is an honour to which I have never had the cheek to aspire, and I can assure you that it means something very deep to me. It has been a great joy to be with you, and to be here as a representative of my Mother Lodge, Canada Lodge in London, which is one of a number of such Lodges representing all parts of the Commonwealth—including the United States I am glad to say. (Laughter). The Grand Secretary assures me there is no record in our archives of our ever having recognized the Declaration of Independence (laughter) and I am happy to say to all my American brethren here that I hope to be an honorary citizen of your city, in fact I think I could probably claim to be the most American-American in the room, as a citizen of Kansas City—and you can't get more American than that! (Laughter).

It is a joy for me to be here tonight to add my small tribute to your M.W. Grand Master, J. N. Allan. It was a real pleasure to sit in Grand Lodge under your leadership today and to know that as long as Canadian Masonry is led by men of the standing, of the real deep brotherly feeling and integrity of M.W. Bro. Jim Allan, then Canadian Masonry is in good hands. (Applause).

Finally, on a personal note if I may, it has been a particular pleasure for me to be here in Grand Lodge today, in your Grand Lodge, and at this banquet tonight with your oldest Past Grand Master, a lifelong and dear friend of my family, M.W. Bro. Simpson—it is wonderful to see him tonight as one of us again. (Applause).

Now brethren, I am fulfilling a number of lifelong ambitions tonight. As you have heard, I was nurtured beneath the silver shadows of the steel plants of Hamilton and, therefore, very early in life I felt the call to becoming part of the instruction and inclusion of the brethren in the inferior degrees and, of course, I was brought up to understand that this meant Toronto. (Laughter) After what happened with the Ti-Cats in this city last week, I think perhaps they were overdoing it! (Laughter)

I learned my oratory of course as a politician, but I know that, in this company at any rate, I need not apologize for that because you pay honour to a very great politician tonight, and it is nice to know that I have got a little support. The trouble is that back home "politician" is a term of abuse. But I am sure, M.W. Grand Master, you will agree with me in pointing out to the rest of the brethren who have not been so fortunate as that, there is really only one fundamental difference, brethren, between us politicians and the rest of you, and that is that everything we say gets put on the record (laughter) and I am quite sure that if you had newspaper reporters following you around and writing down everything you say and trotting it out three years later, you would frequently look pretty damned silly, too. (Laughter) On behalf of the Grand Master and myself, I thank you for that vote of sympathy. (Laughter)

I know of course that I'm only an ex-politician because I retired from the House of Commons two years ago, and I hasten to say "retired" and not "kicked out" either by the Speaker or by my constituents. This fateful event in my life was brought in very forcefully only a few weeks ago. You know, we live in an age where there are people going around making polls and statistics of everything and delving into the most intimate details of human life, adding it all up, taking averages and making mathematical abstractions.

Well, one of our more lurid Sunday papers, in an edition which was supposed to be analyzing the change in public life going on in England at the present, listed a great many people, some of them much more eminent than myself—but my humble name was amongst them—listed a statistical table and the heading at the top of them was "Ex-Members of Parliament Who Have Retired Within The Last Ten Years" and underneath it said "Broken Down By Age and Sex" (Laughter). Well, as you can see, brethren, I'm not old, either. (Laughter)

But now it is my duty to address you in a somewhat more serious vein, and you will see such is the efficiency of the Grand Lodge of England in that they have even taken the precaution of sending my good friend, The Grand Secretary here, to see that I behave myself. (Laughter)

Brethren, I was asked to address you tonight on a somewhat serious subject of the connection in Masonry between England and Canada and The United States, and I chose the title "The Origin of English Freemasonry and Its Development in North America." This is an historical treatise, and I hope you will find it interesting.

Brethren, it is our proud boast that the seeds of Masonry are lost in antiquity, and the reason why so many of them have been lost will be described in the course of this lecture. We speak, however, of Moses as being our first "Grand Master," and our ritual is based on incidents during the construction of the first Temple at Jerusalem. Just what validity is there in our claim to be the legitimate heirs of King Solomon? Is it a tenable hypothesis, or just a pretty story based on mythology and conjured up from the imaginative longings of modern men? A little research and study can, in fact, establish the hypothesis, and I would like very briefly to try to describe it to you.

Masonry is defined as "A peculiar system of morality, veiled in allegory and illustrated by the symbols." The whole of what modern men call "morality" stems from the development of the idea of one spiritual, moral God. Moses stands unique in all human history as the first developer of this idea, and as the first man who actually deduced moral principles from it. The idea had earlier been conceived by that elusive but historical figure we call Father Abraham, the first known, recorded, leader of the ancient Hebrews, though what his actual name was is certainly lost in antiquity.

But it was left to Moses, generations later, to carry the thinking a stage further, and above all to attempt to define the principles of morality which must please a spiritual god of love and mercy. To Moses, as scholars of the Old Testament will well know, it was allowed only to lead his people to the Promised Land, and to build no more than an altar of stone to try to symbolise their worship of the true god.

It was left to Solomon, the first powerful ruler of a settled and organized State of Israel, to build the first Temple. Solomon's was not the first Temple ever built by man; Asia, North Africa, and South America are covered with the ruins of more ancient structures dedicated to the sun, animals, or long forgotten gods of man's own invention. But all history proves that Solomon's Temple was the first structure which ever existed on the face of this globe dedicated to the idea of a spiritual god; a god of love, of justice and of mercy; a god who, of necessity is veiled in allegory, can only be pleased by morality, and can only be illustrated by man-made symbols. The God who, whether one is religious or agnostic, is, today, the only basis of ideas of morality known to civilised man. And, of course, the only material available to Solomon for the main structure of his Temple was stone. Solomon was unquestionably, therefore, the first "Grand Master" of Masons, in that he was the first man who conceived, and presided over the construction of the first man-made Temple dedicated to the spiritual, moral god of love and mercy.

For the majority of those of us of Western European ancestry this idea has come down developed in the Christian tradition and through the teachings and influence of Jesus. But Judaism was, and is, the original religion of one God Most High, and Mohammedanism is another off-shoot of Judaism, exactly the same as Christianity. From the time of Solomon for nearly 1000 years only Jewish masons were engaged in building temples to the one god wherever the Jewish people were found over the face of Europe, Asia and Northern Africa—where of course they were found centuries before the invention of the Christian myth about the Dispersion. Western Europe, however, being almost entirely converted to Christianity frequently by bloodshed and force, the same work and the same religious philosophy inevitably became associated throughout the centuries with those masons who were employed to build the greatest and most beautiful stone structures which Europe has given to mankind, namely the medieval cathedrals.

Medieval Masonry

As far as the antecedents of English-speaking Freemasons are concerned, the original Freemasons were all organized bodies of skilled men, engaged like King Solomon himself, in erecting Temples to the Most High and they worked in various countries of Europe during the great Cathedral-building Middle Ages. They congregated around what was known to them as their "lodge," which was possibly their workroom, and certainly their central point for assembly. Each such lodge was presided over by a master mason and numerous points of observance in Masonic Lodges of today are to be found in English rules still extant which date from the 12th and 13th centuries. A covenant entered into in 1552 between the freemasons engaged on the fabric of York Minster and the Dean and Chapter, is full of information concerning their "ancient usages" which the ecclesiastical authorities agreed to maintain. Rules were embodied for the direction of the workmen at both labour and refreshment; signals were given to resume their work by an act of knocking; none could be engaged without being tested; and none was admitted save under oath.

Westminster Abbey archives of the 14th century likewise bear testimony to the presence among the workers of lodges of Freemasons, and some evidence can be found in nearly all the great medieval ecclesiastical centres. Grand Lodge Library in London contains volumes by numerous authors, notably John Aubrey and Sir William Dugdale, writing in the 16th and 17th centuries, which refer to Masonic organizations as being "ancient." Elias Ashmole, after whom the world famous Ashmolean Museum at Oxford is named, has left a record that he was initiated in a Lodge in Warrington, Lancashire, on the 16 October, 1646.

Georgian England and the roots of Modern Freemasonry

The critical year for the whole evolution of modern, organized Masonry as we know it throughout the world is 1717. It is instructive to look at the historical background of this period to try to deduce exactly why Masonry became formalized when it did, and then developed so rapidly. Britain at that time presented a picture of enormous contrasts. The Hanoverian dynasty was safely ensconced on the throne. The succession was secure for the first time in 150 years; Marlborough's successive battles had reduced France of Louis XIV to a point where he could no longer menace the stability of Britain, or the trade routes of the world. British civilisation was entering a period when it reached its artistic peak. The physical remains of the time, in palaces, exquisite china, furniture and magnificent paintings were approaching a period of elegance and world-wide renown never equalled in any country before or since. Political peace and stability were entering a phase unknown to previous history since the fall of Rome, and the modern machinery of popular, elected, parliamentary government was just beginning to be worked out by agreement rather than by violence. One of the great pioneers of modern Masonry, John Anderson, a Presbyterian clergyman in London, wrote in 1723, "the freeborn British Mason, disentangled from foreign and civil wars, can enjoy the good fruits of peace and liberty," and went on to compile the first Book of Constitutions of Freemasonry.

Against this background the life of the vast mass of the ordinary people was dull, brutish and short. The merciless cartoons which have come down to us from the pens of Hogarth, Gilray and Rowlandson illustrates life as it was known to the majority of ordinary people. It was an age of savage contrasts. In an age which saw the dawn of idealism, elegance, and an age which entitled itself The Age of Reason, religion and morals were at a low ebb.

Men of morals and ideals in all walks of life were inspired by the grandeur, challenged by the sordidness, and for the first time allowed, by the absence of tyrannical government, to concentrate their minds on endeavouring to improve the lot of their fellow men. This may seem to us a common place, but in fact before the early Georgian period in England, it was an idea that had rarely occurred to men in any walk of life, and even when it had, they had seldom been in a position to do anything constructive about it.

One outcome of all this was a tremendous upsurge in growth of social clubs, intellectual gatherings, meetings of all kinds to discuss everything in a way that had never occurred since ancient Greece; nearly all the great English learned Societies were formed in the first half of the 18th century. It, therefore, followed naturally from the conditions of the day that the small groups of Masonic Lodges, remnants of various medieval bodies whose ancestry had long been lost in history, should begin to come together, to be more active, and to attract the attention of people of standing.

The exact number of Lodges in London in 1717 is uncertain, but there were definitely four, and of them a great deal is known.

They were the original four Lodges who met together in 1716 at a pub called The Apple Tree and decided to form themselves into an overall ruling body, which they decided to entitle "The Grand Lodge." Having elected the oldest living Master Mason amongst them into the Chair, they held a feast on St. John the Baptist day, the 24th June, 1717, and formally elected one, Anthony Sayer, as "Grand Master."

The four original London Lodges responsible for this movement play a unique and honoured place in Masonic history. Unfortunately one of them ceased to exist in 1737 and trace of it has been lost; but the other three, through various changes of name and number, still exist on the register of the Grand Lodge of England, and they are now Number 2, The Lodge of Antiquity; Number 4, Royal Somerset and Inverness Lodge; and Number 12, Fortitude and Old Cumberland Lodge. It is interesting, too, to note that all these grew out of the old Lodges of "operative" masons, and in their early days the majority of their members were operative masons. They were all, until that historic moment in 1717, entirely self-governing, yet, according to their charters, "holding fast to the ancient customs and old charges," which as far as is known, were nowhere and at no time ever written down or codified.

Further, in studying this story we discover why so much of what must have been written down has also disappeared, and why so much that we would like to know can never be discovered. In 1720 George Paine, the Grand Master for the year, being of a strong and energetic character with a tidy administrative mind, drew up the first regulations and founded the first definite body of laws for the guidance of the newly-formed Grand Lodge. To assist in this work he appealed to all known Lodges throughout the British Isles to send in whatever documents they did possess, even including the ancient minutes of operative lodges, where these existed, so that a proper basis for the rules of Grand Lodge could be drawn up. Many Lodges were so horrified by what they regarded as this shocking breach of secrecy that they burned what records they did have rather than surrender them to this new upstart self-styled higher authority. Paine, however, proceeded in his design, was supported by the other Lodges who had gone to make up the original Grand Lodge, and ordered to be written down the basic set of Constitutions for Lodges which is still practised throughout the world.

The two most important administrators and organizers of early Grand Lodge days in England were James Anderson, whom I have already mentioned, and John Desagulier. Desagulier was born Jean Theo Desagulier at La Rochelle and was brought to England as an infant of two years by his father, a Huguenot pastor, in 1685. He graduated from Christ Church, Oxford, in 1710, was made a Fellow of the Royal Society in 1714, and was for many years the Minister of the French Protestant Church in London. He was the instigator and a member of the original committee appointed in 1725 to organize the General Charity, and five years later initiated the Standing Committee to regulate and dispose of charitable funds which is the direct ancestor of all present Boards of Benevolence throughout the Craft. He designed the first distinctive clothing and jewels of Grand Officers from which our modern ones have developed.

The first Book of Constitutions, as ordered by George Paine in 1720, was drawn up finally in 1723 by James Anderson, and was based upon his study of the rare and un-co-ordinated records of the various craft guilds of the late fourteenth century which were available to him.

One of the great arguments of this period was Anderson's insistence, himself a Christian clergyman, on "the Universality of Masonry"—in other words, to be a Mason required a belief in the eternal God, and a dedication to the moral principles, but not necessarily an adherence to Christian practice and theology. The operative lodges, having for centuries been most closely associated with the building of cathedrals, and having no firm constitutions or rules to guide them, had inevitably become closely associated with the Christian faith. Anderson, Desagulier and others pointed out that the entire origin of Masonry is not Christian but Jewish; that there is not a recorded character in Masonic ritual who is not Jewish, and the Jews, like Mohammedans and many others, worship the same "spiritual" God as we do. Had this broad and enlightened view not carried the day, clearly Masonry could not make claim to universality, nor could much of the development of Masonry in non-Christian countries ever have taken place. It is a curious fact not unworthy of note by Canadian Masons that the two pioneers who did most to regularize and organize English Masonry were a Frenchman and a Scot.

Ireland and Scotland

While some individual Masonic Lodges in Scotland can trace their firm origin back to earlier dates than those in England, largely because what records they had were not deliberately destroyed, Scottish Grand Lodge was not formed until 1736, while the Grand Lodge of Ireland first met in 1725. As Masons from the Scottish, and particularly the Irish jurisdictions drifted more and more into England, and as theological and jurisdictional disputes amongst English Masons themselves grew, the history of the latter part of the eighteenth century is, alas, largely one of conflict and rivalry, even to the point of mutual ex-communication. The long and intricate stories of the Modern and Ancient Grand Lodges of England—in true English logic the Moderns being the old originals and the Ancients the newcomers—and their respective jockeyings for position with the Grand Lodges of Ireland and Scotland, is a fascinating one for the Masonic historian, but out of context in my speech tonight.

Early Developments in North America.

And so by direct progression from Moses and Solomon through the Medieval Cathedral builders, and the organizers of Georgian England, we reach the period when Freemasonry made its first appearance on the continent of North America.

The earliest entrance of Freemasonry into North America is also lost in antiquity, but Melvin Johnson, a Past Grand Master of Massachusetts and a painstaking historian, has written "it is generally believed as a warranted deduction from the known facts, that Freemasonry was brought into the Colonies of North America at a very early period in the eighteenth century, and that the immigrating Freemasons established Lodges in various places, which they worked without the sanction of warrants." It was not until 1730 that the Grand Lodge of England attempted in any way to exercise authority or bring regularity into Masonry as it existed in North America.

The first mention of America as such in the archives of the Grand Lodge of England appears on June 5th, 1730, when one Daniel Cox Esq. was made "Provincial Grand Master of the Provinces of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania in America." Alas, from that day on, there is no written record existing anywhere of Daniel Cox ever having done anything! There is a tradition amongst New Jersey Masons that Cox instituted a Lodge at Trenton, the State Capital, but it is very shadowy and no proof exists of any Masonic activities in America of America's First Grand Master. He did, however, make one or two more appearances in England and the records for the quarterly Grand Lodge Communication of January 29th, 1731, note the presence of "Daniel Cox Esquire, Provincial Grand Master of North America"; by whose authority his writ was extended to encompass the entire continent, is also obscure, but it apparently was accepted by the Grand Lodge of England at the time and there is record that his health was proposed as "Provincial Grand Master of North America."

Certainly the most famous North American Mason in our early history was Benjamin Franklin. In Franklin's paper, "The Pennsylvania Gazette," in 1730, we find the earliest allusion on the west side of the Atlantic to the Grand Lodge of England. Franklin was made a Mason in 1731, in St. John's Lodge, Philadelphia, one of the various American self-constituted, but genuine Lodges meeting "according to the old customs." Franklin became Master of his Lodge a year and a half after initiation and in the meantime produced the oldest draft of American Masonic by-laws still in existence. In 1732 he became Junior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, then apparently newly formed, but its records of this date do not exist. It has been claimed that Cox granted the necessary authority under his commission, but no evidence has been found to support the claim.

The first properly authorised and active Grand Master in the Western Hemisphere, of whom there is record, was Henry Price of Boston, Patron Saint of Massachusetts Masonry. In 1732 a statement appears in English records by Lord Montague, then Grand Master, that "application has been made unto me by our Right Worshipful and Well Beloved Brother Mr. Henry Price, in behalf of himself and several other brethren now residing in New England," June 24th, 1732, is the date of the first recorded meeting in English speaking Freemasonry of a Provincial Grand Lodge officially assembled and regularised, when Henry Price presided and the Lodge met at Boston. The authority granted by London to Henry Price in 1733 states that it is over "New England and Dominion and Territories thereunto belonging," but it was extended in 1734 to cover the whole of North America.

The interesting correspondence in 1734 between Price and Benjamin Franklin still exists in which Franklin congratulated Price on having received his widened powers, the fullness of which he recognised in a letter declaring that Masonry in the Province of Pennsylvania seemed to want the sanction of some authority "from home" to give Proceedings and Determinations of the Lodge their due weight. Accordingly he asked Price, as Grand Master of North America, to confirm the Pennsylvanian brethren in the privileges they enjoyed in their self-constituted Grand Lodge "by virtue of his commission from Britain." And the letter was signed by Franklin as "Grand Master of Pennsylvania."

On September 25th, 1786, ten years after the Declaration of American Independence, a convention of thirteen Pennsylvanian Lodges assembled in Philadelphia and resolved "that the Lodges under the Provincial Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, lately held under the authority of the Grand Lodge of England, will and do now form themselves into a Grand Lodge to be called the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania." The document goes on, "we shall endeavour to hold forth every engaging virtue that the members of the British Grand Lodge may approach." Three days later the newly self-constituted Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania sent a communication to the Grand Lodge of England in the following terms "Brethren, we salute you in all love and respect, we acknowledge your past goodness, and we pray your kind and candid acceptance of this address. It having pleased the Grand Master of all events in human affairs to dissolve the political connection which subsisted between your country and ours when we were honoured with your warrant and changed the situation of this country into that of a sovereignty instead of that of a province, it has seen meet to the brethren here no longer to consider themselves as a Provincial Grand Lodge. We hope and trust that this procedure will meet with your approbation and that we shall continue to receive your salutary counsels and brotherly advice and communications upon every occasion which may occur to you as requiring it."

The Origins of Canadian Masonry.

The first Lodge recorded in Canada was in 1738, and met at Annapolis, being constituted under the authority of Henry Price as Provincial Grand Master for New England. The first Master was Major Erasmus James Phillips, a British Army Officer, who was enstyled "Deputy Provincial Grand Master for Acadia." Records for the year 1746 state that London appointed one Capt. Robert Cummins as Provincial Grand Master for Cape Breton and Louisburg; this appears to make him the first dignitary of a specifically Canadian jurisdiction but, alas, we can trace no other reference to him in English records. The deputation to set up a Lodge at Halifax, dated 12th June, 1750, was addressed to Phillips, whose authority was thus sought. The first Master of that Lodge was General Edward Cornwallis, who had been made a Mason in London in 1725 and was then serving with the army in Nova Scotia, of which he was Governor. It is interesting to note that, in order to accept that position, he gave up a Lieutenant Colonelcy in his regiment which was passed to Major James Wolfe. The first Canadian Provincial Grand Lodge was that of Nova Scotia and was established in December 1766 at Halifax. On the 8th November, 1759, only seven weeks after Wolfe's victory over Montcalm, a great conclave of British Military Lodges was held in Quebec City and formed itself into a Provincial Grand Lodge. Thomas Dunckerley, another great figure in English Masonry—he was subsequently Grand Master of no less than 9 English provinces, constituted an extraordinary number of new Lodges—carried their petitions to England. He returned in the following year and, acting on the authority of the Grand Lodge of England, himself enthroned Colonel Simon Fraser, of the Highland Regiment, as the first Provincial Grand Master for Lower Canada.

In 1792 we find first mention of one of the most illustrious names in modern Masonic history, H.R.H. Prince Edward, afterwards Duke of Kent, who was commissioned as "Provincial Grand Master for Lower Canada" of the Ancients, while serving with his regiment at Quebec. His role is worthy of study because he, with a handful of other royal and noble personages, played a leading role at this time in ending the conflict which had rent English Masonry for 60 years, and in regularising relations between the Grand Lodges of England, Scotland and Ireland. On returning to England at the end of his tour of Canadian duty, he became Grand Master of the Ancients, and in 1813 played one of the key roles in establishing the United Grand Lodge of England, himself installing the first United Grand Master, his own younger brother, the Duke of Sussex, on the throne of King Solomon. History knows him as the father of Queen Victoria.

He was grandfather to two successive Grand Masters of England, Edward Prince of Wales, later King Edward VII, and his younger brother the Duke of Connaught, for five fateful years Governor General of Canada during his Grand Mastership. He was, also, of course, great-great-grandfather to the late Duke of Kent, the only Grand Master in our history to be killed while serving his country on active service in wartime; and it will not have escaped your notice that his son, the present Duke, has just become Senior Grand Warden of England. It can truly be said that no single name deserves to be more honoured by Masonry throughout the world than that of the Duke of Kent.

The division between the Moderns and the Ancients in the latter half of the 18th century caused many jurisdictional disputes, not the least of which were in Canada. It was not until ten years after the Union that in 1823 the Duke of Sussex as Grand Master announced "having learnt that in the Province of Upper Canada, North America, several Lodges were held by mutual consent and agreement but without Warrants or authority from this or other Lodge, he, the M.W. Grand Master had in April last, appointed the R.W. Brother Simon McGillivray, P.J.G.W., to be Provincial Grand Master for Upper Canada." McGillivray arrived in Canada in July, 1833, and set upon his work, which was, as far as I know, the first directly accredited overseas mission ever undertaken by any Grand Lodge. His mission was entirely successful and the history of Canadian Masonry, thus laid on solid foundations, has been one of steady growth and harmony to the great position it occupies today.

From 1823 on the action and interaction of the United Grand Lodge of England and Masonry in Canada, present a fascinating interwoven pattern of deeds and men, famous in our joint history.

In 1834 the post of Deputy Grand Master was held by John, 1st Earl of Durham, the author of the famous Durham Report which brought about the union of Upper and Lower Canada. In 1870 Earl de Grey and Ripon, afterwards first Marquess of Ripon, was appointed Grand Master and reigned for four years. This was the selfsame Earl de Grey and Ripon who presided over the contentious Alabama negotiations in Washington in 1871 which caused Sir John A. Macdonald such anguish and difficulty in the early days of Confederation.

On returning to England Lord Ripon was honoured by a special meeting in Freemasons' Hall on June 7th when he was formally thanked for his services to Anglo-American relations, in securing the signature of the Washington Treaty. It is not recorded that any Canadian Masons were present or joined in the applause on that occasion. He certainly received no vote of thanks from John A.

It would be presumptuous of me to give you a lecture on your own history, but I must, of course, refer to the historic deeds of 1855.

On October 10th of that year twenty-five English Lodges, fourteen Irish Lodges and one Scottish Lodge, in what was then called Upper Canada, organized the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario. The Provincial Grand Lodge of Canada West, having been previously constituted as a province of the United Grand Lodge of England, dissociated itself from this movement and appealed to the Grand Master in London, now Lord Zetland, for his support. Poor communications, dilatoriness in dealing with letters and frequently letters never arriving at all, coupled with the jurisdictional disputes between the Ancients and Moderns, before the Union and the Scots and the Irish, bedevilled much of Canadian Masonic history during the early part of the last century. By 1858, however, these were all finally settled, and July 14th, 1858, the true independence day of Canadian Freemasonry, saw a joint convention when the Union of all the main bodies concerned was formally ratified. After more wrangling, misunderstandings and loss of letters, this was at last approved unanimously in the following year in the Grand Lodge of England on the motion of Lord Zetland "amidst loud cheering."

From there on Anglo-Canadian Masonry became a two-way traffic. One of the last great pioneers moving from East to West was Colonel McLeod Moore, an Englishman born in Ireland and initiated into Freemasonry in Scotland. He came to Canada with his regiment in 1850 and his record of Masonic activity here almost equals that of Dunckerley in England. Moore Sovereign Consistory of the Scottish Rite in Hamilton, and Moore Sovereign Chapter Rose Croix at St. John's, New Brunswick, are both named in his honour. His son, William McLeod Moore, went back to England in business, was initiated in London in 1906, and became the founder of Canada Lodge there, into which so many hundreds of Canadian soldiers, seamen and airmen, myself included, were initiated during two World Wars.

Canada Lodge, No. 3527 on the Register of the Grand Lodge of England, was consecrated by Sir Edward Letchworth, the Grand Secretary, on 19th June, 1911. Amongst its early leaders, besides McLeod Moore, were such great Anglo-Canadians as Sir George MacLaren Brown, for many years head of the C.P.R. in London, Obed Smith, Sir Harry Brittain, still going strong, at 94, Hugh Strain Carmichael, Sir Ernest Cooper of beloved memory, Hamor Greenwood, Leopold Amery, A. E. Carlyle, and Dean Smalley-Baker, now retired as Dean of Osgoode Hall and still resident in this city and present here tonight. To do full justice to these Masonic giants one can only read, carefully and in full, the erudite and thoroughly delightful history of Canada Lodge by W. Bro. Arthur Johnson, a fellow Past Grand Officer of the Grand Lodge of England, whose regalia I had the honour to be wearing in your august assembly this morning. I also had the great pleasure of presenting a copy of the history to your Grand Master as a personal gift from Bro. Johnson, and I am sure it will have a permanent and honoured place in your archives.

I heartily commend to any who may be interested, Arthur Johnson's fascinating book. But of all the illustrious figures who march through its pages the greatest of them all was surely R.W. Bro. Sir Ernest Cooper. In case any of you don't know, Ernest Cooper was born and brought up in Clinton not many miles from here, where his father kept the general store. He started up in business in England as a young man, and rose to fame and honour and fortune in every walk of life he entered. He was Secretary and Director of Ceremonies of Canada Lodge for nearly 20 years, President of the Board of General Purposes of the Grand Lodge of England for 13 years, throughout that long period friend, confidant and adviser to successive Grand Masters, and the inspiration of every young Canadian Mason in London. He undertook innumerable missions abroad for the Grand Masters whom he served, and was probably honoured by more Canadian and American Masonic organizations than any other English Mason who ever lived. He died just three years ago, beloved by all who knew him, by many in this room tonight and certainly by none more than myself, who had the honour and joy of serving under him in various offices over so many years. Ernest Cooper's is a name which will long be cherished amongst Masons in Canada and in England.

Such has been the influence of the English language and English Masonry, that Lodges under the English jurisdiction exist virtually all over the world. In closing, let me quote from the report of the first official Grand Lodge delegation to the Far East 1927-1928, which was headed by the Deputy Grand Master of that year, Lord Cornwallis, a descendant of the first Provincial Grand Master of Nova Scotia. Writing to the Grand Master on their return he said, "We have seen as many as five volumes of the Sacred Law in use at one and the same time, and brethren of the following, among other races at random, Europeans, Parsees, Chinese, Burmese, Hindu, American, Ceylonese, Punjabis, Mohammedans, Sikhs, Armenians, Greeks, Bengalis, Jews, Arakanese and Madrasis, participating in Masonic ceremonies. The brotherhood of man in such circumstances becomes a living reality."

THE GRAND MASTER: Brethren, I am going to ask Deputy Grand Master, Donald Gunn, to thank our speaker.

DEPUTY GRAND MASTER, DONALD GUNN: M.W. Grand Masters, Distinguished Guests and Brethren all: After listening to as masterly an address as we have ever had the privilege of listening to in the last half hour, I think perhaps the chief attribute required of the one designated to express the thanks of this wonderful meeting to our guest speaker, I think our chief attribute should be 'Brethren.'

My brethren, I was thinking, as I was listening to the very fine and outstanding address, also instructive and informative, that I did not envy our Grand Master when, nearly a year from now, he will be faced with the task of finding a speaker who could adequately follow the distinguished Mason we have had the privilege of listening to in the last while. It is trite, and it is an expression that has been used many times in the past, to say to the speaker of the evening that the rapt attention of the brethren has testified more eloquently to their interest in, and their enjoyment of, his address than many rounds of applause. Well, that statement, brethren, may be old and may be trite, but it is still very true indeed. Not only have we had a masterly address with great clarity of thought, fine choice of language, but we have also had a most informative address on what might be well termed Masonic Education.

And so, Sir Edwin, it is my happy privilege, greatly and with the utmost sincerity, to express to you our deep thanks and appreciation of the treat that you have given us tonight. We hope some other time you will come back again (Applause).
